Charles Riley Retires From Kearfott Plant

Charles H. Riley, Kearfott plant manager, will retire on June 22, 1962. The announcement was made by Robert Ward, group vice-president, who stated that Mr. Riley had done an outstanding job and that he was largely responsible for the success of the Asheville plant.

Charles Riley

Mr. Riley has been in charge of Kearfott's operations in Black Mountain since Oct. 15, 1956. He joined the company in November of 1955. He is also active in community and civic affairs including 2nd vice-president of Western Carolina Industries and member of the board of directors of the Asheville Chamber of Commerce, the United Fund, and the Black Mountain-Swannanovian Rotary club.

The Rileys plan to live in Florida after his retirement.

William Reid Will Speak At Garden Club

The Garden club is to have an expert on vegetable growing as speaker Friday evening, June 22. Dr. Gilbert S. Willey announced this week. William W. Reid, superintendent of the Mountain Horticultural Crops Experiment station at Fletcher, will talk at the meeting on vegetable growing.

Scheduled for 7:30 at the Lake Tomahawk clubhouse, the Garden club meeting will explore a timely subject as most vegetable gardens are early and doing well this year. Dr. Willey, newly elected president of the Black Mountain Garden club, predicts an interesting meeting and suggests all members and friends or guests who are interested in this phase of gardening be on hand for the meeting.

Miss Mary MacKay, Miss Ruby Hall, and Mrs. Leslie Garton will be hostesses for the event and will serve punch and cookies after the program.

Every Garden club member will participate in planning a schedule of programs for the remainder of the year during Friday's meeting and the new officers will be installed. These are: Leo Germaine, treasurer; Leslie Garton, recording secretary; Mrs. Walter Davis, vice-president; and Mrs. Frank Abernathy, corresponding secretary.

Library Notes

The Black Mountain library continues its 39th birthday celebration with three new novels of special interest this week.

"The Guns of August" by Tuchman, is an account of the first 30 days of World War I. "Refuge in Avalon" by Steedman, is a vivid and authentic story set in the first decades of the Christian era. "Three Score and Ten" by Thirkell, is the 29th Barsetshire novel.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Rice announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Juanita, to Jerry Harold Rhymer, on June 15 in Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Rhymer is the son of Mrs. M. C. Decker of Swannanovian and the late James R. Rhymer.

Mrs. Rhymer is a graduate of Clyde A. Erwin High school and is employed by Bon Marche.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Charles D. Owen High school and is employed by Ex-Cell-O Corp. of Swannanovian. The couple left for a wedding trip to Florida.

Mrs. Ronald Astor Solesbee

Miss Cecelia Kaye Wyrick and Ronald Astor Solesbee were united in marriage Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Black Mountain Methodist church by the pastor, the Rev. John McWhorter.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Marie Bengte.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jefferson Wyrick of Black Mountain, and Mr. Solesbee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Astor Solesbee, also of Black Mountain.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown which was made by her mother. The bodice was of imported lace over satin and the skirt was bell shaped, ending in a train. Appliqued lace and seed pearls were used as a design on the front skirt panel. Her veil of illusion was attached to a bridal coronet and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Brenda Garland of Black Mountain was maid of honor. She was attired in a dress of green nylon over satin featuring a satin midriff belt with matching shoes and head-dress. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of yellow and green chrysanthemums.

Miss Sandra Leigh Hill of Asheville, college roommate of the bride, Miss Barbara Solesbee, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Betty Pollard, both of Black Mountain, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were yellow nylon over satin made identical to the honor attendant. They wore matching shoes and head pieces, and carried bouquets of green and yellow chrysanthemums.

Beth McWhorter, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Lloyd McWhorter, was flower girl. Her dress was of yellow silk organza with floral headpiece and she carried a yellow net basket of flowers.

Mr. Solesbee was his son's best man. Groomsman were Linville Simpson and David Jones of Black Mountain and Mitchell Miller, cousin of the bride, of Salisbury. Mark Miller of Salisbury, also a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a pink combed cotton embroidered sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories and a rose corsage.

For a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach the bride wore a pink linen suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Solesbee is a graduate of Owen High school and attended Brevard college. Mr. Solesbee is a graduate of Owen High school and is employed at Asheville Concrete company. The couple will re-

Milk Industry Subject For Club Meeting

Miss Carolyn Allen, Buncombe County Dairy Princess and student at Baltimore High school, and Bufwell Smith, Agricultural Development Engineer, Asheville, addressed the Black Mountain-Swannanovian Kiwanis club at the luncheon meeting Thursday, June 14, at the Monte Vista hotel.

Mr. Smith stated that June is National Dairy Month. This observance was started to promote the sale of milk. In 1940 North Carolina produced milk valued at $35,229,000.00. At present the state is producing milk valued at $100,000,000.00.

Princess Carolyn gave a most comprehensive and informative talk on the milk industry in North Carolina. Among other illuminating statements, she said 22,000 families are dependent on the dairy business for their incomes. Dairying is on the upswing in North Carolina. In 1950 dairy products sold for $3,000,000.00 and 1961 the income was $9,000,000.00. In Western North Carolina the dairies have an annual payroll of $5,500,000.00.

Visitors at this meeting were J. L. Smith, Rock Hill, S. C., and Billy McMurray, Black Mountain. President Don Quarles presided.

Jaycees Promote Junior Golf In Film and Entry

The Black Mountain Jr. Chamber of Commerce will present a program on Junior Golf at its next meeting, June 21, 1962. A 30 min. color, sound movie entitled Famous Fairways will be shown as well as a film strip on Jr. Golf. The movie will show play on six of the nation's top golf courses. The program will begin at 8:00 p.m. at the Monte Vista Hotel. Any one interested in Jr. Golf in this area is cordially invited to attend the program. A special invitation is given to Jr. Golfers (18 yrs. and under) and their parents to attend the meeting.

The local Jaycees are planning to send a Jr. Golfer from this area to represent Black Mt. in the state Jaycee Jr. Golf tournament to be held at the Kinston Country Club-July 23, 24, 25. Plans for this are being made by the Jaycee Jr. Golf committee. Members of this committee are Glen Melton, chairman; Wilburn Waters, and Dan Wilson.

Announcement Of Plans For 8th Horse Show

What began seven years ago as an afternoon gathering of a small group of parents and friends to watch youngsters and their horses perform has grown into a big, two day Annual Horse Show at Black Mountain.

Most of the same parents will this year stage what has been called "one of the best little shows in the Carolinas" on Friday and Saturday, July 6 and 7, at the Monte Vista Farms off US 70 West, 1 mile west of Black Mountain.

The Show last year attracted entries not only from the local summer camps and owners and stables of the two Carolinas, but from as far away as Florida. The proceeds will again this year be given to the Black Mountain Elementary P. T. A. for their work in the school.

Additional classes have been added each year until they now total sixty, with Divisions in three gaited, five gaited, walking horses, harness, hunters and jumpers, as well as large western and equitation Divisions. Show time is at 9:00 A. M. and 2:00 P. M. each day.
