

Turkey and Ham Shoot Dog and Gun Swap

● VFW POST HOME
● SATURDAY 10 'TIL DARK

BLACK MOUNTAIN NEWS

DEVOTED 100% TO OUR COMMUNITY — THE GROWING SWANNANOVA VALLEY

Weather

	High	Low	Prec.
Oct. 2	69	41	.93
Oct. 3	63	57	1.75
Oct. 4	71	58	.65
Oct. 5	76	53	.02
Oct. 6	Not Recorded
Oct. 7	78	51	.10
Oct. 8	83	57

VOL. 18

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1962, BLACK MOUNTAIN, NORTH CAROLINA

10 PAGES TODAY

NO. 6 — Single Copy, 10c

Town Topics

Edith K. Benedict

Legion Post Hears Address By Commander

Divison 5 Comander Jack Dunwoody of Lenoir spoke to Post 129 of the American Legion at its regular meeting at Town Hall. He gave the history of the organization from its inception and challenged veterans today to support the Legion not only for what it has accomplished but for what it can do in each community in the future.

"It should be an honor to be a Legionaire," he said. "You cannot buy membership unless you have served your country honorably in one of its armed services during a period of war."

The speaker was introduced by Com. Paul Sherwood with the information that he (the speaker) had a continuous membership of 44 years and had served in every position of service.

Commander Sherwood announced that a turkey shoot at Phillips 66 east of town on Nov. 17 and that the children's Christmas party will be held at the Black Mountain Club House on Dec. 22. These dates were announced in advance in order that Legionaires may keep these dates open.

Commander Sherwood announced that a turkey shoot at Phillips 66 east of town on Nov. 17 and that the children's Christmas party will be held at the Black Mountain Club House on Dec. 22. These dates were announced in advance in order that Legionaires may keep these dates open.

Kiwanis Club Donates $150 For Youth

Four members of the Kiwanis Club at Rutherfordton, N. C., were guests at the Black Mountain-Swannanoa Club luncheon meeting Thursday, October 4, at the Monte Vista hotel. The Rev. J. D. Hillman, D. D., one of the men from Rutherfordton, delivered an inspiring and challenging address based on a statement by Old Testament prophet Jeremiah. Dr. Hillman stated that the world needs 1. Men of initiative. 2. Men who are willing to sacrifice for the good of all people, and 3. Men of dedication who will give themselves completely to those principles and ideals which produce the highest type of character. The speaker had a kind word for Kiwanis which stands for the best in humankind.

The chairman reminded the members of the Club that the Woman's Club will have a Town Meeting Thursday, October 11, at 8:00 p.m., in the Methodist Church on State Street. An outstanding speaker will address the group.

Several members of this Club will visit the West Asheville Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening, October 9, at Bailey's Cafeteria, Westgate, and present the program of the evening.

Visitors at this meeting were Stanley F. Lee, Clearwater, Fla., W. S. Willey, Black Mountain, The Rev. J. D. Hillman, D. D., A. A. Morris, Luke Carbonette, and A. C. Craig, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Board of Directors of the Club, at its regular meeting Tuesday, October 2, voted $400.00 for Christmas lighting in Black Mountain, $150.00 to the Youth Center, and $300.00 for the Club's Student Loan Fund.

Mr. Ham has grown flowers for many, many years. He has supplied flowers of all kinds to Middletown in Asheville, one of the South's largest florist shops, for 30 of the 40 years the concern has been in business. From 1932-42 Mr. Ham spent all his time with his flowers while the family lived in Asheville. The first residence of the family in Black Mountain was east of town, but when the new highway came through they moved to the residence on Cotton avenue. Flower cultivation is more than a hobby with Mr. Ham although he does hold a full time job with the Dietetic dept. at the Moore General Hospital for 18 years as supervisor in engineering. He is anxious to spend full time with his flowers again when retirement days come around.

Craven Kendall Serving With Atlantic Fleet

Craven Kendall, fireman, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kendall of Old Toll Road, Black Mountain, N. C., is serving aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Vesole, a unit of the recovery forces which the U. S. Navy and U. S. Marine Corps have assigned to the Atlantic Ocean area for the third manned orbital flight into space.

The organization of ships and air units, Task Force 140, was on station in the Atlantic to locate and recover Astronaut Walter M. Schirra, should his flight be terminated there.

A similar organization, Task Force 130, was on station in the Pacific Ocean, where the landing took place.

The force in the Atlantic was commanded by Rear Admiral Harold G. Bowen, Commander Cruiser-Destroyer Flotilla Four. He was at the Cape Canaveral control center to direct the force, which includes 19 ships, over 50 aircraft and a group of specialists in the launchsite area.

The around - the - world vigil, maintained by the Pacific and Atlantic recovery forces, marks the first time

—Turn to Page 10

Football Group To Have Banquet

The football squads of Swannanoa and Black Mountain plan a get-together and homecoming on Oct. 19-20.

The group will attend the Owen-Canton game at Shuford field on Friday, Oct. 19, and then on Oct. 20 have a banquet at 6:30 p.m. at the clubhouse in Grovemont.

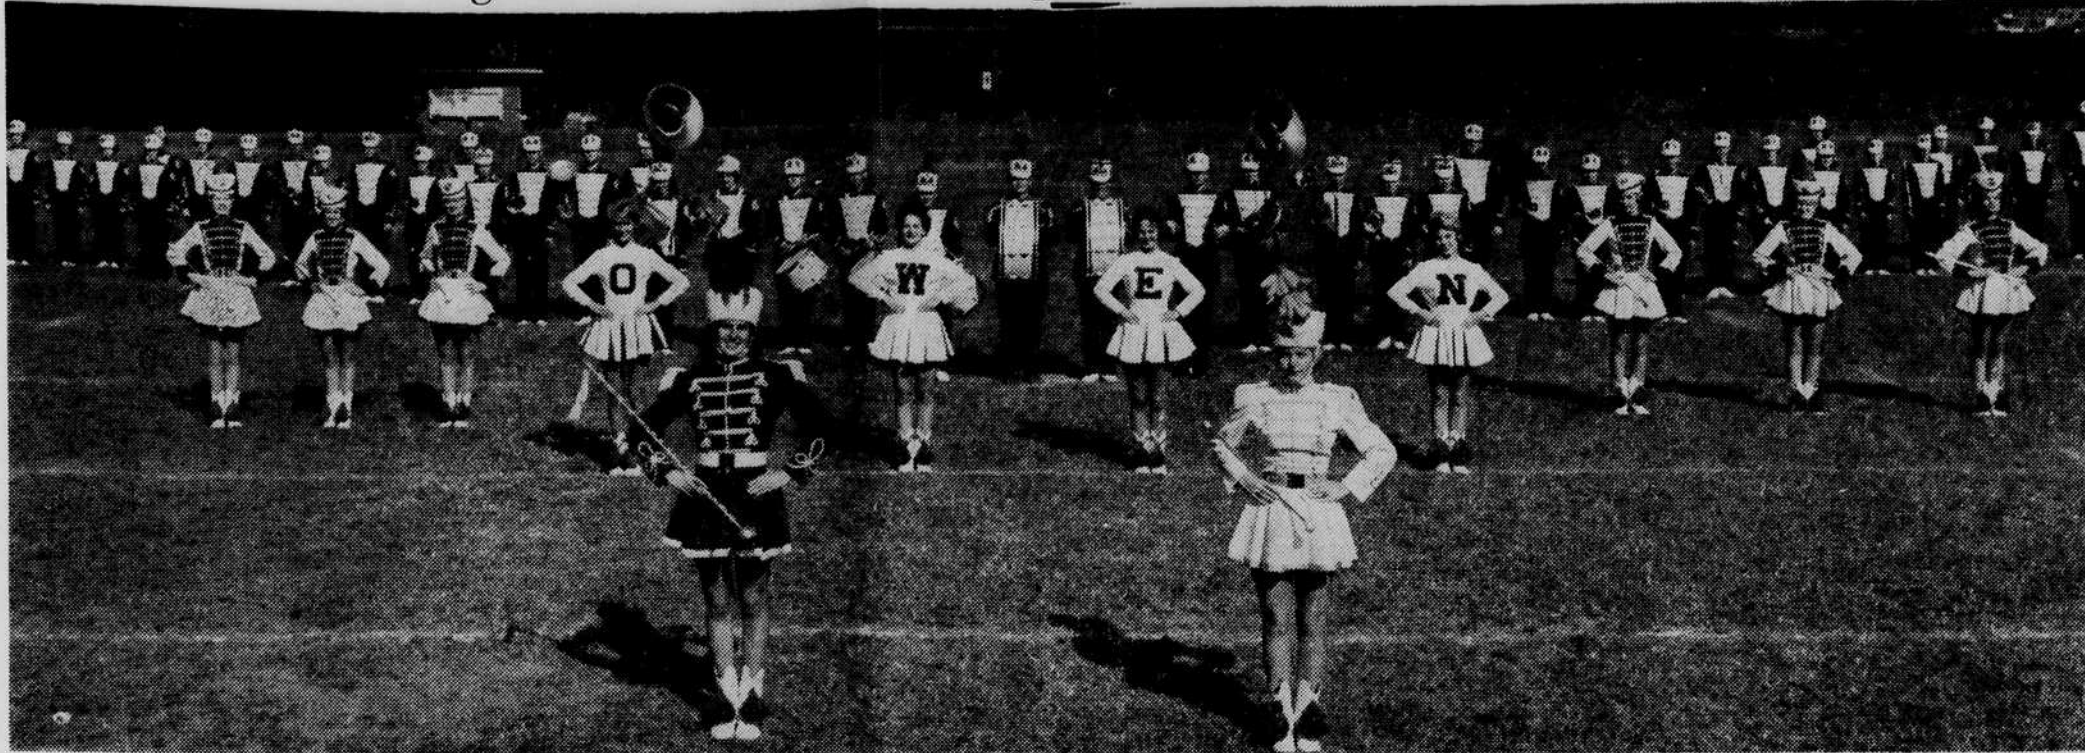

Charlie, Choo Choo Justice will be the principal speaker at the banquet. Bill Gilbert is in charge of arrangements for the Black Mountain group and Paul Patton for the Swannanoa squad members.

Members of the Owen High school football squad and their fathers and the coaching staff will be guests at the banquet.

HOME FOR WEEK END

Janet Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Goff, spent the weekend with her parents. Janet is in her first year at Mars Hill College where she is majoring in music.

Owen High School Band To Participate In Western Carolina Band Day

The Owen High school marching band, under the direction of Richard Hipps, will participate in the Western Carolina College Band Day and Homecoming activities at Cullowhee, Saturday, Oct. 13.

The band will leave the high school at 9:00 a.m. and travel to Cullowhee for a full day of participation and observation. Highlights of the day will include a parade through the campus; individual band shows put on by the visiting bands; the coronation of the Homecoming Queen; and dedication of new dormitories. The day's activities will be climaxed at the half-time of the ball game, when a massed band, composed of all the visiting bands, will provide the entertainment.

This is a good opportunity for our band students to see what the other bands in Western North Carolina are doing, and also for other bands to see what we are doing. The day should prove to be a very enjoyable experience, as well as a very educational one.

Lions Continue World Service

The Baroda, India, Lions have started a school to teach English. The Baroda High School for English was inaugurated by the district governor this past June. A school building, complete with science laboratories and library, has been rented and textbooks purchased by the club. All the school activities are directed by the Baroda Lions Club Education Trust, headed by the Lions.

Meanwhile, in Pakistan there exists a great need for adequate health facilities. The West Pakistanian Lions have constructed a tuberculosis clinic. The Lions have instituted an x-ray and screening clinic which serves more than one hundred and fifty patients daily. Not to be outdone, the fellow Lions of East Pakistan recognize their country's need for a good school, so they took it upon themselves to establish one. At present the school has seventy-five pupils in classes ranging from kindergarten upward. Plans are to expand the educational program to accommodate more students as funds permit.

We cheer the activities of our fellow Lions, but some of our Black Mountain Lions are dragging their feet in our Calendar Drive. All Lions are requested to bring their calendar listings to the next regular meeting. This date, October 11, is the deadline. It will not be possible to accept any calendar listings after that date, as all information must be in the hands of the printer by October 15. SO TURN IN YOUR CALENDARS.

Bishop Dodge

Bishop Ralph E. Dodge, Methodist Bishop of Angola, Mozambique, Southern Rhodesia, and a portion of the Union of South Africa, will be the featured speaker in the Asheville District World Mission rally.

Bishop Dodge will speak at Central Methodist church on Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m. Methodist ministers and church leaders from the Black Mountain-Swannanoa area will attend this meeting.

Bishop Dodge has spent 27 years in Africa, 14 of these as a missionary to Angola, seven years as Bishop of the Methodist Church in Africa. He was the first Methodist Bishop to be elected in Africa. His American home is in Terrill, Iowa.

Since his election to the episcopacy, Bishop Dodge has been supervising church activities in politically explosive areas. South Africa has been a racial tinderbox for years and only last year violence between Africans and Portuguese whites broke out in Angola. In Southern Rhodesia, he and other churchmen have been attempting to help break the deadlock between the government and Africans over a new constitution and dissolution of the Central Africa Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

Bishop Dodge was elected executive secretary for Africa and Europe of the Board of Missions in 1950 and had the responsibility for leading and guiding all Methodist mission work in Africa and Europe.

Bishop Dodge will bring the story of one of the most turbulent areas in our turbulent world as Africa tried to break through into the 20th century world. He will be able to give some of the hopeful signs for Africa.

The District Superintendent, Rev. Robt. G. Tuttle, the District Missionary Secretary, Rev. R. T. Houts, and Dr. Horace R. McSwain, Executive Secretary of the Missions of the Western North Carolina Conference, will also participate in this mission rally.

Laymen-Clergy Discuss Work At Intheoaks

Twenty-eight men representing Episcopal churches extending from Gastonia to the western part of the state gathered at In-The-Oaks last week for the conference of clergy and laymen. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the layman's role in the church. Chairman Bill Orr of Brevard, who is leader of laymen in the diocese, planned the meeting to include two panels, for morning and afternoon sessions.

The morning panel was for discussion by the clergy. Moderator was the Rt. Rev. Bishop Henry and taking part in the discussion were Rev. Mark Jenkins of Fletcher who told of the Greek immigrant, thankful for his blessings; Rev. John Carter from Morganton who humorously told of the layman's duty to serve by prayer group organization, study and the general work of the church; Rev. James Y. Perry of Asheville, "Living in order to work", pointing out that men should Christianize their vocations, making religion an every day experience, not just something to bring out for Sunday. Bishop Henry summarized the panel discussion by stating that "It is not what the Christian life can do for me but what I can do for others".

The lay panel, Chairman —Turn to Page 10

Local Artists Exhibit Work In State Show

Black Mountain artists are participating in the North Carolina State exhibition being shown at Pearlman's in Asheville.

More than 400 subjects in various media were submitted and several state officials of Chapel Hill, Raleigh, and Fayetteville attended the opening on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 11, on the second floor of Pearlman's Furniture store, which is being donated thru the remainder of this month so that the public may have free access each day to view this important show.

Dr. Joseph P. Sloan, president of the State Art society, who is a teacher at the University of North Carolina's Art department in Chapel Hill, was the featured speaker at the formal opening which was largely attended by artists and patrons of art of this area. Dr. Sloan aptly illustrated his remarks by choice colored slides for emphasis.

T. S. Fields, president of N. C. State Artists' association, presided at the business session and introduced Dr. Sloan.

This is the second annual Art Festival of state-wide interests which the Black Mountain and Asheville artists have sponsored. The first one was held at the Monte Vista hotel and at the Manor hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy invited all visiting artists for an elaborate buffet on Sunday evening at the Manor. Lois Tracy, wife of the manager, was the local chairman of the festival.

Mrs. Mildred Harris and Geo. Inglis of Swannanoa, Dorothy Whittaker and Martha Chasteen of Black Mountain entered their work in the show.

Fall Festival Planned For October 27

Plans for the annual Black Mountain P.T.A. Fall Festival were announced at a recent meeting of the Grade Mothers held in the Primary school auditorium, with Mrs. Carlus Peele, Grade Mother chairman, presiding. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Buckner have accepted the chairmanship of the festival, and chairman and committees for the various projects of the festival will be announced shortly.

At 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 27, the festival will open in both schools, with extra special hamburgers and hotdogs with all the trimmings served, as well as milk, coffee, ice cream, and drinks. At the same time in each building the country store and Christmas bazaar rooms will be opened.

The country stores will display for sale homemade jams, jellies, pickles, and relishes, patterns, ties, socks, dried flowers, potted plants, nuts, Indian corn, pumpkins, and —Turn to Page 4

Samuel A. Harwood Aboard USS Steinaker

Samuel A. Harwood, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley F. Harwood of Black Mountain, is serving aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Steinaker, which recently returned to Norfolk, Va., following a seven-month tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

While with the Sixth Fleet the Steinaker participated in several major operations, including exercises involving North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) countries.

During the cruise the ship was selected by Commander Cruiser-Destroyer Force Atlantic as the winner of the Battle Efficiency "E" for combat readiness and the departmental "E" for operations with Destroyer Squadron 26.

HERE FROM VIRGINIA

Mrs. Elmer Suttles and children, Leon and Donna Sue, of Manassas, Va., have been spending a vacation with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Fernman Suttles of Cragmont road.

Warren Wilson Gives Plans For Homecoming

Warren Wilson College, Swannanoa, has announced plans for the seventh annual homecoming which will be held at the college on Saturday, October 13, beginning with a luncheon in the college dining room at 12:30. At 1:30 the Alumni Association will meet in the Elizabeth Williams Chapel. Samuel S. Smith of Waynesville, is president of the Association which includes not only alumni and former students of the college, but also those of Asheville Farm School, founded in 1894, and Dorland-Bell School which was located in Hot Springs, North Carolina.

At the meeting of the Association, officers for the 1962-1963 year will be elected as well as four members of the Board of Directors who will serve a three-year term. Other business will include a report on the progress and development of the college by Dr. Arthur M. Bannerman, president, and Dr. Henry W. Jensen, dean. The Warren Wilson soccer team will play Maryville College on the Alumni Field at 2:30, while a coffee hour, to be held at Shepard House, will follow the game.

All alumni and former students now living in the Black Mountain area are urged to attend. Reservations for the luncheon may be made at the college.

Engaged

Mrs. Gregg Sawyer announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Margaret F. Melton, to Wayne Burleson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Burleson of U. S. Highway 70, Oteen.

The marriage will take place in November at the Black Mountain Methodist church.

When plans are completed further details will be given.

Calendar For Week Of Oct. 11-17

Alcoholics Anonymous, Black Mountain group, meets Thursday (tonight) at 8 in the Crusaders' classroom of the Black Mountain Methodist church.

Town Meeting, Thursday (tonight) at 8 in the Black Mountain Methodist church under sponsorship of the Woman's club. Dr. Noni Gopal Dev Joardar will be guest speaker on world affairs. Public is invited and a social hour will follow the general meeting.

Newcomers will be entertained Sunday between 3 and 6 by Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Richardson with the Woman's club assisting at the Richardson home, "Hilltop". Residents and club members included in the invitation.

Post 129, American Legion meets every first Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Black Mountain city hall.

Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday, Oct. 16, at noon at the Monte Vista.

Garden Division of the Woman's club will meet on Monday morning, Oct. 15, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bergthold, High Top colony. Mrs. H. A. Kerlee will have charge of the meeting and her subject will be "All About Autumn Leaves".

Chapter No. 200 Order of Eastern Star will be held Tuesday, Oct. 16, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Leora Tarbert, D.D.G.M., and James B. Soesbee, D.D.G.P., will make their official visits. All members are invited.

Lord's Acre Program, both service and supper, will be presented at the Tabernacle Methodist church on Friday night, Oct. 12, at 6 p.m. Rev. Robert Clayton of Mountain View Baptist church will read the scripture and bring a brief message. This is a time of ingathering and this project and gifts for the building fund are presented at this time. The public is cordially invited.

VFW Turkey and Ham Shoot at Post home on Old Highway 70, from 10 until dark, this Saturday. Bring your gun and dogs and let's swap.

Teen Age Dance at the clubhouse on Monday, Oct. 15, from 7-10.

HERE ON VISIT
Mrs. Frank Simrill of York, S. C., is here for a visit with her sister, Miss Susan Currell.

T and T Donates To PTA And United Appeal

Mrs. Max Woodcock presided at the regular business and literary meeting of the Tea and Topic club held on Monday, Oct. 8, at the home of Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr. Books for the new year were circulated among the members.

The club voted to contribute $25 to the United Appeal, $25 to the P.T.A. Fall Festival committee, and to support the Lion's Club Calendar project.

The semi-annual rummage sale supports, in the most part, the civic contributions of the Tea and Topic club. The fall sale will close on Friday, Oct. 12, in the Tyson building on Cherry street. Appreciation is expressed to the friends who have donated articles for this sale.

Mrs. Roy Taylor gave the program on Louis B. Untermyer, lecturer, writer, and editor. She reviewed his autobiography, "From Another World", published in 1939. She added interesting personal observations of Mr. Untermyer as a lecturer, having heard him in Greensboro when she attended Woman's college, and again this spring at the Congressional club.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Tyson, to the following members: Mrs. B. G. Byron, Mrs. S. S. Cooley, Mrs. R. T. Greene, Mrs. Gordon Greenwood, Mrs. Otty Leeman, Mrs. Richard Oulahan, Mrs. Roy Taylor, Mrs. W. W. White, and Mrs. Woodcock.

Blk. Swan Wins First Place At Editors Meet

Owen High school's BLACK SWAN, the 1962 annual, won first place at the eleventh session of Western North Carolina Editors' Round Table held at Western Carolina college on Oct. 5-6. Judy Evans was last year's editor, and all photography, with the exception of the individual pictures, was done by Edward DuPuy, Jr.

Delegates to this year's Round Table were Brenda Glenn, editor of the annual for this year, Becky Hudson, Kathy Nesbitt, and Linda Neukaug. Delegates for the newspaper were Linda Beddingfield, editor, and Joyce Ledbetter. Miss Mary Leinster, annual sponsor, accompanied the delegates. Mrs. Ashby McCoy is business sponsor for the annual.

The Owen annual won from all schools in division 1; judging was on many features such as choice of name, layout, photography, write-ups, and whether or not the chosen theme is carried out throughout the volume. The delegates brought a beautiful new trophy, the award for taking first place, to add to the mounting collection in the school's lobby.

Work on the annual is begun by the editor in the summer with preparation so that individual pictures may be made soon after school opens. Deadline for the yearbook is February.

Owen Will Play Erwin Friday

The Owen Warhorses are hoping to be at full strength for the first time since the opening game of the season when they clash with Erwin High in a Buncombe County league contest at Shuford field Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Erwin, recognized as one of the powers in Western North Carolina football, has a speedy team that has been able to run away from most of the opponents this season.

To meet this threat the Owen coaching staff will counter with Mac Blizard and Ronnie Lowe, two guards in the running for all-conference, and with Red Smith, Jack Guthrie, and Mike Miracle in the backfield.

As the Warhorses head down the home stretch they are still searching for their first victory. Following Erwin only Canton, T. C. Robertson, and a return game with the Waynesville Mountaineers remain until the 1962 season will be history.

The locals ran into Brevard last Friday and were defeated in a Blue Ridge conference game, 40-0.

TEENAGE DANCE

A teenage dance will be held Monday night, Oct. 15, from 7-10 in the clubhouse at Black Mountain. The dance is sponsored by Operation Youth and there will be no admission fee.

WITH THE SICK

Harry Vanover of Swannanoa is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital.

Blk. Swan Wins First Place At Editors Meet

Owen High school's BLACK SWAN, the 1962 annual, won first place at the eleventh session of Western North Carolina Editors' Round Table held at Western Carolina college on Oct. 5-6. Judy Evans was last year's editor, and all photography, with the exception of the individual pictures, was done by Edward DuPuy, Jr.

Delegates to this year's Round Table were Brenda Glenn, editor of the annual for this year, Becky Hudson, Kathy Nesbitt, and Linda Neukaug. Delegates for the newspaper were Linda Beddingfield, editor, and Joyce Ledbetter. Miss Mary Leinster, annual sponsor, accompanied the delegates. Mrs. Ashby McCoy is business sponsor for the annual.

The Owen annual won from all schools in division 1; judging was on many features such as choice of name, layout, photography, write-ups, and whether or not the chosen theme is carried out throughout the volume. The delegates brought a beautiful new trophy, the award for taking first place, to add to the mounting collection in the school's lobby.

Work on the annual is begun by the editor in the summer with preparation so that individual pictures may be made soon after school opens. Deadline for the yearbook is February.

Owen Will Play Erwin Friday

The Owen Warhorses are hoping to be at full strength for the first time since the opening game of the season when they clash with Erwin High in a Buncombe County league contest at Shuford field Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Erwin, recognized as one of the powers in Western North Carolina football, has a speedy team that has been able to run away from most of the opponents this season.

To meet this threat the Owen coaching staff will counter with Mac Blizard and Ronnie Lowe, two guards in the running for all-conference, and with Red Smith, Jack Guthrie, and Mike Miracle in the backfield.

As the Warhorses head down the home stretch they are still searching for their first victory. Following Erwin only Canton, T. C. Robertson, and a return game with the Waynesville Mountaineers remain until the 1962 season will be history.

The locals ran into Brevard last Friday and were defeated in a Blue Ridge conference game, 40-0.

TEENAGE DANCE

A teenage dance will be held Monday night, Oct. 15, from 7-10 in the clubhouse at Black Mountain. The dance is sponsored by Operation Youth and there will be no admission fee.

WITH THE SICK

Harry Vanover of Swannanoa is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital.

Blk. Swan Wins First Place At Editors Meet

Owen High school's BLACK SWAN, the 1962 annual, won first place at the eleventh session of Western North Carolina Editors' Round Table held at Western Carolina college on Oct. 5-6. Judy Evans was last year's editor, and all photography, with the exception of the individual pictures, was done by Edward DuPuy, Jr.

Delegates to this year's Round Table were Brenda Glenn, editor of the annual for this year, Becky Hudson, Kathy Nesbitt, and Linda Neukaug. Delegates for the newspaper were Linda Beddingfield, editor, and Joyce Ledbetter. Miss Mary Leinster, annual sponsor, accompanied the delegates. Mrs. Ashby McCoy is business sponsor for the annual.

The Owen annual won from all schools in division 1; judging was on many features such as choice of name, layout, photography, write-ups, and whether or not the chosen theme is carried out throughout the volume. The delegates brought a beautiful new trophy, the award for taking first place, to add to the mounting collection in the school's lobby.

Work on the annual is begun by the editor in the summer with preparation so that individual pictures may be made soon after school opens. Deadline for the yearbook is February.

Owen Will Play Erwin Friday

The Owen Warhorses are hoping to be at full strength for the first time since the opening game of the season when they clash with Erwin High in a Buncombe County league contest at Shuford field Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Erwin, recognized as one of the powers in Western North Carolina football, has a speedy team that has been able to run away from most of the opponents this season.

To meet this threat the Owen coaching staff will counter with Mac Blizard and Ronnie Lowe, two guards in the running for all-conference, and with Red Smith, Jack Guthrie, and Mike Miracle in the backfield.

As the Warhorses head down the home stretch they are still searching for their first victory. Following Erwin only Canton, T. C. Robertson, and a return game with the Waynesville Mountaineers remain until the 1962 season will be history.

The locals ran into Brevard last Friday and were defeated in a Blue Ridge conference game, 40-0.

TEENAGE DANCE

A teenage dance will be held Monday night, Oct. 15, from 7-10 in the clubhouse at Black Mountain. The dance is sponsored by Operation Youth and there will be no admission fee.

WITH THE SICK

Harry Vanover of Swannanoa is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude for each and every kind word of comfort, all the prayers offered, every act of kindness and the beautiful floral offerings in our hours of sadness due to the loss of our dear brothers, Oliver Pressley and Lex Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pressley and Families