

UPPER CEDAR CREEK COMMUNITY

Bessie Elliott Davis

The Davis, — Dalton re-union was held at the Davis Town Church last Sunday. A bounteous dinner was spread. There were three phases of the singing part of the program which was extremely interesting. Uncle Tom Moore, past resident of this section, age 93 sang several solos. A small girl, age 5 sang "I'm a child of the King." The Homeward Bound Quartet of Weaverville was enjoyed for many lovely numbers. This quartet was made up principally of members of families, grandchildren of my husband's associates during his boyhood which was spent in Weaverville. These songsters were: Mr. and Mrs. John Edmonds, Glenn Rice and Henry Helms.

Mrs. Wanda Vess Early still remains at her mother's under the care of Dr. Dobias. Her tiny baby of a month old, is doing nicely.

Mrs. Bert Murphy of Lower Cedar Creek was a pleasant visitor in the community Sunday.

Rev. Millard Hall of Drexall was in the community here at his cabin Sunday, accompanied by a dozen or so folks from his church at Drexall.

PEACOCKS AND BUTTERFLIES

Peacock feathers and butterfly wings,
 Thorns and thistles and bees with stings.

We love roses though roses have thorns,
 Bees make honey which no one scorns.

We have here a slight paradox,
 A jest perhaps or someone mocks;

Mother nature in her great wisdom
 Has many such throuth her queendom.

Placing things in apposition,
 Affording in each case protection.

To the thing or one the most desired;
 Possibly too the most admired.

So enjoy the roses and the honey
 Mornings fair, days that are sunny.

Love too, though that may often bring
 With the happiness a bitter sting.
