Mrs. H. is a 52-year-old widow employed as a $12-a-week waitress in a small restaurant. She gets few tips as the patrons of this eating place are low wage earners.

There are thousands of Mrs. H.'s in North Carolina and across the nation. What can be done to help her maintain a decent standard of living?

Q—Can the Veterans Administration pay for emergency treatment of the service-connected conditions of veterans in private hospitals? A—Yes, provided the medical emergency was such that an attempt to obtain admission to a VA hospital would have been hazardous to the veteran and if the emergency treatment is reported to the nearest VA hospital or regional office within 72 hours after the veteran's admission to the private hospital.

Q—How many veterans are being treated at private hospitals at VA expense? A—Latest VA figures show the U. S. veteran population declined 127,000 during the 12 months preceding Aug. 1, 1962.

A—The VA estimates that approximately 2,800 veterans are hospitalized in private hospitals at government expense.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON and CHURCH DIRECTORY!

God Within Lesson for October 23, 1962

SOMETIMES it looks as if the Church made it harder instead of easier to believe in God. The church talks about the Trinity, but we don't understand that. It talks about the Holy Spirit, but that seems very hard to understand. On the contrary, the Church's teaching about the Holy Spirit (all the good of which we owe to the Bible)

What a normal human being wants, however, is not mere bare truth, he wants not only to know, he wants to do. This is particularly true in the Christian religion. Like its mother-religion of Judaism, Christianity has always been interested in action. Right living is quite as important as right thinking, the two cannot be separated. So the Holy Spirit is called the "Counselor." This is a better translation than "Comforter" or "Advocate" though it may include those other meanings.
