BUSINESSMEN—

location in the United States is facing such a time of trial.

The colleges and universities of America are facing the problems of greatly increased student enrollments, new prospects in the search for knowledge, and a rapidly growing field in business and other areas of endeavor for highly qualified and well-trained men and women to hold positions of responsibility.

Through the Good Neighbor Program of Montreat-Anderson college, local businessmen, under the leadership of William Hickey, general chairman of the program, are recognizing and meeting the challenge to American business through higher education. The Good Neighbor program has as its goal the establishment of scholarships totaling $10,000 for the assistance of graduates of the local Owen and Old Fort High schools.
