Mills Chapel Church
"Longing for the house of God," Sunday's Sunday school lesson, certainly opened our hearts and minds as to the importance of spiritual hunger. God's house should be a place of happiness, peace, and love. Surely, your hearts too long for a place like this, there may our prayers continue for guidance in our church worship, and for leaders to help us thirst for God's program. Carver P.T.A.
A slate of new officers to serve during the 1963-64 school year was installed at the Carver P.T.A. meeting last Thursday night in the school auditorium. John H. Brisco, outgoing president presided, and C. U. James principal was in charge of the installation ceremonies. Those installed were Mrs. Marie McDonald, president; Mrs. Peggy Stepp, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Gentry, secretary; Mrs. Rosa Burgin, asst. secretary; and Mrs. Corrine Carson, treasurer.

After the business session principal James gave an interesting report of the high lights in and around Carver School during the school year. He stated that it had been a good, as well as profitable school term and expressed thanks and appreciation to the P.T.A. and other auxiliaries for another successful school year.

Spencer, Sr. Deacon; John Hamilton, Jr. Deacon; Walter Dillingham, Chaplain; and James Burris, Tyler. Elder A. C. Cook was in charge of the ceremonies.

Thomas Chapel Church
A wonderful message in songs was surely enjoyed last Sunday afternoon, as the little Wings Over Jordan of Asheville presented a delightful program of spirituals and many of the good old hymns. The group is made up of children from the 7th and 8th grades of the Hill Street school and is directed by Mrs. Cassie E. Evans. Certainly those present received a great blessing.

Jimmy and his two grandsons, Jack Davis and Raymond Vess, with Dennis Ray and Benny Harris went fishing Monday near the Cove to Lake Midway caught 8 fish, Jimmy hooked one. The "Big" ones always get away.

Harlow Dalton had all his children home last week except some of the boys, Mr. and Mrs. George Summey from Winston-Salem, Elzie and her husband from Marion, Dolly and her husband from Baltimore. We think there were more but aren't sure which ones. Mr. and Mrs. Dalton have 15 children in all; two sets of twins, several smaller ones at home yet and older boys scattered.

Mrs. Boyd Elliott and Mrs. Flossie Vess went to the lake fishing. The cool wind and dampness sent Mrs. Elliott home with a cold, unable to go to church Sunday night.

Mrs. Ray Davis, our assistant pianist, and her mother, Mrs. Estalee Vess, are sick with cold and sinus trouble.

Our pastor's daughter Mary was sick Sunday. At church the youngest daughter got sick, yet they visited Mrs. Gem Elliott as dinner guests. There will be singing at Davis Town church Saturday night. They are hoping to be in the new church. It is a handsome building. Mrs. Viola Gillam for some time has been taking care of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis's two children while they work. Emory Vess bought a car for his daughter, Brenda Roberta, last week. Brenda is an Owen High graduate. She took a course in beauty culture and will go to work the first of June; hence the car. Been raining since Saturday, badly needed.

Evidently there are some who still do not understand the basic idea of the American social security system. Yet it is a very simple one. During their working years employees, employers, and the self-employed pay social security taxes which go into special funds. And when income to the family has been substantially reduced or has stopped because the worker has retired, or died, or becomes severely disabled, benefit payments are made from the funds to replace in part the earnings the family has lost.

At the present time, over 9 out of 10 Americans are engaged in work and self-employment activities covered by social security. In simple terms, this system affords them the opportunity of building old-age, survivors, and disability insurance protection for themselves and their families.

A basic economic security for the aged, for the widow and orphan, and for the disabled in mind or body—the social security program makes possible for the American people through the democratic process, in response to their needs and expressed desires. Never fear of spoiling children by making them too happy. Happiness is the atmosphere in which all good affections grow. —Thomas Bray
