MONTREAT

Miss Julia Stokes

The Women's Club had a most interesting meeting on Monday, July 22, with the representatives of the World Mission giving a most informative program. Mrs. George Thompson Brown giving a most interesting talk on her work as a mother in Korea. She spoke as a mother and helper with her children who still had some vision of her work as a Hopper in her home in Korea. Mrs. Thomas Sturud gave a most interesting talk of the world in Africa and of the many exciting days in the Congo and of the unrest there, yet the Christians are standing firm in this most troubled country. Then the floods came and the rain descended and it was not a very pleasant place to have to rush out into the rain. However many had appointments and had to rush away. The guest speaker is Alton Cates of the Montreat-Anderson College faculty who gave a most interesting talk on "Trends in Modern Literature," on Monday, August 5 at 3:30. The season is drawing to a close and the women will have their annual picnic supper on the last meeting of the club.

The Worship Service of the Montreat conference and the Montreat Presbyterian Church is held at Anderson Auditorium at 11 Sunday morning. The speaker was Dr. J. Randolph Taylor, pastor of the Church of the Pilgrims, Washington, D. C., who preached on "Firsthand." It is always good to welcome back the boys of Montreat and many were speaking to him after the service.

On Sunday night the speaker was Dr. Robert F. Jones who preached on "The New Trend Towards Religion in General." (Dr. Jones is pastor of The First Presbyterian Church, Fort Worth, Texas. The speaker for next Sunday is Dr. John Oliver Nelson, Prof. of Christian Vocation, Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Conn., for 11 A.M. Service and for the 8 P.M. service is Dr. Walter H. Judd, former Congressman and medical missionary to China of Washington, D. C. The flowers in the church were placed in memory of Mrs. C. A. Dillon. It is good to have the Guys back from their month stay in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Guy taught at the Dr. John S. Wilson School of Music. She taught Contralto and Mr. Guy and the children enjoyed a nice vacation as they stayed in a cottage and enjoyed the trip both going and coming and had a good vacation in the cool climate of Colorado.

Dr. and Mrs. James Bryan and two sons of Atlanta are in the Bryan cottage for a week's stay. Mr. and Mrs. James DuBare and baby also of Atlanta will be in the Bryan cottage this next week end. Dr. and Mrs. Bryan will return to their home on Virginia Road after visiting Dr. and Mrs. Ned Bryan and family in Virginia.

Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, Miss Betty Maxwell and Miss Virginia Buchanan have returned to Montreat after spending the last month in Europe where they toured many places of interest.

Mrs. John Good and Mrs. Alton Brown of Rock Hill are attending the Home Mission Conference this week.

Mrs. Lois Reid and Rev. and Mrs. DuBoise and family will be in the Craig cottage on Louisiana Road for a few weeks vacation.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Dunlan and son, Joe are in their summer home on Overlook Lane for a month. They live in Darlington, S. C., in the winter.

Mrs. G. A. Nickles of Charleston with daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White and children of Rock Hill are in Montreat for this month.

Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Miller of Atlanta and Miss Louise Miller are in their home on Kentucky Road for this month.

Mrs. James of Atlanta and daughter, Mrs. Donahoe, are in the Hodges' home on Graybeard Trail this month.

Mrs. E. L. Flanagan of Clover, S. C., is spending this week in Montreat. Mrs. Flanagan is a former house mother in Montreat-Anderson college. Mrs. R. G. Andrews of

NEW RECRUITER ASSIGNED AREA FOR NAVY DUTY

Chief W. F. Tomlin of the Navy Recruiting office in Asheville has announced that he will be in Black Mountain each Wednesday from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m.

The chief also announced that the advantages and opportunities in the Navy are greater than ever before. Immediate openings in all fields are available. Certain fields have opened up with guaranteed schooling for prior servicemen. Other fields have opened for non-prior servicemen to be enlisted in higher pay grades, and they are accepting men now that for years before have not been able to enlist.

Chief Tomlin said that any Heltsville, Md., is spending two weeks with her parents, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Murph on Virginia Road.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bradley, Jr., of Birmingham, Ala., and Dr. and Mrs. Kelly Elmore are visiting Miss Margaret Davis in her home on Virginia Road this month.

Miss Carol Stevens of Roxboro, has been spending the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. John Merrett in her home on Texas Road.
