William N. Brown came through surgery with flying colors, and will be at home soon.

Mrs. Robert Burnette left for an extended visit with her daughter, Betty, in Charlotte, Wednesday.

Joyce Virginia Williams, daughter of Hillary Williams, and Bobby Ray Ammons of Ridgecrest were united in marriage in the Mountain View Baptist Church on Saturday, by the bride's grandfather, Rev. Miller, assisted by the minister of the church at the present time, Rev. Robert Clayton. Mr. Miller was the pastor of the Mountain View Church for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McGuire Wood have just returned from a three weeks trip to Lake

Louise and Banff in the Canadian Rockies. The trip to Rochester, N. Y., was made by car where Mr. Wood's mother, now 92, was visited at Canandaigua Lake. Then by rail to Toronto and west by CPR motor train with stop offs at Fort Williams on Lake Superior for the flower festival and at Winnipeg a city of 600,000. Two days of the return trip was by CPR ship "Keewatin" from Fort William to Port McNicoll through Lake Superior, the Sault Ste. Marie locks, Lake Huron and Georgian Bay.

The 4-H Ravens
The long awaited Hendersonville Fair saw the Ravens in a dither last week. Almost every member of the club had something entered for display, with hopes for a prize.

Phyllis Willet won a Red Ribbon-second prize for one of the dresses she has been making this summer. But it was the marquetry which took two stationwagons full of Ravens from North Fork to Hendersonville on Thursday night. All of the pictures were well made, which made a decision difficult.

Donald Haynie displayed two compositions, "A Mountain Home" and "Crying Puppy". It was Donald's success which aroused the enthusiasm of the others.

"The Horse at the Well" and "Calf with Broken Leg" were the results of Jeff Morris's efforts with the saw, and thin strips of wood.

Ronnie Vanover won the Red Ribbon with his "Snow-capped Mountains". Ronnie says, "One must have a great deal of patience to glue those fragile strips of wood in the right places."

Kay Willet's "Crosseyed Puppy" won the Blue Ribbon. She also had a picture of "Rhododendron in Bloom". But the puppy looked so appealing, the judges could not pass it by.

The "Cardinal amidst the Dogwoods" made a striking contrast of color with the red and white against the dark plain background. Phyllis' other picture, "Mountain School Girl" was a difficult study for an amateur.

Wayne Williams showed his interest in wildlife by depicting "Squirrel and Acorns".

We hope to have another display of these pictures at the next meeting of the North Fork Community Club, so the

UPPER CEDAR CREEK COMMUNITY

By Bessie Elliott Davis

Last Thursday our pastor and wife, Rev. Clark McKinney and Mrs. McKinney came by and took us shopping to Old Fort. Along the way-side we enjoyed little visits with our friends.

Miss Brenda Roberta Vess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Vess has been real sick with low-blood pressure, and has had to miss several days from her job in a beauty parlor at Black Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Strayle Grant, son Charles and twins Dan and Ann, visited us Sunday. Jimmy and the men-folk went to Church while Gladys and I got dinner. At church they elected the officers for another year; most of the incumbents were re-elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker and children, Jack, Judy, Joyce, Murrell, Leon and Marie dropped by Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Davis and Betty of Black Mountain came by for a short visit.

From the cool weather for the last few days, it won't be long until frost. There will be a lot of beans, tomatoes and roasting ears killed if it comes before the last of October.

Just now Mr. and Mrs. Devaney Bryant of the Bethlehem section came in to take us over to see his father who is very ill with cancer. The family have our deepest sympathy.

MRS. SNEED HOSTESS TO H. D. CLUB
The September meeting of the Black Mountain Home Demonstration Club was held on Monday at the home of Mrs. M. A. Sneed on McCoy Cove Road.

After the business session was completed the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Ray, the County Agent. The topic of the day was Parliamentary Procedure. Mrs. Ray stressed the importance of following Parliamentary Procedure for any meeting. She said that each member should know these rules, for each member, as well as the officers, are responsible for good meetings. She stated that one thing that causes a club to fail more than anything else is the lack of proper order and respect in a meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members by the hostess: Mesdames Effie Guthrie, G. V. Stepp, W. D. Hyatt, Geo. McElrath, E. W. Austin, Marium Vinup, R. C. Ink, Harry Barrett, Jacob Vogle, Edna Wall, R. C. Wright, Glen Bryan, H. D. Crawford, W. H. Hinkle and Miss Mary McKay.
