At the Church: The highlights of the past year and plans for the one ahead. Miss Carolina Biggers closed the session with a special prayer of dedication to install the new officers. Under the leadership of Mrs. John May, the Intermediate Department of the S. S. enjoyed a social meeting on Saturday afternoon. Beginning at 4:00 p.m. the youngsters went on an extended treasure-hunt, returning to the church play ground later for a picnic. A nice group was present. Mrs. George L. Hocutt entertained her Junior G. A. in her home on Saturday afternoon. Chief feature was a study of an interesting book on Arabs, "The Big Difference", taught by Miss Margaret Hocutt. After refreshments the nine little girls greatly enjoyed a skating party in the pastorium basement. A few of the choir members attended the special Choir Clinic held in First Baptist Church of Black Mountain for two sessions on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Miss Martha Biggers was guest organist on this last Sunday before she and Miss Carolina return to Bartlett, Fla., for the winter. Their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Matthews will accompany them as they leave this week. In the Community: Rev. and Mrs. Everett Murray, Miss Lucy Murray, and young Stephen spent Sunday in Candler where a number of relatives gathered for a small family reunion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crawford. It was good to welcome Mrs. B. S. Meeks home again after her stay of a few weeks in Morehead, Minn., where she visited her son, Dr. Spencer Meeks and his family. Among her interesting experiences was the unusual privilege she had of attending with him one of the Morehead College Faculty meetings and enjoying such atmospheric friendships. One trip she made was of high interest when the family went to Lake Hasca (head of the waters of the Mississippi) and during the day saw a plaque stating that it marked the exact center of the continent of North America. She saw much beauty of nature and enjoyed every moment of her "vacation". On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Meeks and her sister, Miss Edith Van Duzer entertained the Asheville Chapter "D" of PEO. Eighteen members came out from the city for this regular monthly meeting of the organization. Miss Arvine Bell has been "on the go" for the past three week ends, spending one in Cullowhee, one in Washington, D. C., and this most recent one in Asheville, where she visited her good friends, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Pierce, Jr. of Grace Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sutherland are the proud grandparents of a little granddaughter, born Thursday, Oct. 3 to Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Payne. The Sutherlands left for Robertsonville, N. C., on Friday to spend a week or more with the young lady and her parents. Mr. Payne is the popular and beloved young pastor of First Baptist Church there, and his sweet and gracious wife, "Robbie" is as greatly honored as a true helpmeet to her husband. They have two other children, Tommy Joe and Anna Marie. Miss Ruth Wingo and Mrs. D. R. Hill spent the past week end closing up their summer homes here before returning on Monday to Greenville and Duncan, S. C., for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Erhorn of Ft. Worth, Texas, arrived Thursday afternoon for a week's visit with Mrs. W. P. Reeves. These are friends of long-standing, the two ladies having remained in close contact since they were girlhood roommates in historic Judson College in Marion, Ala. When Mrs. Charles Jolley delighted her neighbors and friends last Monday by returning from a three-weeks' visit in S. C., she brought with her for a visit here a niece, Miss Eula Jolley of Mountain Rest, S. C. On Sunday, Mrs. Elsie King of Brevard arrived to spend some weeks with Mrs. Jolley. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bobbett left last week for their home in Bartow, Fla. Mrs. Bobbett was growing quite eager to see her new grandson, Edward Albert Pierce, III. Rev. Elbert F. Hardin on Sunday morning supplied the pulpit of First Baptist Church in Old Fort, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Frank Hawkins. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright and Miss Ann Moore spent the week end in Reidsville, N. C., visiting their sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearson and daughter, Carol. A telephone call to Mrs. Coy Runion on Saturday evening gave us the news that she and her husband were having their very first meal in their newly completed home. For several years they have been living in what is now their basement apartment while Mr. Runion with his own hands has been building with loving care the upping part of their now truly lovely dwelling. Little by little they have added every luxury now the Dream-house stands complete. We do congratulate these young people on their steadfastness of purpose and this fine accomplishment. Mrs. Mayme Gough is improving rapidly from eye surgery and was able to attend church on Sunday. Mrs. Edith Beam is improving also and is beginning to enjoy a little activity, though still under constant nursing care in an Asheville Rest Home. H. B. Craven is a "game cock" patient who astounds the doctors of Morganton's hospital and all his friends with his cheerfulness and ability to override all difficulties. Dewey Thomas writes that he is enjoying life in Kentucky Military Institute, Lyndon, Ky. His friends are happy he is doing so well in his new surroundings.

Tenn. where Dr. Bell will attend the Board of World Mission. Later Mrs. Bell will visit her son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Clayton Bell and children. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Spence are in Richmond, Va. Mrs. Spence is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. M. Holman, who has been very ill for many years. Dr. Spence is attending a special meeting in Richmond and also in Raleigh. They will be back by the end of the week. It was most interesting to see the special sidewalk Sale that was given in Black Mountain last week Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Those who attended were most thrilled and I hope the merchants made much money. Dr. C. Grier Davis is on a speaking tour on behalf of the college for the next few weeks. He speaks to the Men of the First Presbyterian in Greenville, S. C., on Monday, on Tuesday, to the Men in Homer Presbyterian Church, Sumter, S. C., on Oct. 13 he will preach in the Presbyterian Church, Easley, S. C. Mrs. Davis is to be with Dr. Davis on most of the trip. Ramey Ruth Solomon, a son, of Jackson, Miss., returned to their home for the week end in Montreat for the week end. Mrs. Wells' son, W. Calvin III, reached Montreat on Saturday for a brief visit and returned to his home with his mother on Monday. Asheville and visited with friends in Montreat. Mrs. W. Calvin Wells and her nurse, Mrs. Robbie Robinson, returned to their home for the week end. Mrs. Wells' son, W. Calvin III, reached Montreat on Saturday for a brief visit and returned to his home with his mother on Monday.

Miss Julia Stokes

The services of the Montreat Church were broadcast over radio station WFGW for the morning worship service, so the World Wide Communion Service could not be held. '64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

Besides looks, ride and power - what's so special about it?
(it's so reasonably priced)

Kind of leaves the high-priced cars some explaining to do, wouldn't you say? Long and luxurious—with a fresh-crested look. Richer roomy interiors with subtle new blendings of colors and fabrics. Like the ultra-soft vinyl upholstery in the new Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Series.

A choice of seven engines, no less, with output all the way up to 425 hp.* And a choice of four smooth transmissions to go with them. And underlying it all, the opulent feel of this '64 Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride.

Matter of fact, the most noticeable difference between this beautiful new 1964 Chevrolet and the high-priced cars is the price itself.

Let your dealer show you how much luxury that reasonable Chevrolet price now buys.
