ward's fastest man caught him at the 35 of the Blue Devils'. Again Brevard took the ball on downs but the fierce Owen defense opened up. On the last play of the game Owen's Buddy Greenwood recovered a fumble as five Owen tacklers almost took halfback Paul Scruggs head off as he went up to pull in a lateral.

Hamil Outstanding
Outstanding players on defense for Owen were Harry Hamil and Buddy Greenwood. The Warhorses played without quarterback Bobby Ballard who was lost for the season because of a knee injury.

This week Owen plays the Erwin Warriors at Erwin. Erwin lost its first game of the season 38-0 to Waynesville, but has won five straight games since. The Warhorses probably a copy of the now famous one used by "you know who", the play pen is filled with decorator pillows and next to that, believe it or not, is pictured two old wood-burning heaters which are still favorites.

Tables were in evidence all along "Shoppers Lane" and already the merchant division 2 of the chamber of commerce is planning to start work sooner for next year in order to make the one next fall bigger and better than that of this year.

GREENWOOD—
cause of this the government cannot go into debt and there is a surplus every two years. The advisory budget commission this past session got to every department of institution in the state and checked the budgets.
There are no county taxes levied for roads.
The Higher Education bill which was passed this year is the best system in all 50 states; it supports both junior and senior colleges. Mr. Greenwood went on record as voting against fees in public schools. This has brought a much comment in newspapers this fall. He explained the heated discussions about the name change of N. C. State College.

Lobbyists who try to influence a legislator by offering money in exchange are not as common as these average citizen believes. In the time Mr. Greenwood has been in Raleigh he has never been offered money in an attempt to influence his vote. Even during the time a tax on tobacco was being discussed and considered there were no lobbyists speaking against it.
The new state house occupied this year, takes care of all office space rented around over Raleigh by the representatives.
In speaking of local highway problems Representative Greenwood pointed out that the four lane road is on the way with the completion next spring of the stretch from Asheville to Oteen it appears as though the remainder from Oteen to Black Mountain will be completed by next fall.

THRIFT SHOP—
even if the watches no longer run.
Generally speaking, adults' clothing and shoes have not moved very readily; but clean garments of up-to-date styles have gone well.
It is requested that, if possible, donations of articles to the Shop be brought between 10:00 a.m., and 12:00 noon on Thursdays. Mr. and Mrs. Bob R. Martin continue to aid generously in transporting articles to the Shop when such help is needed. They ask that one just call their number, North 9-7334.

The Friends of the Library and many others in the community have expressed a feeling of deep indebtedness to all those who have given so freely of their time in making the Thrift Shop such a success. An up-to-the-minute financial report is to be made at the Friends of the Library meeting on Wednesday Oct. 9. "It is splendid," says one; "watch for it!"

VFW Post Home Is Improved
Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 9157 of Black Mountain, are continuing work on their home on old highway 70 near Grovestone with re-roofing and gutting of the building and filling in the front lawn prior to landscaping the grounds.
Turkey and ham shoots are being held each Saturday to raise funds to pay off the indebtedness on the building. Officers for the year, recently elected, are: Raymond O. McSwain, post commander; Frank B. Williams, Sr. vice commander; David A. Atkins, Jr. vice commander; W. L. Gudger, quartermaster and Ralph Copeland, chaplain.

LOCAL GARDENERS INVITED TO ENTER "MUM" SHOW
The Asheville Garden Club, Inc. invites individuals from Black Mountain, who might be interested in doing so, to make entries in the fifth annual standard chrysanthemum show to take place Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 15 and 16 in the John Cecil room of the Biltmore Dairy Farms. Exhibits should be placed by 11 o'clock on Tuesday. Schedules are available at the garden center at Sears.
Extra displays will be Tom Spencer's display on cascades, Mr. Spencer is treasurer of the National Chrysanthemum Society, and the Ladygo Nursery of Tryon.

Look Who's Here!
Mr. and Mrs. Jerome L. Kelly of Black Mountain, have a son, born Oct. 1, in St. Joseph's hospital.

UPPER CEDAR CREEK COMMUNITY
By Bessie Elliott Davis

Last Saturday night was the singing at the Davis Town Church, near Old Fort. One of the Quartets of singers was from the Locust Grove Baptist Church near the Madison County Line-near Weaverville. They sang several numbers which were enjoyed by every one. There were other Quartets and singers from other churches including "The Davis Town Girls," who have been singing for several years. Inside the last two years, all four of the girls have married and have babies, but on certain occasions they still sing, accompanied on the Piano by Miss Brenda Roberta Vess.

Also, on Sunday this same Church was Dedicated, the Dedication Sermon being delivered by Rev. Jordan, an Ex-Pastor. This same day being the usual time of the Annual Davis-Dalton Reunion, there were more people than has ever been known at that Church. The new Church is at least four times as large as the old one, minus the Sunday School rooms. All were filled and extra benches borrowed from the S. S. Rooms to add to the Auditorium.

A wonderful dinner was spread under the trees and other tables added to the main table. There were relatives of the two families from Tenn., S. C., and Florida, from Marion, Black Mountain, Gastonia and Old Fort and other sections of the country.

The Minister elected to preach the Dedication Sermon could not fill the appointment for some of those killed in the car wreck near Hendersonville were members of his Church. So the Dedication Sermon was delivered by an Ex-Pastor Rev. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Arrington and two sisters of Mrs. Arrington and one brother-in-law of Newport, Tenn., came up for the reunion.
Mr. and Mrs. David DeLille and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bledsoe and baby of Coco, and Merritt Island, Florida, came up and are visiting the wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Davis of Black Mountain.

With these attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Davis and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis and baby of Black Mountain, with Franklin and Betty.
All these new babies add up more Great-grandchildren for my husband.

In writing my address, Black Mountain, there comes to my mind the fact that of all my addresses they have been double names.
I was raised down at Hot Springs. My first husband and I made three trips to the West Virginia coal mines. My addresses were Glen Morgan, Dug Out, Blue Jay, West, Va. Then, Red Top, Black Mountain and Hot Springs, N. C.

W. M. U. OFFICERS INSTALLED AT SPECIAL SERVICE
A covered dish supper, held at 6:30 on Monday night in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church, preceded the installation of W.M.U. officers for the new year. Mrs. A. T. Usher, Association- al W. M. U. president, who led in the installation service, presented a challenging message to all incoming officers and members. Theme of the program for the evening was "What Is That in Thine Hand."
