Garden Club To Have Meet At Monte Vista

The Black Mountain Garden Club will hold its annual Christmas Dinner at the Monte Vista hotel this Friday, Dec. 20 at 7 o'clock. This will not (repeat not) be a pot luck dinner. Make reservations to save the committees' aspirin supply.

Instead of the exchange of small gifts the plan this year is to hold an auction of things the garden (or house) needs, which covers a lot of territory. A program of delight to the mind, spirit and body is assured to all who can be receptive. A sound childhood is recommended to set the mood, but come any way you want.

TABERNALE'S CHRISTMAS PROGRAM SATURDAY NIGHT

Tabernacle Methodist Church will present their Christmas program Saturday night, Dec. 21 at 7:30.

There will be a brief program by the Children's Department, directed by Mrs. Nancy Dills, Mrs. Sara Raines and Mrs. Alice Moseman.

Following this will be a Christmas Pageant "Greater Than Gold" by the Intermediate Department, directed by Mrs. Mary Taylor.

Special music by Madeline Leonard and Ann Campbell. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Billy Graham To Be Speaker For Party

Reports of committees were given at the regular meeting of the Black Mountain Lions club at the Monte Vista last Thursday evening.

Gray Stephens reported that a total of $642.00 had been collected on the fruit cakes, Leon Williams that a net of $223.00 was realized on the calendar drive, and Max Woodcock that the first program in January would feature a white elephant sale. Members were asked to set aside all ties, socks, plain and fancy underwear, and electric razors and bring these items to the big sale. An outstanding sales personality will be on hand for the event.

Clyde Stubbs reported for the sight conservation committee that Billy Graham will speak at the Christmas Party for the blind which will be held at Enka High School on Dec. 22.

Congressman Roy A. Taylor will serve as master of ceremonies and Ronald Finch will introduce Mr. Graham.

Those who plan to attend should call Harold McNary or Clyde Stubbs so that reservations may be made. Transportation is also needed to take the visually handicapped from this area to the party.

Over 100 Guests Visit During Open House

Over one hundred guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Black Mountain Savings and Loan Association when Open House was held for friends who visited during the day Saturday. Hosts and hostesses for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Begley, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kerlee, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greenwood, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Finch, and Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty. Mr. and Mrs. Max Woodcock could not attend due to the illness of Mr. Woodcock's mother.

In addition to the renovation, which has changed the inside appearance of the offices and board room, the association has also occupied the downstairs space formerly held by Frank Cortmeyer. This makes the entire downstairs space of the Greene building filled with the offices of the Savings and Loan Association.

The decorations were seasonal; the table from which refreshments were served was covered with a green cloth centered with red poinsettias and other arrangements were placed appropriately throughout.

Extinguisher For Kitchen Is Now Available

Members of the Junior Order of Black Mountain are selling the newest gadget for the kitchen, one which might prove to be the best investment you ever made for your home—a KEM fire extinguisher.

Heretofore most fire extinguishers were to be found in public buildings or in large offices—now the home—in which more accidents occur than anywhere else, may be protected as well.

This new spray-type extinguisher sells for $3; its life is indefinite and it will effectively extinguish fires of the following nature: gas, electrical, paper, oil, gasoline, wood and fabrics. There is only one size, the full pound with a red plastic, push-button top.

All members of the order are selling the item which is a practical gift. All proceeds go toward the Children's Home Christmas Fund; the home is located in Lexington.
