The refreshment table was centered with the pink and white birthday cake. On either side white lighter tapers were used. Nuts, mints, cookies, punch, and cake were served the following girls: Teresa Wright, Glenda Lee, Pat Burrell, Phyllis Stuck, Malona Robertson, Kathy Rhodes, Clara Smith, Connie and the honoree.

Shelley received a number of nice gifts.

GO TO CHURCH SOMEWHERE THIS SUNDAY

"A NEW DAY DAWNS"

Charles W. Smith, Pastor,
First Baptist Church,
Swannanoa, N. C.

The greatest tragedy of life is to live without being conscious of God. When Jacob had the dream at Bethel in which he saw angels ascending and descending it convinced him that God was everywhere present but also that he had not been conscious of Him until now. After he awoke he said, "Surely God was in this place and I knew it not." (Gen. 28:16)

Actually no one can escape from God, He refuses to be pushed aside. We either recognize Him here or we bow before Him later. The reason men are not aware of God today, and there are many apparently, is due to moral failure. As long as Jacob relied on trickery, meanness, and baseness, for his living he was unconscious of God's presence. Like Jacob many today blot God out of their lives by living on the plane of the materialistic, the pleasurable and the sensual.

But Jesus came to enable all men to see God. In fact through repentance and faith in Him man can discover, like Jacob, a very close relationship between earth and heaven. Yes, he can be conscious of angelic assistance in all of life's problems and sorrows. Life takes on new meaning, joy, and purpose when a person discovers that "God was in this place and I knew it not."

Are you conscious of Him in your life?
