SWEATER SHOP—

(From Page 1)

In order to protect Mrs. Vaillancourt, the firemen opened the doors to her Gift-Craft Shop and cleared the place of harmful smoke by the use of a huge fan.

"This type of service is greatly appreciated but seldom heard of in other localities," Mrs. Vaillancourt said. "I can't say too much in praise for these men who perform this act," she concluded.

The fire department had men on duty throughout the night in fear that the blaze might break out again. These men included Richard B. Stone, mayor, Jack Leatherwood fire chief, and Jarvis Dickens, John Rice, and Ernest Reed.

John McGraw and Charles Arnette were cited for their service in boarding up the windows of the Sweater Shop. The fire department is now in the midst of a campaign to buy a new truck to replace one which is worn out. Citizens are asked to pay an average of $4.00 each toward purchase of the truck. The remainder of the cost will be borne by the Town of Black Mountain.

Donations may be sent to the Black Mountain Fire Department at the town hall.
