At The Church:
 Preparation Day for Vacation Bible School got off to a good start on Friday evening, June 12 with 42 in attendance. And now, each week day evening from June 15-26, youngsters will be having happy times in class while teachers do all the work.

A partial list of the excellent Faculty includes: Rev. George L. Hocutt, Pastor; Mrs. L. L. Biddix, Principal; Mrs. Charles Jollay, Pianist; and the following Superintendents of departments: Nursery, Miss Lynda Bradley; Beginner, Mrs. Bill Wells, Jr.; Primary, Mrs. John May; Junior, Mrs. Paul Turner; and Intermediate, Mrs. James McMahan.

The Olive Lawton Circle of W.M.S. met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. L. L. Biddix. The Royal Service program on "Awakening Brazil" was led in an interesting way by Mrs. John May, assisted by Mrs. James McMahan, Mrs. Miller Jackson, Mrs. Bill Wells, Jr., and Mrs. Howard Wright. A refreshing ice course was served by the hostess during the delightful fellowship hour.

A surprise feature of the Sunday evening worship hour was a choir of the church Juniors. Their music was greatly enjoyed and this choir promises to be a real asset to the church.

Invitations were received here to the wedding of Miss Cadla Gail Kennedy, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Edgar Kennedy of Panama City, Fla. to Ivey Lee Lawing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lawing of Ridgecrest, N. C., on Sunday, June 14, in First Baptist Church in Panama City.

Tony Moore went down with the Lawing family and was best man in this wedding. (Now, how many Ridgecresters knew that "Jimmy" is only a nickname for Ivey Lee?)

Bill Bradley spent a few days of last week with his family here. When he returned to Winston-Salem on Thursday evening he was accompanied by his sisters, Misses Barbara and Lynda Bradley, who spent the week end in his apartment while he went to Lexington, N. C., to be one of his close friends.

Meanwhile, the Bradley girls were in a round of social events which included the wedding on Saturday evening in Ardmore Baptist Church, of their cousin, Miss Juanda Hamrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Hamrick, to Rev. Ralph Halliwell of Baltimore, Md.

The bride and groom are both Mission Volunteers and will enter Southwestern Seminary in Ft. Worth, Texas, this fall for further training. Miss Barbara Bradley was one of eight honorary bridesmaids in her cousin's wedding, which was an unusually beautiful ceremony with all attendants carrying out a yellow and gold color scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bradley and Judy drove to Winston on Saturday to attend the wedding bringing the older daughters home again that night.

Another wedding of great interest will take place in Ridgecrest Church at 7:30 on Saturday evening, June 20, when Miss Martha Allison, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Allison, and the late Mr. Allison, is to be married to Meek Robert Penley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Penley of Swannanoa.

Miss Allison is a 1964 graduate of Owen High School. Mr. Penley, serving in the U. S. Navy, is presently stationed in Charleston, S. C.

Dr. and Mrs. John D. McCready, Miss Mary Winston McCready, and Mrs. William Martin of Ecala, Fla., arrived last week to spend several months in the summer cottage, "Mole Hill Manor," on Old Toll Road. These are friends who through the years have taken active interest in Ridgecrest and the Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gill of Chicago, with their children, Sammy, Georgia Ann, and Gary, arrived Sunday to spend the rest of the week with his mother, Mrs. S. C. Gill.

"Sunshine Cottage" opened again last week when Misses Tillie and Pauline Builtman of Florence, S. C., returned to the cottage. Their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Builtman, also of Florence, are spending this week with them.

Among other summer residents arriving last week to keep open their cottages are Miss Eleanor Harlowe of Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. M. J. McMahan of Morristown, Tenn.; Mrs. Lala McSwain of Shelby; Mrs. D. R. Hill of S. C. and Fla.; and Mrs. T. C. Crossland of Punta Gorda, Fla.

Coach and Mrs. Norman Harris of Gardner-Webb College, and their children, spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harris.

Mrs. Elsie Alexander of Mooresville, N. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown for a couple of days last week. On Thursday the three took a mountain trip via Cherokee and back down the Parkway to Asheville. Mrs. Brown says this part of that scenic highway, with its acres and acres of purple rhododendron now in bloom, rivals the beauty of Roan Mountain.

One nice way to keep cool to to have a private swimming pool in your own yard. A most ingenious Ridgecrest, E. H. Snyper by name, has constructed an excellent one for his family and pumps water into it from a stream right off Rattlesnake Mountain. Um-m-m! COOL!

Funeral services for Gilbert K. Morgan, 80, of the Bee Tree section, Swannanoa, were held Wednesday, June 10, at the Bee Tree Christian Church of which he was a member. The Rev. Harland Ogle, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Bee Tree Cemetery. Mr. Morgan died unexpectedly last Sunday, while visiting his daughter, Mrs. John Daly in Dayton, Ohio.

Surviving are four sons, Floyd and Dexter of Swannanoa, George of Asheville and Ralph Morgan of Greenville, S. C.; two daughters, Mrs. Daly and Mrs. Claude McMahan of Penrose; three brothers, Charles E. and H. C. of Swannanoa and W. C. Morgan of Black Mountain; a half-brother, H. G. Reese of Swannanoa; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Reed of Asheville and Mrs. Blanche Cordell of Swannanoa; a half-sister, Mrs. Thomas Hall of Swannanoa; 17 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Harrison Funeral home was in charge.

W. R. Ledford
 Funeral services for William Robert Ledford, 87, of Swannanoa, were held Monday afternoon, June 15, in the Swannanoa Heights Missionary Baptist Church with the Rev. John Wright, the Rev. Robert Ballard and the Rev. Kermon Silvers officiating. Burial was in the Bee Tree Cemetery. Pallbearers were William Bridges, James Ballard, Vernon Roberts, William Jenkins, Clarence Suttles, and Ralph Harwood.

Mr. Ledford was a lifelong resident of Buncombe County, a son of the late John and Bab Andrews Ledford, a retired employe of Beacon member of Swannanoa Heights
