BIRTHDAYS—

(From Page 1) the ground and it will sprout green leaves. She was 75 on June 15.

Having been reared in Black Mountain, everyone knows or has heard of their two sons. Wilco, who now lives on Oakland Drive and pastors Homer's Chapel Church where his parents are active members, and Cliff, or "Lefty", who is former pitcher for the Giants and now lives in Baltimore.

Wilco has two daughters and two grandchildren. Cliff has three children and four grandchildren.

ROTARIANS—

(From Page 1) bers to attend the attraction. The club has been invited to meet at Blue Ridge on July 13.

Saturday night the members and wives enjoyed Ladies' Night at the Swannanoa clubhouse when almost 100% attendance was noted. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Norwood; Mr. and Mrs. Sid Crox, former members; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Culbertson from Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. Val Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Cox, summer members from Florida.

Dr. Paul Lambert was welcomed into the club as an honorary member and given a pin to that effect; Cliff Field and Sam Millar were awarded pins for perfect attendance for the past year. Allan Culbertson installed the new officers: Sam Millar, president; Lawrence Brandon, vice president; Cliff Field, secretary and Chris Bauer, treasurer. Woody Patton was awarded a past-president's pin.

Dinner was served by a committee of women from Swannanoa, Mrs. Eugene Lovan, chairman.

Dancing followed the dinner with music furnished by the "Country Kings".

SUNDAY VOWS

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of ivory bridal satin and charmingly lace appliqued with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of satin and lace. She carried a bouquet of roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Barbara Ann Solesbee of Black Mountain was maid of honor. She was attired in a floor length gown of pink chiffon and carried long stem American Beauty roses.

Miss Sarah Horne of Swannanoa, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Brenda Mock of Waynesville; Miss Betty Walters, Huntersville, and Miss Elizabeth Nanney of Black Mountain were bridesmaids. Their attire was identical to that of the honor attendant.

Charles Horne of Swannanoa was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Tommy Lavelle, Charleston, S. C.; Bill Gustafson of Islip, N. Y.; Ronnie Henderson of Greenwood, S. C., and John Brintnall of Bryson City. Billy Glover, cousin of the bride was junior usher and Tommy Horne, brother of the bridegroom, and Joey Glover, cousin of the bride, were pages.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church with Mrs. Douglas J. Glover, aunt of the bride; Mrs. C. J. Wilson and Sandy Wilson of Black Mountain; Mary Ruth English and Pauline Briggs of Mars Hill, and Mrs. Bill Gustafson of Charlotte assisting.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a printed green silk sheath and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Evans wore a sheath of blue lace with bone accessories and Mrs. Horne chose a sheath of pink lace with white accessories.

KIWANIANS NOTE—

(From Page 1) several flags or banners were used by different groups of revolutionaries from different sections; thus there was the Pine Tree flag, the Rattlesnake flag etc. Later the flag with thirteen stars for the thirteen original states with thirteen bars was settled upon. Following Yorktown and the defeat of the British more and more stars were added on the blue field. At the beginning of the Civil War in 1861 there were thirty-three stars. After this unfortunate episode more stars were rapidly added until our present flag with fifty proud stars.

The program was presented by member Robin Amos. Roy Gravener presided and four visiting Kiwanian guests were present.

BOOKS OF YEAR—

(From Page 1) Asheville Citizen; Raleigh News & Observer; the New York Evening Post; the London, England, Daily Express; and the Paris, France, edition of the New York Herald. She also established the News Bureau of Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro. Perhaps her most important contribution at the present time is that of serving as a member of the board of trustees and executive committee of the Consolidated University of North Carolina.

Aside from her professional obligations, Virginia Lathrop renders a remarkable service to Friends of the Library groups across the State. In her talk last year, she enriched her listeners, reading lists of the best late books, that she became a "must" for many. Several of the most outstanding programs of the Friends of the Library during the past year were based on books she had introduced. The request that Mrs. Lathrop come on July 1 has arisen out of a desire to permit summer visitors to Black Mountain to hear her. All are cordially invited. The meetings of the Friends of the Library are free. The Program Committee is having mimeographed a list of the books about which Mrs. Lathrop will speak. Copies of this will be available at the meeting; in addition copies will be left with Mrs. McGraw at the Black Mountain Library.

MRS JURWITZ HOSTESS TO METHODIST CIRCLE

The monthly meeting of Circle No. 5, of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Jurwitz, in the form of a picnic supper. Officers and Committees for the new year were appointed and elected. They are Mrs. J. M. Goodman, Chairman; Mrs. Jurwitz, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. D. O. McDougle, secretary; Mrs. Kelly Bengé, treasurer; Mrs. Cortez Gaskins, local Church activities; Spiritual Life, Mrs. June Glenn, Jr.; Mrs. Stanley Garland, benevolence; Mrs. Bengé, Christian social relations; Mrs. Mary Cordell, telephone; flowers, Mrs. Richard Seawright. Mrs. Bengé conducted a most interesting study on discussion on "Christian Perfection in John Wesley."

As usual, those planning to hear Mrs. Lathrop are invited to bring their sandwiches and visit with Mrs. Lathrop after the address. Coffee, cream and sugar will be provided. At that time there will also be an opportunity to scan some of the books displayed by our Black Mountain Library, as well as some brought by the speaker.

Richardsons Entertain Writers

From North, South, East and West they have come to the Writers' Conference at Ridgecrest this past week. On Sunday afternoon, June 21, a group of about forty-five gathered at Hilltop, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Howard Richardson. It is interesting to note the states from which they came: North Carolina
