Red, white, & blue retirement plan

Sure, you'll have social security. Maybe an insurance plan, company pension and money in the bank to boot.

But buying U.S. Savings Bonds is also an excellent way to prepare for that day when you start taking it easy full time.

If you buy one a month at $37.50 for 7 1/2 years before you retire, you'll have $50.00 a month coming in for 7 1/2 years after. (That's just an example. You can adjust the dollars and the years to suit yourself.)

Something else to think about: Bonds can help make sure you'll have a future to retire to in the first place. The money does a lot to strengthen Uncle Sam's hand in the free world.

Why not make it a habit to buy Bonds regularly where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work? See if you don't feel pretty good about it—now and later.

- Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds
- You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity (7 1/2 years)
 - You pay no state or local tax and can defer the federal tax until the Bonds are cashed
 - Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
 - You can get your money when you need it

Buy E Bonds for growth—H Bonds for current income

ORDER NO. 58D-2483-B-3 COL. X 133 LINES—NEWSPAPERS—JULY, 1964

Charles Brockway and son Bob have been doing quite a lot of work on their place in this section and Mrs. Brockway left for their home in West Palm Beach Monday. Bob is returning with his wife and children next week. Mr. and Mrs. Brockway, Sr., will return to their summer home here later.

Horace Ledbetter
We attended the funeral of Horace Ledbetter Sunday at Bat Cave Church. He had been ill for some time in Oteen hospital.

There was a large attendance. Folks came from far and near. You meet folks you haven't seen in years. I met a cousin of mine, Mabel (Ledbetter) Lancaster. I hadn't seen in 64 years. She is the daughter of Tom Ben and (Elizabeth) Murphy Ledbetter, born and reared on Broad River.

Birthday
Mont Murphy celebrated his 93rd birthday at his home on Lower Cedar Creek last Sunday.

PRITCHELL POSTSCRIPTS

BY BARRY MORRIS

Can you imagine the somewhat fearful anticipation that is held by the Ridgecrest staffers as more than 4,500 young people arrive at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly today? (July 2).

The occasion is the annual Southern Baptist Youth Conference which will be in session today through July 8. During this time 15 and 16 year-old intermediates and 17 through 24 year-old non-college young people will explore the theme "Not Alone We Conquer."

Youth conference is so large that the entire program will be presented in duplicate. In other words, while the intermediates are in classes and workshops, the young people will participate in worship services.

Ridgecrest will be full and nearly overflowing this week. It should be quite a sight to see.

Music in the Air
Close to 2,900 persons register for the 24th annual music conference which closed yesterday. The highlight of the week came Tuesday evening with the performance of the oratorio, "What Is Man?" by the 600 voice Ridgecrest oratorio choir.

Music conference is extremely well organized and those that attend the conference are very serious about their music study. These two reasons worked together to make it a very successful meeting.

Girls Show Summer Home
Sunday was open house at the three staff dormitories for girls. The dorms, illustriously named "More Glamor," "Glamor Manor" and "The Barn," were so clean they were spotted when the girls' guests toured them Sunday afternoon.

Must close the Postscripts now—staff has just a few minutes more to rest—very soon our 4,500 guests will arrive.

MONTREAT

Gladys H. Slight

These days are certainly a joy at Montreat, everything is so beautiful, trees, mountains, skies, friends, new and old, greeting each other. Of course everyone speaks to each other. Of course it couldn't be too perfect; last week a moving van coming down one of the hills mistook its step and slid down into the ditch, but it wasn't long before it was righted and went on its way. Perhaps it objected to leaving us.

Perhaps come of the older folks at Montreat would be interested to join in the program for crafts and ceramics under Mr. Heath Whittle, professor at Davidson College. Hours are 10 to 12 a.m., and 3 to 5 p.m. six days a week in the shop under the Old Skating Rink.

Two of our prospective students at Montreat-Anderson College this fall are Miss Sylvia Irene McAfee of Old Fort, and Miss Dora Ann Boyd of Marion, who are recipients of the James G. K. McClure Scholarships given to deserving and academically promising residents of Western North Carolina. Miss McAfee is a graduate of Pleasant Gardens High School where she was an A student and was voted the most studious. Miss Boyd graduated from Cove High School where she was a member of the Glee Club and also played basketball at her high school.

Mr. Glenn Bannerman, a professor of the Presbyterian School of Christian Education, Richmond, Virginia, is directing the newly organized Youth Work Camp at Montreat, this summer. The camp is in operation for seven weeks during which time young people from different areas will help develop the family camping areas. They will also participate in a Bible study program and a variety of recreational activities. Mr. Bannerman will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gregory of Quincy, Florida. Mr. Gregory is a dental student at the Medical College of Virginia.

The Cottage Owners of Montreat will meet on July 10th at the Gaither Chapel at 3:30 p.m. All are earnestly requested to be present.

The North Carolina Covenant Life Curriculum Workshop directed by the Rev. Robert Turner, Charlotte, N. C., is being held from June 2-8. The Workshop is unique in that it offers a multiple leader training opportunity, featuring an Area Laboratory School, a Week-Day Kindergarten Workshop, a Five-Day Adult Workshop and a Lay School of Theology. These five areas are co-related and yet have separate activities. Keynote speakers for the workshop are Dr. Fred R. Stair, Jr., Central Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Georgia, and Dr. John H. Leith, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia.

The workshop is sponsored by the Executive Committee of the Synod of North Carolina.

The Adult Bible Class under the leadership of Dr. L. Nelson Bell will meet in Anderson Auditorium July 12th (unless changed to Gaither Hall) at 9:45 a.m. The subject of the lesson will be "God's Concern for His People" from the Book of Exodus, chapters 1 and 3. Dr. Bell's lesson is broadcast over Radio Station WFGW at 10 a.m. and 5:15 on F. M.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Link of Princeton, N. J., are spending the summer at their Louisiana Road home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hope of Fayetteville, N. C., have opened their home on North Carolina Road.

Dr. and Mrs. George Brown flew to Washington, D. C., and will return to Montreat by way of Norfolk where they will visit one of their sustaining churches. They leave Montreat on Tuesday for San Francisco where they will sail for Korea at the end of their furlough. They will leave two of their children in America, their daughter, Mary, in Ames Scott College and son, George, in Davidson College.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. J. Garner of Charlotte, N. C., whose home is on Mississippi Road, will be at Montreat on and off during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garner and family of Atlanta, Georgia, are with the Rev.

and Mrs. Garner over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Friend will be staying at the Grier apartment the fifth of July. On July 7th the Rev. and Mrs. Joe B. Hopper and family will arrive from Korea to spend the summer in Montreat. In the fall they will go to Mission Haven in Decatur, Georgia, for the winter.

Visitors to Montreat are invited to join one of two tours which will begin at 4 p.m. on Tuesday and Friday and leave from the lobby of Anderson Auditorium. Tours will last approximately an hour and are intended to give visitors a quick look at important Montreat landmarks. Included in the tour are the new family camping area, Montreat Camp for Girls, the Historical Foundation, etc.

Dr. Ivan Stafford is requesting cottage owners and friends of Montreat to make suggestions of places who should be contacted to become Patrons of Montreat. Names and addresses should be turned in or phoned (669-3363) to Dr. Stafford's office.

Dr. and Mrs. Julian Lake are here for the summer in their cottage on Texas Road, "Edgemont".

Mrs. D. P. McGeachy has opened her home, "Cnocmor-an," on West Virginia Terrace this past week.

Mrs. A. A. McLeod and Miss Mary Stewart McLeod arrived at their home on Kentucky Road, for the summer.

Mrs. Grace Lee has announced that the Montreat Women's Club will meet Monday, July 6 at 3:30 p.m. at the R. C. Anderson home. Miss Elizabeth Wilson will be the speaker for the meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Gray McAllister of Richmond, Virginia, have opened "Twiggables" on South Carolina Terrace.

Mrs. Clyde Stubbs and daughter "Robbie" were visiting relatives in Kinston, Raleigh and Wilson, N. C. over the weekend.

Well, some of the children who held ring bells on the Fourth of July, together with some of the grown-up folks will remember they were celebrating the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, after which they went out to ring the church bells, including the old "Liberty Bell". Since the old bell is cracked and cannot be rung, patriotic organizations across the country have inaugurated "bell ringing" at 1 p.m. on the Fourth of July for 2 to 3 minutes. Since some of the children didn't have bells, it was suggested that they use a pan cover and a spoon as a noise-maker for the occasion. Flags were asked to be flown everywhere, and the small fry told the importance of this occasion in our history.

The Transylvania Concert Band from Brevard gave a very delightful concert Saturday evening and July 11 the Symphonic Band, also from Brevard, will give a concert, starting at 8:00 p.m. in Anderson Auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Corcoran of Charleston, S. C., arrived in Montreat recently for the summer.

The Covenant Life Conference convenes from July 9-15 with Dr. Sidney D. Crane, of Richmond, director, and Rev. Fred C. Holder, Administrator (and Registrar) also of Richmond. Theme to explore in depth is what it means to be a covenant people of God in the world today. (All adults and young people who wish to think more seriously and thus understand more fully the spirit, intent, and relevancy of God's covenant with man, should attend.) Leaders: Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson, Dr. Arnold Black Rhodes, Dr. Waldo Beech, Dr. Ernest Stricklin, and others. Special features: Reactor sessions, dramatic presentations, small group work, panel summary of conference, and group Bible study.

World Missions, Nashville, Tenn., will be the speaker.
