

RIDGECREST RAMBLINGS

MRS. ELBERT F. HARDIN
PHONE: NO 9-7134

of the Church
It was good to have Pastor George Hocutt home on Tuesday after their vacation of two weeks. Part of that time was spent in New Orleans with their daughter, Miss Margaret Hocutt, R. N. They also spent several days in Columbus, Ga., with Mrs. Hocutt's sister, Mrs. W. Angeline and family.

A refreshing and "different" program was given last evening by members of the Ridgecrest Assembly Staff of the Ridgecrest Missionary Society. Miss Mary Sue Morley, of Tampa, Fla., spoke of the special ministries of her church to the Cuban Refugee groups, and to the more than 150 deaf people of the congregation. Bill Campbell

Mrs. Edith Beam has been transferred from Transylvania Hospital in Brevard to Dogwood Manor, Black Mountain. Her condition remains about the same it has been for several weeks.

Ridgecrest visitors at Dogwood Manor late last week were delighted to see Dr. W. L. Hatcher walking in the corridor. He did not require the conventional walker he had been using, but got along alone with the aid of two canes.

Mrs. E. P. Anthony, and little daughter, Lucy, of Hogue, Va., are visiting their cousins, Misses Mamie and Grace Meeks.

Kathy and Sandy Tzouvelakas of Greenville, S. C., spent week before last with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brockman. Mr. and Mrs. Tzouvelakas came up from Greenville on Aug. 2 for a brief visit before taking their daughters home.

Mrs. Ernest Cowart, Miss Pearl Pepper, and Miss Margaret Hall, of Lanett, Ala., arrived Aug. 3 to spend ten days with Mrs. W. P. Reeves. Other friends of Mrs. Reeves came on Aug. 7 and are staying a similar length of time in the T. F. Henry cottage next door. These are Mrs. Stevie Partin and her daughter, Gladys Ann Partin, from Orlando, Fla.

With late July and August, quite a number of people have returned to their summer cottages here. Among these are: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wooten and some friends from Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent and family from Miami; Rev. and Mrs. Harrison Crews of Ft. Meade, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bobbett of Bartow, Fla.; and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley L. Keen of Ft. Meade, who have been here for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton McCullough of Winter Haven, Fla., have moved into the new home they built last fall on Craven Hill. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Weeks of Avondale, Fla., have been occupying the house for the past fortnight.

Mrs. Barbara Frazer and her three children of Charlotte, spent several days of the week ending Aug. 2, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stevens.

Mrs. Joe Moore left last Thursday for Raleigh for a visit with her sister, Miss Eliza Wynne. Two other sisters from distant cities were to join her there in the old Wynne home.

Mrs. S. C. Gill returned home on Wednesday of last week after visiting her recently bereaved sister, Mrs. George Thomas, in Marks, Miss. Accompanying her were her brother and sister-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Creaman of Donelson, Tenn., and Miss Ruby Robinson of Chattanooga.

Mrs. Edwin B. Dozier, missionary to Japan, has been attending the current W.M.U. Conference at the Assembly, On Friday she was joined by her husband, Dr. Dozier (also on furlough from Japan) and their two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Mamin of Indianapolis, Ind., with her two small daughters, and Miss Adella Ann Dozier, student in Meredith College, Raleigh. This much of the family will be spending about ten days here together in one of the Craig apartments. Dr. Mamin expects to join his wife and children for part of that time, and the whole family hopes to see the son and brother, Charles

Dozier and his bride may be with them at least briefly as they return from their honeymoon trip. The Dozier family endeared themselves to Ridgecresters in a special way when they spent a winter here in the Cowherd house some years ago.

Rev. Wesley Lawton, and his son, Jimmy, made a one-day visit here last week but will shortly return for a longer stay. They were enroute from their home in Dallas, Tex., to assist Mr. Lawton's son-in-law in revival services. Dr. and Mrs. James S. Day of Spartanburg, are in their home here on Florida Ave.

Mrs. E. V. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright spent Sunday, Aug. 2, in Jefferson City, Tenn., with Mrs. Ray Elmore and family. During their absence a car full of relatives (including Mrs. Moore's sister) drove up from Inman, S. C., for a visit of several hours. Both groups suffered the disappointment of missing each other.

Mrs. T. E. Walters had almost a full family reunion in her home over the weekend. Her daughter, Mrs. Dean Willis, with her young daughter, Elaine, were already here from Dallas, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. David Walters and small sons, Rodwell and Stuart, came from their Fayetteville home to spend several days. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters and children Ben and Virginia, from Charlotte, were here only for the weekend, then went on to stay for a few days in Wild Acres, where a Charlotte group of Oratorio Singers give daily informal concerts.

Young Mrs. Walters plays bassoon in the orchestra which accompanies this singing group.

Ed Starzaneck seems to have broken records for speedy recovery. Ten days after major surgery for triple ailments, he was home again, and two days attended Sunday, a.m., worship service in Ridgecrest Church.

Family Reunions seem to be the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bradley and children (including their eldest son, Bob) and his family from Winston-Salem) on Sunday attended the Bradley reunion held in Forest City.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gregg and grandson Jimmy of Flint, Mich., returned to their home Sunday after spending several days here with their relatives in Swannanoa and Biltmore. They motored down via Washington, D. C. and visited President Kennedy's grave in Arlington cemetery.

On Sunday, Aug. 2, the E. J. Moody family assembled in the picnic area at the Recreation Park for their annual family reunion. With their guests, including Mom and me, there were between 75 and 80 present. Mr. and Mrs. Moody have nine children, 18 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren.

Sunday, Aug. 2, was also the Bartlett and Creaman reunion which is held each year at this time at the home of G. R. Creaman of Jones Cove.

Week end guests of the Fred J. Moodys included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Deitz and children of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Moody, Alan and Carolyn of Greenville, S. C. Thad Gregg of Flint, Mich., visited briefly on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Audison Greene of Landrum, S. C., visited the H. H. Ingle, Sr. family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Nichols and Wayne motored out to Crazy Gardens Sunday, coming back through the Reems Creek section.

Mom and I were away from home last week from Thursday till Monday. We spent three nights in Government with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Moody and Jerry and a night in Swannanoa with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moody and boys, Mike and Terry.

James, driver of the car, was driving Ronnie to work on the second shift at Beacon when he lost control in a curve on Bee Tree road beyond Warren Wilson. The girls were also along. The car hit a telephone pole, cutting it off. They stopped a passing motorist who called an ambulance that took them to the Mission hospital. James had to have several stitches in his back. Ronnie was bruised up and had some ligaments torn in his ankle. Gloria received bruises and abrasions and Linda's arm was broken in two places. She also had to have about 10 stitches in her lip and three or four in her leg. She had to remain in the hospital several days. The others were treated and released.

PRITCHELL POSTSCRIPTS

BY BARRY MORRIS

Not every week at Ridgecrest has been as busy as the past two for Ridgecrest staffers. What with two Sunday School conferences, the meeting of the 58-member elected Sunday School Board and the dedication of Pritchell Hall, there were big wigs and CPT's ("Cotton-pickin'" tourists) all over the place.

Periodically, the staffers at Ridgecrest find time when they are not serving guests. In this time they find enjoyment in drama groups, choir, Bible study, Mom Week's knitting classes, and the assembly's recreation facilities.

Last Wednesday, though, was a red-letter day, and the red-letters spelled Christmas in August. The staff trimmed the tree, sang carols, and enjoyed a tremendous array of foods at the Christmas banquet. Giving is a Christmas theme, especially in the Christian sense, and the staff gave an out of season Lottie Moore Christmas offering which is to be used to buy lands and a piano for a Latin America mission field.

Our August Christmas was a happy season but it was quickly followed by a sad note. Jerry Perkins, the assistant news writer in our press office, leaves us today.

Jerry is moving to Nashville where he will be employed by the Baptist Sunday School Board as a copy writer in the church literature department.

Naturally we are glad for her advancement but we hate to see her leave too. Our best wishes go with you, Jerry.

Now we are making room for the ladies. The Woman's Missionary Union conference begins today. Oh well, it was nice to have Christmas vacation but now it is back to work.

One real good thing about this Christmas. I'm not going to have all of those horrible bills coming in!
