BROAD RIVER

by Mrs. M. M. Elliott

Personals: Frances Ownbey, and her nephew, Forest Ownbey, of Black Mountain, visited Ralph and Alice Ownbey and Mrs. Floyd, in this community last Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Taylor of Bristol, Tenn., spent Friday night with Ray's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Lytle and children, James and Mary Esther, on Upper Flat Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Cook of North Palm Beach, Fla., arrived here the same day for a week. They will be staying at the Monte Vista Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Troutman and daughter, Susan, of Goldsboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor and daughters, Joyce and Judy last Saturday.

The Morris brothers of West Palm Beach, Randy, Taylor, and Jerry and his wife spent the weekend on Upper Broad River and returned to their homes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ford and children of West Asheville, visited Mrs. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stroud, last Sunday.

Mrs. Nannie Bell Morgan of Upper Flat Creek visited her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wright and children on Broad River last Sunday.

My son, Jack Elliott, of Marion visited me last Sunday afternoon.

Accidents: Mrs. Belle (Warren) Parton of Waynesville, who visited her sister, Mrs. Savannah Floyd in this community recently, since returning to her home has fallen, breaking her hip and one of her arms. She is a patient in an Asheville hospital; her nephew and niece, Alice and Ralph Ownbey visited her last Sunday afternoon. Belle is well-known to us old-timers. She was born and reared on Broad River. She is the daughter of the late Lum and Mary (Clement) Warren.

Mrs. Carrie Burgin of this section visited her neighbor, Aunt Dora Nanney in a Hendersonville hospital last Sunday. Mrs. Nanney is very ill with cancer. Also while there Carrie visited her nephew who lives in Hendersonville. He is the son of her brother, the late Murphy Elliott of Hendersonville.

Church News: Roy Nesbitt of Upper Flat Creek is a patient in an Asheville hospital.

UPPER CEDAR CREEK COMMUNITY

Bessie Elliott Davis

Ben Laughter of Rutherfordton and Tom Elliott of the Bethlehem section came over the weekend. Ben was swapping sweet potatoes with us for Irish potatoes. Ben told us his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kelly Laughter had been in the Spartanburg Hospital for a serious operation.

Jack Partusch visited one of his friends Saturday night, a Ranger living up from Buck's Restaurant. Jack is a "Jack of all trades." He is now putting the water in Lewis Elliott's house. He keeps busy all the time plumbing, painting and carpentering.

Mrs. Lawrence Elliott is recuperating from a very serious operation at Lawrence's parents' home, the Taft Elliotts. Mrs. Boyd Elliott takes care of the baby at the Taft Elliott home while the family works.

Rev. Henry Powell Associational Missionary visited our church Sunday and taught the adult class. There were several compliments on his teaching.

Our revival starts Monday night, October 16. Everybody is invited. Visiting Evangelist is Rev. Bill Conner of Locketown Baptist Church.

As dinner guests Sunday we had Mr. and Mrs. Bill McPeters and two small children of Swannanoa along with Bill's father Sam McPeters. Bill is a short "how do you do" was our grandson, Raymond Vess, and his girl friend, Lillian Ricker, of near Old Fort.

During late afternoon came Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker, Judy, Muriel, Leon and Mrs. Ben Walker, an aunt. We had an enjoyable visit. Almost everyone that comes wants a mess of turnip greens. Someone asked Jimmy why he sowed such a patch of turnips. He answered, "So my neighbors can get turnip greens."

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Emory Vess dropped in to see how we were getting along. Emory cuts down trees on my place, saws them up, and hauls the blocks in for my wood. I always love to see him.

GIANT COFFEE POT

A giant coffee pot in Old Salem at Winston-Salem stands 7 feet, 3 inches high with a diameter of 27 inches at the top and of 64 inches at its bottom. The coffee pot was erected in 1859 to advertise a tinsmith's shop.
