The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me . . . to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.—Isaiah 61:1-2

As I listened to this text being read by our chaplain, one phrase burned in to my mind—"the acceptable year of the Lord." I could hardly listen to the sermon that followed for thinking what miracles might be wrought if one community, or even one church group, would dedicate all actions toward making even one year acceptable.

The year 1965 is at hand, and many of us are making New Year's resolutions. Why not make just one, a resolution that this will be the "Year of the Lord"?

It would mean many things which Isaiah mentions. There would be intolerance of evil. More than that, there would be a complete rebuilding and repair of lives and areas that are now wasted and desolate. Beauty would replace ashes. Rejoicing and praise would replace sorrow and discontent. Each person would fulfil his obligations to his neighbor, his community, and to his nation in such a manner that God would approve.

PRAYER: Lord, we dedicate the year of 1965 to service in Thy name. Grant us vision of purpose, wisdom in action, and faith that Thou wilt sustain and strengthen us for the work Thou wouldst have us do. In our Master's name we pray. Amen.

Thought for the day: We rejoice in the coming of 1965 and will work to make it an acceptable year of the Lord. (The Upper Room)

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
Strange Kingdom
Lesson for January 3, 1965

HAVE YOU EVER heard so much about a person you have never met, that it almost seems that you have met personally, after all? Let's suppose you have a friend — call him Bill — who in turn has a friend named John. In the course of a year or two Bill has told you so many stories about John that you feel you know him. You know how he thinks, how he acts; you can guess what an emergency; you may think so well of him that you want nothing better than to arrange to meet him. And yet Bill has never given you the whole story of John's life. What he has given you are living glimpses into the character of a real man.

The New Testament gospels are like that. Strictly speaking, the gospels do not give us the story of Jesus' life. What they do is to give us a number of short stories about him, a number of remarks he made. They tell us so much — every bit of it revealing — that we feel we know the vital facts about Jesus.
