The lieutenant, whose wife, Barbara, is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Jack A. Menon of 2965 Pharr court, Atlanta, is a graduate of the U. S. Air Force Academy.

Lt. Weaver is being reassigned to Larson AFB, Wash.

Highway Fatalities Highest In History

From a traffic standpoint, the year ended on a dreary note—1565 road fatalities compared to 1386 the previous year. Last year's kill was the highest in the state's motoring history. The figures will escalate upward as delayed death reports are received, but immediate editorial requirements the 1565 figure reliable.

Mrs. Phillip Lee Clapp

Miss Pattie Bird Talbot, daughter of Mrs. George Bird Talbot of Raphine, Va., and the late Rev. Talbot, was married to Phillip Lee Clapp on Saturday, Jan. 2. Mr. Clapp is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert L. Clapp of Swannanoa.

The ceremony was performed at 4 p.m. in the New Providence Presbyterian church, Raphine, by the Rev. John K. Boyd before a background of chrysanthemums, greens, and five-pronged silver candelabra.

Given in marriage by her brother, Wade Talbot of Arlington, Va., the bride wore a floor length gown of white velvet made by the bride's aunt and fashioned after her mother's bridal gown. The dress featured a cowl neckline, fingertip sleeves, and a flowing chapel train. Her veil of illusion fell from a pearl-decked crown of velvet.

She carried a crescent bouquet of feathered carnations and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Alice Berry Talbot, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of azalea pink velvet with a cowl neckline and capped sleeves. Her headpiece was a crown of embroidered ribbon with pink illusion falling from it. She carried a nosegay of pink and white pom pom chrysanthemums tied with pink streamers.

Study Leader

The First Baptist church will observe January Bible Study Week, beginning Sunday evening and continuing through Wednesday of next week, Jan. 10-13.

The Young People and Adults will study the book of Deuteronomy led by the Rev. Norman Ferrell, pastor of Arden Baptist church, Arden. The intermediates will be led by Walter E. Bradley in considering "Exploring the Old Testament". The Juniors will be taught by Mrs. Loren L. Moore in the study "Before Jesus Came". The Primaries will have as leaders Mrs. L. T. Keever and Miss Ann Harris in thinking about "The Story of Samuel". The Beginners will have as leaders Mrs. W. F. Senn and Mrs. H. L. Lackey, using the theme "Good Times at Church". The Nursery will be under the direction of Mrs. Franklin Warren and Mrs. Henry Tetreu with the theme "Daytime and Nighttime".

The period of study will begin at 6:30 on Sunday evening and at 7:00 on the other evenings.

Waynesville To Test Owen Friday Evening

Back from their holiday rest, the Owen High School basketball teams face two tough foes this week.

On Tuesday night they meet Reynolds while on Friday evening they take on the high stepping Waynesville Mountaineers in a Blue Ridge Conference game.

Prior to the Christmas holidays the Warhorses managed only one victory, that over powerful R-S Central in a game played here.

However, Coach Ralph Singleton has noted signs of improvement and believes that the Warhorses are ready to roll and to get in the win column more frequently in the weeks ahead as the boys head down the home stretch.

GUARDS IMPROVED
Brad Franklin, Jim Coman, and Buddy Greenwood have improved in their ball handling and have started hitting more shots from the floor which takes some of the pressure off the forecourt men and draws the defense out to meet the threat.

REBOUNDED BETTER
In addition the rebounding of John Harris, Joe Brooks, and John Miracle has shown improvement. Charles Smith has recovered from a broken foot and is expected to move back into the lineup soon.

Coach Singleton has used the first few games to become acquainted with the personnel and to determine what each one can do under fire. He has been pleased with the progress and believes that better days lie ahead.

GIRLS
Coach Bill Rucker's Owen High girls are rolling along still undefeated. They will not meet Enka until late in the month and then will play them twice with only Brevard and Erwin between. The Warlassies have been installed as favorites in the Blue Ridge

Mrs. James Raymond Freeman

Miss Jo Carole Suttles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Suttles of Sherwood Forest, Swannanoa, and James Raymond Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman of Asheville, were united in marriage in a candlelight service Saturday, Dec. 26, at seven o'clock in the Friendship Presbyterian church.

Tr. Rev. Joseph Armfield, pastor, officiated. Mrs. David Burnette, organist, and Mrs. Robert Hauth, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. The vows were spoken before a background of greenery, white poinsettias and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of pea de soi, fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed in Chantilly lace, and a Sadrina neckline. Her bell-shaped skirt had a detachable chapel length train. She wore a crown of sequins and pearls with a veil of French illusion and carried a bouquet of featured carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Rex Padgett, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length organza gown and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Johnny Freeman, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Charles Livingston and Rex Padgett.

The bride's mother wore a two piece dress of golden aqua brocade satin with an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a two piece beige lace dress with an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in fellowship hall at the church. Those assisting were Mrs. Evadna Finley, Mrs. Michael Cefaratti and Mrs. Woodrow Cambron.

Mrs. Freeman is a senior at Charles D. Owen High school. Mr. Freeman is a graduate of Erwin High school. He and his father own and operate the Starr Body Shop, Asheville.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a green wool dress with matching accessories and the orchid detached from her bridal bouquet.

The symbolism of the light of Christ shining into the whole world is carried out by the gradual lighting of many candles in the darkened church. The first candle lighted is the Christ-candle, then the Twelve Apostles, and finally the candle carried by each person in the church is lighted.

The public is cordially invited to this service. After it, the young people present will adjourn for refreshments and recreation.

Miss Dana Kelly Is Teaching In Houston, Texas

Miss Dana Kelly spent the holidays here with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelly. She left last week end to return to Houston, Texas, to resume her position as teacher of the fifth grade in the Addicks Elementary school.

A graduate of Owen High school with the class of 1960, Miss Kelly completed her work at Warren Wilson college in 1962 and received her degree from the College of the Ozarks in 1964.

She joined the faculty of the Katy School District at Houston this past fall. She drove to Black Mountain to spend the holidays with her parents and other members of her family.

Juniors Have Installation And Banquet

The Black Mountain Junior Woman's club held an annual banquet and installation of officers at the Monte Vista hotel when Barney Baxter was master of ceremonies for the evening and the invocation was given by Bob Grove.

Mrs. S. S. Cooley, sponsor from the Senior Woman's club, was a guest and presented a gift to Mrs. Joe Reynolds, outgoing president. Mrs. Reynolds expressed appreciation to all members and thanked Mrs. Steve Roberts and Mrs. Danny Young for the banquet arrangements.

New officers installed by Mrs. J. A. Humphrey, district junior director, were: Mrs. Danny Young, president; Mrs. Steve Roberts, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Charles Brown, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. D. O. n Quarles, secretary; Mrs. David Hamby, treasurer; Mrs. Joe Reynolds, chaplain; and Mrs. M. L. Williams, parliamentarian.

The Black Mountain Senior Woman's club choral group entertained with a program of special Christmas music, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Bergthold and led by Mrs. Gilbert Willey.

The gavel was presented to Mrs. Young and she invited guests to join the members and their husbands for an evening of dancing.

Engaged

MISS PHYLLIS OWNBEY and Bobby Warren Varney will be married this summer. Miss Ownbey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Ownbey of Black Mountain, who announce her engagement. She is a senior at Charles D. Owen High School. Mr. Varney is the son of Master Sgt. and Mrs. Wilburn Varney of Fort Campbell, Ky., and is a graduate of Paris American High School. He is employed by Macke Industrial Vending Co.

There were two organ builders in the craft town of Salem (now Old Salem at Winston-Salem). At a time when the organ—let alone the organ builder—was far from being of importance to music in America—this was most unusual.

COOPER

One of the crafts to be shown in the newly restored Brothers House at Old Salem in Winston-Salem will be that of the cooper or barrel maker. The Brothers House was opened for tours in November.

Warlassies Roll On Still Undefeated

The Owen Warlassies kept their slate clean by defeating the T. C. Roberson girls, 35-26, for victory No. 6.

Sarah Horne scored 18 points to lead the Owen girls. Terri and Carroll Rozzell aided the Warlassies' cause with 7 and 6 points respectively.

Roberson was led by Carolyn Bishop's 10 points and Barbara Moody's 7.

BOYS LOSE

The Owen boys lost their fifth game when T. C. Roberson defeated them, 58-48.

Halfway through the second quarter Owen had built up a 22-17 lead. Then Roberson took a 34 to 24 lead to the scored 15 straight points and dressing room. Owen never got closer than six points in the second half.

Tim Burchett and Winston Lloyd led the visiting Rams, scoring 20 and 18 points respectively. Jim Coman and John Harris paced Owen with 17 and 14 points respectively.

JVs WIN
The Owen JVs gained their 5th victory in six games by defeating Roberson, 50-44. Roger Silvers scored 25 points to lead the locals.

Celebrate New Year's Day Birthdays

R. G. Summey, Eric Bumgarner and Mrs. Cora Dula not only all live in the same neighborhood, but they all have birthdays on New Year's Day. For this reason Mrs. Summey's daughter, Mrs. Norah Hummer, gave a birthday dinner for the three at her home. Mr. Summey is 77; Eric is nine, and Mrs. Dula is 85 and has been a lifelong resident of Black Mountain. Other guests were Eric's mother, Mrs. William E.
