At this time of year every one seems to be tired and cross. Everyone except those who work at the Black Mountain Post Office. All through the year they wait on you with a smile and a pleasant word and during the Christmas Season when their work is doubled twice over they seem to be even more courteous and helpful. Let's show our appreciation by mailing ALL of our Christmas cards right now and packages too. We of Black Mountain are proud of our Post Office a d staff. Not a town or large city in our country can equal their efficiency and good will. We of this community thank you.
