BEACON LITTLE LEAGUE RESULTS

July 7
Grady pitched and hit 2 for and teammate Buchanan had home run and 3 for 4 as the Cards beat the Cubs 13 to 0. J. Bailey had 2 for 3, and Patton had 3 for 4 for the Cubs.

Franklin had 2 for 3, and had 3 for 4 as the Yanks overran the Red Sox 12 to 1. McCutcheon was the winning pitcher. McDewitt and Norby had 1 hit each for the Red Sox.

July 8
Burnette pitched the Braves to a 8 to 3 victory over the Tigers giving up only 3 hits. Webb of the Tigers gave up only 4 hits. Nichols got 2 for 3.

The Orioles caught the Giants on one of their bad days, beating them badly 14 to 0. Jones' single in the sixth inning was the only hit off Donald McKenzie. The Orioles had 10 hits off 3 different pitchers.

July 9
The Yanks and the Cards had a 4 to 2 ballgame with the Yanks winning in the 6th, scoring 2 runs. Cody and Thomas had 2 hits each for the Yanks. Feeder had 2 for 3 for the Cards.

The 1968 Season Champion Orioles scratched by the Red Sox 2 to 1. McDewitt pitched a great game for the Red Sox, but K. Thomas pitched a double ball for the Orioles. A double was the only extra base hit of the game.

July 10
Walks and hit batsmen marred what could have been a fine game between the Braves and the Giants. There were 16 walks and 4 hit batsmen. The Braves won 8 to 5. Ledford getting the win.

Thirteen base on balls by Cub pitchers was the key factor in the Tigers' win over the Cubs 9 to 0. K. Patton and M. Patton each had singles for the Cubs. David Cooper pitched the win and Weaver had 2 hits for the Tigers.
