12 Pages Today

Report Of Valley Schools

this is not a surprising incement to the teachers ents and mothers in our nunity, by now. We are interested in the reports our Valley Schools.

t's take a trip down to Owen: are 951 students olled. How would you like responsibility for that many

Two new classrooms have added. One will be used teaching bookkeeping and thand. This room is fured with regular bookkeepdesks and new desks for eachers.

ne other new room will be for social studies. It, too, urnished with ultra modern New blinds, and shelves have n installed in many of the new P. A. System has been talled which aids greatly in munication. Thirteen new teachers have added to the staff. The S will have pictures and f biographies of them soon. he Coaches and the football are working hard. Lytle says, "Everyone is t pleased with the way our vear is getting underway."

he Black Mountain Grammar ool, with its new principal, Hipps at the helm, has an ollment of 572 in the 5th ough 8th grade. ests in reading were given to fifth and sixth grade students day, August 25th. These s will determine the reading of the students and they be grouped, for reading sses, according to their ab-There are 135 fifth ders and 145 sixth graders. teachers for these groups - Fifth Grade - Mrs. t; Mrs. Stewart; Miss Alertson who teaches a com-fifth and sixth grade

Miss Reeves and Mrs. Stutts.

The parents will be pleased to know the teachers are on the job from 7:45 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. each day and even later if the

for the seventh and eighth grades. This will enable the teacher to utilize her greatest skill in the teaching of the subject for which he or she is best qualified. Several of the teachers spent last summer perfecting these teaching skills.

Science - Mr. Alexander Reading - Mrs. Cunningham

Eighth Grade: Mathematics - Mrs. Brown Science - Mr. Pollard Language Arts - Miss Lindsey

ne Librarian for the entire school is Mrs. Rice. This will be much more like the program of a regular Junior High School and will aid the the seventh and eighth grades. Mr. Robert Melton is again

The Sixth Grade teachers are: Mrs. Atkins, Mrs. Carland,

Mr. Hipps commended his their year had gotten under way, with a minimum of problems.

need arises.

teachers, a librarian and a teacher with a new title "A Resource Teacher." The duties of this teacher will be to aid students who are found deficient in some scholastic areas and help them to keep up with regular classroom participation. There is an average classroom load of 32 students per teacher. The Block System will be used

The Classes are broken down in this manner:

Seventh Grade: Language Arts - Mrs. Carson Social Studies - Mrs. Combs Mathematics - Mrs. Burgess

Social Studies - Mrs. Bailey

Resource Teacher - Mr. James Each homeroom teacher in the eighth grade will teach her own reading group.

regular high school curriculum. Driver. There are 146 students in both is so often referred to by little first and second graders has an enrollment of 581 in regular 1072. teachers for the excellent way classes and 15 in the Special Education Group. There are twenty regular classroom teachers and one for the Special Group. There will be one kindergarten class taught at the school. Any family, who has a child There are eighteen regular five years old, and eligible to enter school next year, may obtain an application blank from the school office. The kinder-for the entire school.

Miss Garrison

Mrs. Pinkston

Mrs. Soos

Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. Wallen

Mrs. Cody

Mrs. Russell

Mrs. Frink

Mrs. Plyler

Mrs. Mann

Mrs. Hansen

Mrs. Hamby

Mrs. Honeycutt

Mrs. Bridges

Mrs. Owenby

Mrs. Brooks

Mrs. Boyd

Mrs. Stubbs

Mrs. Freeman

Mrs. O'Barr

Mrs. Haynes

Mr. Hughes

Mrs. Porter

Mrs. Hipp

Miss Lyda

Mrs. Carr

Mr. Garris

Mr. Roberts

Mrs. Caldwell

Mrs. Champion

dergarten Group.

for each team.

Mr. Capps

Mrs. Beddingfield

Mrs. Brandon

Mrs. Faucette

Miss Dillingham

Third Grade - 123 Students

Fourth Grade - 151 Students

Fifth Grade - 126 Students

Sixth Grade - 127 Students

Seventh Grade - 132 Students

Eighth Grade - 124 Students

There is one Special Education Group with eleven students taught by Miss Southhard.

Mrs. Barden is the "Resource Teacher" and will give students aid in the areas in which they need scholastic assistance. Mrs. Sams teaches the Kin-

A more complete resume of the plans and achievements at the school, in their new program will be given in a forth coming

Opening

Game

The Owen High Warhorses will open their 1969 season Friday evening, August 29, at 8:30 p.m. at West Henderson High School. This is the first game

The Owen team is not as heavy as it has been in past seasons but does have some good sized boys such as Al Petty at 190,

Jed Osteen will be starting quarterback, although small in size his passing arm can send the football like a bullet. His back up men will be Barry Nichols and Barry Luckadoo.

garten teacher and her aide will visit the home of the child and determine its eligibility to attend the class. Children of kindergarten age, living in rural areas, will be transported to and from school by bus this year. If you have a child you believe eligible please contact the Primary School.

There are three new faces in the teachers department this year: Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Hawkins.

The First Grade Teachers: are: Mrs. Neuenschwander; Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Summey and Miss Carnegie. There is a total enrollment of 162 First Gra-

The Second Grade Teachers are: Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Hendon, Mrs. Emery, Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. White. There are 131 Second Graders.

The Third Grade Teachers are: Mrs. Glenn, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Morris, Miss Elders and Miss Edwards. The Third Grades number 154.

The "Seniors", Fourth Grades have as their teachers: Mrs. Early, M. Wratt, Mrs. Skid-more and Mrs. Thompson. There are 134 "Seniors."

Mr. Benny Nelon will be children in their transition to a back as Custodian and Bus

Mrs. Knight will again be

Miss Ruth Gilbert is the school Librarian.

Clifford R. Scott

Scott Appointed Asst. Mgr.

Clifford R. Scott has been appointed Assistant Manager of radio station WFGW in Black Mountain, according to WFGW's new General Manager, Dick Jensen. A native North Carolinian, Scott came to WFGW in 1967 from a radio station in California. Scott lives with his wife and four children on Old Ridgecrest Highway in Black Mountain. Scott is a Sunday School teacher and Vice-President of the Black Mountain Ki-

Jensen also announced that Dave Pelletier will serve as Program Director for WMIT, the FM station operated by Blue Ridge Broadcasting Corporation and R. J. Kennedy will be Director of News and Sports for WFGW/WMIT. Both men are presently employed by the stations.

While no personnel changes are planned under the new management, Jensen said there would be some program changes effective September 1. The revised program schedule is outlined elsewhere in today's pa-

A pienic for staff and families of Blue Ridge Broadcasting Corporation was held Sunday afternoon, August 24 at

Owen Probable Starting Line-up

No. 23 - OPEN DOOR, an oil

Valley Artists Work On Display

Richard Vankleek, Director of the Asheville Art Museum,

Critic and Columnist, juried

the second annual Swannanoa Valley Art League show which opened to the public Sunday.

He previewed the 42 paintings by 24 local artists and chose the ten best paintings which he had been asked to select. He eleventh, commenting "this is a quality show and a most interesting one." There are also seven Honorable Mentions. The man of the Exhibition Commit-are listed in their numerical number in the show, and the

No. 1 - ALONG ABOUT SUN-

DOWN, a Primitive in temera by Beulah Jones of Haw Creek.

pressionist painting in oils by

Clara Lundie Crawford, Black

No. 7 - IMPRESSION - -

Nos. 11 and 12, each an

ABSTRACT in oils by Edith

Cook of Christmount, Black

No. 17 - - BREAK OF LIGHT,

No. 21 - - ABSTRACT in acrylics by Mary H. Gilbert, Black a watercolor by Ruth B. Patton, Morganton.

CATHEDRAL, an Impressionist painting in acrylics by Olive Granger, Black Mountain.

No. 2 - UNTITLED, an Ex-awards went to:

The Blue Ribbon paintings

No. 25 - FIREWORKS, a media by Clara Mulloy of Black

No. 28 - CLEARING, an Impressionist painting in oils by said he simply had to add an Will Nell Davidson of Swan-

That eleventh painting award went to Bonnie Ray of Black hanging of the paintings is a Mountain for an Abstract work of art itself and credit painting titled BOXES. goes to Olive Granger, chair-

Honorable mentions went to by Kathryn Muellich, Asheville. Annie Louise Riddle for EVE-NING SAILS, Shirley Barker for MAGNOLIA, Mary H. Gilbert representational in mixed for GENESIS 1:13, Olive Granger for DULCIMER MOTIF, Clara Lundie Crawford for another UNTITLED, and to Ruth B. Patton for SPRING.

> The show may be seen during library hours through September 6th. However, the Black Mountain Library will be closed Labor Day. This is a show worth

Beacon League Slugger

Dale Fender

The leading hitter for the Beacon Little League Teams was Dale Fender. Dale had a season average of .571. He was also home run champ with six home runs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fender of the

Beacon Babe Ruth Slugger

OFFENSIVE TEAM Left to right - - LE, Bill Hoffman; LT, Mike Coston; LG, Gary Massey; C, Larry Harris; RG, Stan Reese; RT, Mark Fender; RE, Al Petty, QB, Jed Osteen; LHB, Donnie Haynes; FB, Tommy Hensley; RHB, Mike Rice.

DEFENSIVE TEAM

Left to right - - LE, Al Petty; LT, Mark Fender; LG, David Hensley; RG, Mike Kitchen, RT, Mike Coston; RE, Gary Massey; LB, Stan Reese; Left Corner Back, Donnie Haynes; Right Corner Back, Bill Hoffman; Left Safety, Bruce Putnam; Right Safety,

Bobby Ferguson

Bobby Ferguson was the leading hitter for the Babe Ruth League of Beacon. Bobby had a season average of .444.
Bobby lives at the Presbyterian Home for Children.

Mrs. Lathrop To Introduce Books

Mrs. Virginia Lathrop will introduce some of this year's new books to the Friends of the Black Mountain Library on Wednesday, September 3, at 10:30 at the Library. Mrs. Lathrop has performed this service for the Friends ever since the formation of the Friends of the Black Mountain Library. It will be an excellent opportunity for those who enjoy keeping up with the latest fiction and non-fiction to select books for their fall and winter reading. Many of these books are already available at the Library.

Mrs. Lathrop is an outstanding journalist. She has been a reporter, a reviewer of books. and feature writer for the Ashe ville Citizen, the Raleigh News & Observer, the New York Evening Post, the London Daily Express, and the Paris Edition of the New York Herald. She is well known in educational circles. She established and directed the News Bureau of the University of North Carolina-Greensbore. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, Mrs. Lathrop resides with her husband in Asheville where she has served as President of the Asheville Friends of the Library.

It is a privilege to welcome back Mrs. Lathrop. The Friends of the Library invite and urge all interested persons in the community to come to this meeting and come early for a social hour which will precede the meeting.

Rowlands Appointed Missionaries

Dr. and Mrs. W. Russell Rowland

r. and Mrs. W. Russell physical, emotional, and spiritand, students at New Or-(La.) Baptist Theological ary, were appointed misaries to Tanzania on August uring a special meeting of Southern Baptist Foreign sion Board at Glorieta (N. Baptist Assembly. He oin the staff of the Baptist tal in Mbeya, Tanzania.

r. Rowland, a lieutenant el in the U. S. Army, has ned as chief of the departof medicine, U. S. Army tal, Specialized Treatment Fr. Fort Gordon, Ga., ef-September 1. He was assistant clinical profesmedicine in the Medillege of Georgia, Augusta, moving to New Orleans summer. They had lived ort Cordon about one year. lifework purpose is to be de of Jesus Christ and to ler to the total man, the needs of mankind," Dr. Rowland told the Foreign Mission Board, "I want to share with others the way to new life and hope I have found through faith in Christ."

Born in Asheville, N. C., Dr. Rowland grew up in nearby Black Mountain. Mrs. Rowland, the former Betty Ausborn, was born in Russellville, Ala., and reared in Sylacauga. She told the Board that she and her husband publicly acknowledged their decision to seek a foreign mission vocation in August 1956 during a foreign mission conference at Ridgecrest (N. C.) Baptist Assembly. They were newlyweds at the time, having first met at Ridge-crest two summers before. Dr. Rowland received the bachelor of science degree from Wake Forest College (now University), Winston - Salem, N.C.

and the doctor of medicine degree from the School of Medicine, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He interned and served his residency in the University of Alabama hospital in Birmingham.

After entering the U.S. Army in 1961, Dr. Rowland worked in Army medical centers in Bad Aibling, Germany, San Antonio, Texas, and Fort Polk, La. While he was stationed at Fort Polk, Mrs. Rowland received the bachelor of arts degree from Howard College (now Samford University), Birmingham, Ala. She taught elementary grades in the public schools of Durham, N. C., and Birmingham before Dr. Rowland entered the Army and they went to Germany.

Accompanying them to Tanzania will be their three children, Karin Elizabeth, 7 1/2, Rosalind Elise, nearly four, and Wade Russell, Jr., two.

the team. Most important they are playing and working as a TEAM." "We have a lot of young boys. they lived in De Ridder, La. There are only seven seniors in the fifty-three boys we have out. We have greater depth than we have had for years and have twenty-two boys we

> "The team has had no serious injuries and at this time the whole team is ready to go." Let's all get behind this team and give them our support. Remember Win - Lose - or Tie they're our boys.

feel can play."

"GO WARHORSES"