Valley Girl Is Student In Minnesota

Ruth Lois LaBonte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence LaBonte, 812 Holly Ave., Black Mountain, has enrolled as a freshman at Bethel College, St. Paul, Minn., in one of the largest freshman classes (estimated at 350 plus) ever to enroll at the school.

Ruth is a 1969 graduate of Charles P. Owen High School and a scholastic letter recipient.

Freshmen arrived on campus Sept. 2 to occupy residences and attend a lawn reception for parents and students. Welcome Week for new students, in addition to registration and orientation, included a Freshman Frolic, Wednesday, Sept. 3), banquet at the St. Paul Hilton, Thursday (Sept. 4) and an All-Day Picnic at the new campus site under development in suburban Arden Hills, Saturday (Sept. 6).

Other special features of Welcome Week for parents included an orientation to campus life (Sept. 2-3) led by Dr. Carl Lundquist, president, and Dr. Virgil Olson, dean, and a Wednesday morning breakfast. Parents also toured both the present college campus and the Arden Hills campus where Bethel Theological Seminary relocated in 1965.

Bethel is an accredited, four year liberal arts college, owned and operated by the Baptist General Conference.

GIFT PACKS

To a war-weary G. I., plagued by jungle sores, foot fungus, and foul tasting water, items like First Aid Cream, Medicated Powder and Instant Lemonade are dearer than gold. But, in all wars the foot soldier never seems to get enough of the little things that make life more bearable. Compounding their physical hardships is the frustrating feeling so prevalent among out troops that the folks at home seem to have forgotten. No so to the Black Mountain, 9157 Unit of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, for they voted at their meeting recently to send three Gift Packs.

The contests of the Pac include a Writing Tablet, Self-Seal Envelopes, Pen, Razor Blades, Instant Drinks to flavor bad tasting water, Playing Cards, Toothbrush & Toothpaste, WD-40 Gun Cleaner, and Rust Inhibitor, a Paint Brush, Etc. Gift Packs are $6.00 each which includes packing and shipping by Air Mail. The name of the donor is inserted on a return card inside each Pac.

Mrs. G. C. Babb, Swannanoa, Phone 686-3412, Auxiliary President, invites the reader to join the local unit by sending a check to: VIETNAM GIFT PAC, in care of the local Auxiliary, who will send it through the Ladies Auxiliary Department to its destination in California.

The Gift Pac is a non-profit non-partisan tax exempt corporation. Donations to unnamed persons are tax deductible - but the sender may name the recipient if he desires, reminds Mrs. Babb. However, BE SURE to include with each check the NAME AND ADDRESS of the recipient if so indicated.

Local Educators Go To Convention

Educators from Buncombe County will be among 1,500 persons to meet at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee on Friday, Sept. 19 for the 47th Western District Convention of the North Carolina Education Association.

In Hoey Auditorium, during the General Session of the day-long convention, Dr. A. C. Dawson, NCEA Executive Secretary, will report to the membership on Association activities; and Dr. A. Craig Phillips, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will address the group.

The Western District includes the counties of Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Mitchell, Polk, Swain, Transylvania and Yancey.

In addition to the main program, the seven NCEA district divisions will hold sessions. The divisions are: Classroom Teachers, Community Colleges, Directors of Instruction, Higher Education, Principals, Retired School Personnel, and Superintendents.

The 21 departments hold morning business and instruction meetings. Officers for the following year will be elected by both the divisions and the departments.

Tea & Topic Officers

At the September meeting of the Tea & Topic Club, Mrs. W. W. Phillips was elected president. Other officers for the new year are: Program Chairman, Mrs. Allen Perley III; Secretary, Mrs. Gordon Greenwood; Treasurer, Mrs. Max Woodcock; Book Monitor, Mrs. R. T. Greene.

Plans were made to hold the Fall Rummage Sale October 2, 3, and 4 at a location on Cherry St.

Mrs. Joe Fox, in charge of the evening's program, presented Mrs. Wm. Harper. Mrs. Harper spoke on the beginnings and the struggles of the Day Care Center established by the negro residents of the Cragmont section.

The Center grew from four children to 17. Under one teacher the children were cared for from 7 a.m. until 5 p.m. five days a week. A few volunteers relieved the teacher occasionally.

A hot meal was served the children each day, and a fine program of activities was carried on. Mrs. Harper said that although the parents whose children were cared for paid a weekly fee, the Center could not have managed without the generous help given by local groups and individuals.

She told of the real struggle to obtain the use of Carver School when the fellowship room at Mills Chapel became too small. Finally permission was granted by the County School Board to allow use of the school for the summer only.

The Advisory Board of the Day Care Center decided to close the Center for the time being until they receive word from the County School Board that the empty school can be used. The decision is expected this month.

If permission is granted, the Center will apply for Federal funds to create an approved Day Care Center for all the children whose working mothers need a safe place where their children will receive meaningful care.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed by the group. Those present were: Mrs. R. T. Greene, Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. W. W. Phillips, Mrs. Joe Fox, Mrs. Max Woodcock, Mrs. Richard Oulahan, Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr., Mrs. Allen Perley III, Mrs. Wm. Harper and Mrs. Gordon who entertained the club in her home on Port Man Villa Road.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Osten, Jr., of 117 Mountain Street, Black Mountain, announce the marriage of their daughter, Cynthia Gay to Ted Wayne Luckadoo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady L. Luckadoo of 101 Richmond Avenue, Swannanoa, Saturday, September 13 at Gafney, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of Charles D. Owen High and attended the University of South Carolina at Columbia.

Mr. Luckadoo is also a graduate of Charles D. Owen, and is now attending Western Carolina University, Cullowhee.

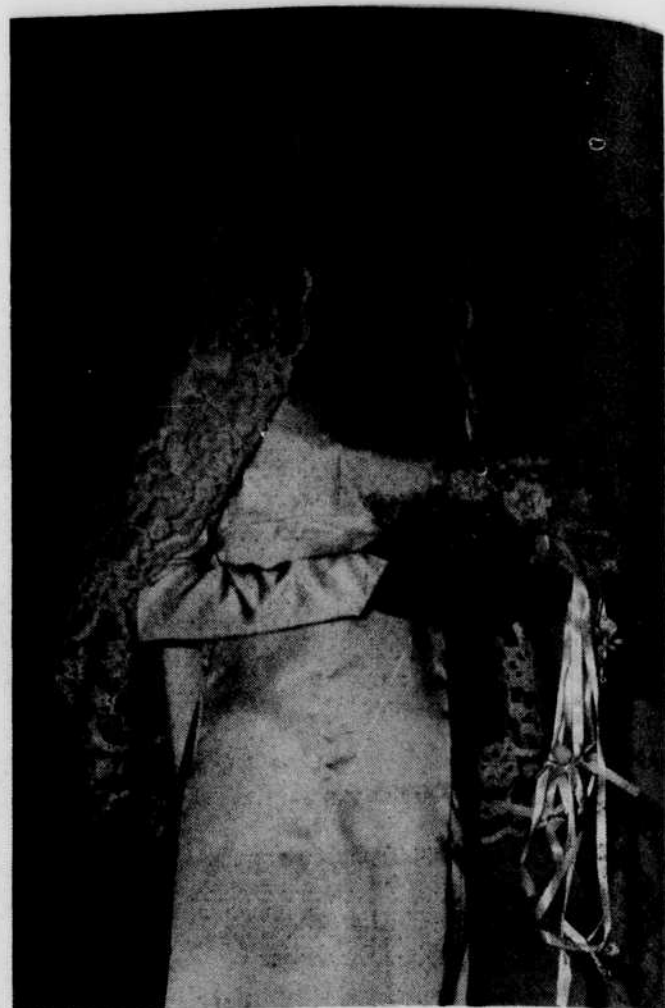

FIRST TAR HEEL

All women like SURPRISES, but the surprise that the women of the State of North Carolina Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars will give MISS ERLINE MAYBERRY of Elkin, on MAYBER 13th should surpass anything any woman could imagine.

Are you wondering why she should be so HONORED? Well, she is the FIRST woman of this great organization from this TAR-HEEL STATE to serve as NATIONAL PRESIDENT of this volunteer organization, and HER HOMECOMING will be held in Winston Salem on this memorable Saturday!!!

National Officers, State Presidents of many of the 50 States, North Carolina Lieutenant Governor Pat Taylor, and other State Dignitaries, as well as several hundred North Carolina people, will attend the gala affair.

Miss Mayberry is a resident of Elkin, North Carolina, and has taken a years leave of absence from her work as Manager of the Chatham Country Store, an outlet store of Chatham Manufacturing Company in order that she may fulfill the duties of this highest office.

MRS. LARRY EDISON BUCHANAN

Vows Spoken

The marriage vows of Miss Sandra Capron Sheffield and S/Sgt. Larry Edison Buchanan were spoken Friday, September 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Black Mountain First Baptist Church. The Reverend Edgar E. Ferrell, pastor, conducted the ceremony.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newton Sheffield of Deerfield Beach, Fla., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white satin with long fitted sleeves. Her chapel length train of white satin was attached to the shoulders of her gown. Both gown and train were appliqued with lace matching her finger tip mantilla of illusion and lace.

She carried a Bible centered with a white orchid and satin streamers. For her traditional something old, the bride carried a handkerchief that was carried by her great-grandmother at her wedding.

Miss Alma Jane Shaw of Columbia, S. C., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were: Miss Linda Dianne Buchanan of Winston-Salem, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Sarah Grace Ligon of Easley, S. C.

The maid of honor wore a princess style gown of gold bonded crepe with a rolled collar and long full sleeves cuffed at the wrist. A floor length train was attached to the shoulders of the gown. Her head dress was of matching gold illusion net. The bridesmaids gowns were made identical to the bride attendant but of moss green crepe.

The gowns of the bride and the attendants were made by Miss Ligon. They all carried single yellow mums with matching satin streamers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison K. Buchanan of Winston-Salem, N. C., are the parents of the groom and Mr. Buchanan served as his son's best man.

Ushers were John Andrew Buchanan, cousin of the groom and Wade Lewis McKiver both of Winston-Salem.

A cake cutting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Moore, 106 View St., Black Mountain, following the rehearsal Thursday evening. Mrs. Moore was assisted in serving by Miss Sherry Sheffield and Mrs. E. E. Miracle.

Both S/Sgt. and Mrs. Buchanan are graduates of Mars Hill College.

The bride has been employed for the past year by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board at Ridgecrest, as a kindergarten teacher for the children of Missionary Appointees at the Orientation Center. She made her home at 109 Old U. S. 70, Black Mountain.

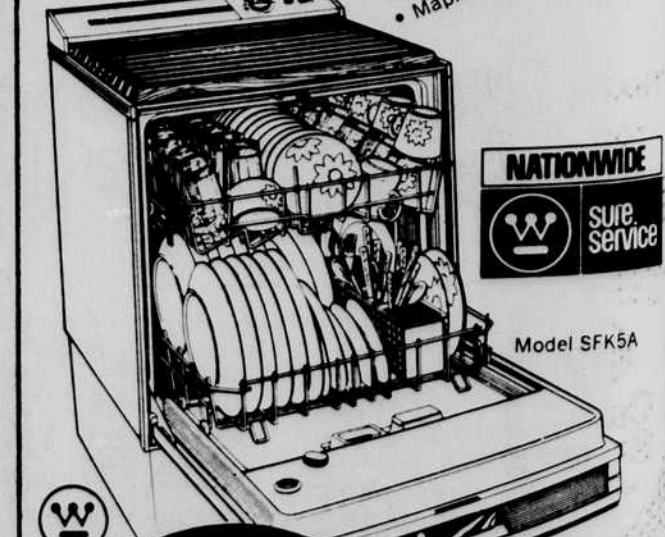

S/Sgt. Buchanan recently returned from a tour of duty with the Air Force in Vietnam.

The couple will make their home at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., where S/Sgt. Buchanan will be stationed.
