Woman's Club Program

On November 12th the Woman's Club of Black Mountain claimed international flavor in three ways:

- 1) Tasty creations of food from many countries had complete attention at a 1:00 p.m. luncheon in Friendship Church.
- 2) Costumes from Pakistan to Africa and Bavaria to Hawaii were real conversation pieces — to say nothing of the gay Puerto Rican hats sported by the luncheon committee!
- 3) The program asked us whether the United Nations is worthwhile. Three panel members highlighted some of the success stories often buried beneath the criticism levied at a Security Council's arguments and vetoes which hold the news headlines.

The program panel, Mrs. Eugene Gilbert, Miss Opal Stamm and Mrs. Hubert White, was aided by "pop-up" people from the audience.

In charge of the luncheon was a committee with Miss Leila Zernow as chairman, assisted by Miss Bessie Zernow, Mrs. Lee Seagle, Mrs. Culver Smith, Mrs. James Jackson and Mrs. Jeter Riddle. They had made the dining room gay with United Nations flags and fall branches for the enjoyment of all.

Tea & Topic

The November business and literary meeting of the Tea and Topic Club was held at the Monte Vista Hotel with Mrs. W. W. Phillips, president, as hostess.

The club voted to give gifts for the patients at W.N.C. Sanatorium at Christmas.

Mrs. Phillips presented a program on the contributions of Negroes to the American way of life. She used as her source "A Pictorial History of the Negro in America" by Langston Hughes and Milton Meltzer.

Mrs. Phillips named many Negroes who have been outstanding in their fields — in science, space technology, engineering, invention, letters, and entertainment. These are the men and women the black school children want to identify with, and lack of such information and teaching in the schools has been one of the main grievances as the black are integrated into the white school system.

Following the program, the hostess served refreshments from a beautifully appointed tea table.

Those present were Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. Richard Oulahan, Mrs. S. S. Cooley, Mrs. Allen Perley III, Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr., Mrs. B. G. Byron, Mrs. Max Woodcock, Mrs. R. T. Greene, and the hostess.
