Valley Couple Wed At Warren Wilson

Miss Elizabeth Ann Garner became the bride of Michael Jerome Curtis at 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 28 in the Warren Wilson College Chapel, Swannanoa. The Reverend Fredrick G. Ohler conducted the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Deal Garner of Swannanoa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Curtis of Black Mountain.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, James

T. Yates of Charlottesville, Va. She wore a white velvet gown with an empire waistline. The waistline was accented by seed pearls. The chapel length train also of velvet was attached at the shoulders and was edged with seed pearls. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a seed pearl tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds.

Miss Mary Carolyn Yates, of Charlottesville, Va., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of Dior pink silk organza over satin. It was fashioned with a high collar of Alencon lace. The lace extended the length of the back panel of the gown. Her headpiece was a crown of Dior pink Alencon lace and a veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

John Martin Miracle of Black Mountain was best man. Ushers were Marshall Clayton Garland and Ronald Frank Watkins, both of Black Mountain.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Charles D. Owen High School and has been a receptionist with Silverman of Asheville. The bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Owen High School and is presently serving as a corporal in the U.S. Marine Corps, Camp Lejeune. He served nine months in the Mediterranean aboard the U.S. Independence.

After a short wedding trip they will reside at Camp Lejeune.

Out of town guests here for the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. James T. Yates, Jim, Lynn and Mary Carolyn of Charlottesville, Va.; and the paternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Alice Garner of West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miss Graham Wed In Montreat Saturday

Miss Ruth Bell Graham, daughter of evangelist Billy Graham and Mrs. Graham, was married here Saturday afternoon to Theodore Alfred Dienert of Rydal, Pa.

The wedding took place at 4:30 p.m. in Gaither Chapel, where the bride's parents, Ruth Bell and William F. Graham, were married 26 years ago.

The Grahams live in a mountaintop home here, not far from the scene of the wedding, and her grandparents, Dr. L. Nelson Bell, a former medical missionary to China, and Mrs. Bell, are also Montreat residents.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dienert of Rydal, Pa., long-time friends of the Graham family, both of whom have been active in the Billy Graham Crusades.

As he did in the weddings of his two other daughters, Dr. Graham gave the bride away and also conducted the ceremony, along with the bridegroom's grandfather, Dr. Theodore Elsnor of Rydal.

The bride, who has completed two years at Gordon College, Boston, Mass., entered the chapel with her father. She wore a traditional wedding gown of candlelight pea de soie with a square, scalloped neckline and long sleeves and white appliqued with Alencon lace. With it she wore a full-length mantilla.

Her sister, Anne, now Mrs. Daniel M. Lotz of Chapel Hill, who was also married in Gaither Chapel, was her matron of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Marilyn Dienert, was her maid of honor.

Another sister of the bride, Mrs. Stephan Tchividjian of Montreat and Switzerland, the former Virginia Graham, was among the seven bridesmaids.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Barrows of Greenville, S. C., daughter of the Rev. Cliff Barrows, the evangelist's associate; Miss Myrtle Hall of Greenville, a soloist for the Graham Crusades; Mrs. Darlene Crumley of Philadelphia, Pa., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Pem Cole of Zellwood, Fla., a former high school roommate of the bride; and Miss Dorothy Mayell of Montreat.

George Beverly Shea, a soloist with the Crusades, and Miss Hall were soloists for the

Finals In Community Contests

Hundreds of rural and civic leaders from throughout Western North Carolina will be on hand in the Asheville City Auditorium on Saturday, Dec. 6 at 12 noon for the 20th annual awards meeting of the Asheville Agricultural Development Council.

Highlight of this event will be the announcement of the top winners of the Western North Carolina Community Development Program for 1969.

The Honorable H. P. Taylor, Jr. of Wadesboro, Lieutenant Governor, will be the speaker.

Representing Buncombe County in the area finals were Beech in Division "B" (75-150 families); and Newfound in Division "C" (over 150 families). Care Creek was the county representative in the finals of the youth program.

Library Has Story Hour For Children

Story Hour was held on Wednesday, December 3, in the children's room of the Black Mountain Public Library. Pre-schoolers met at 10:00 a.m. with Mrs. Fred A. Smith, Jr., and youngsters in grades 1-6 met at 3:00 p.m. with Mrs. Dom Underwood. Each session lasted one hour.

The program featured Christmas stories and legends from around the world. An edible surprise treat was given to each child to take home at the conclusion of the program.

Swannanoa Woman's Club

The American Home Department of the Swannanoa Women's Club met on Monday, Nov. 24, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Blaine. Co-hostess was Mrs. Buford Lowe.

After a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Benjamin Brigman, vice-chairman, a program was presented by Mrs. Rhoda Riddle, formerly of Riddle's Flower Shop in Black Mountain. Her audience was fascinated by the beautiful Christmas decorations and gifts she had made and her explanations about how she had made them.

Two new members were welcomed into the club, Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. Roy Franklin.
