

MRS. GEORGE ROBERT COCHRAN
...former Sharon Louise Quinn

Quinn-Cochran

Miss Sharon Louise Quinn and George Robert Cochran were united in marriage Friday, Feb. 25 in a candlelight ceremony by the Rev. Charles Duycks, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burgin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinn of Black Mountain.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran of Black Mountain.

The bride wore a street length dress of white polyester with a shoulder length veil of illusion attached to a crown of seed pearls and carried a white bible covered with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Joan Jarvis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of green taffeta and lace and carried a nosegay of red carnations.

Bobby Hall of Black Mountain was best man.

Mrs. Cochran attended Owen High School, and Western Academy of Hair Design.

Mr. Cochran attended Owen High School and is employed at Pine Valley in Old Fort.

The couple will make their home in Black Mountain.

Fine Arts Festival Junior Women Place In Federation Competition

Thirteen members of the Black Mountain-Swannanoa Junior Woman's Club and two student contestants from Owen High School, whom the Club sponsored, attended the District Two of the N. C. Federation of Women's Club Fine Arts Festival at Brevard College on Saturday, Mar. 11.

Several members received ribbons for their entries at the festival. Mrs. Robert Parvin was awarded a first first place blue ribbon for her entry in Needlework, Applique and Beading. A red ribbon for second place went to Mrs. Brent Smith for her pottery entry and Mrs. John Bolten received third place honors for her Needlepoint Clutch purse. Mrs. Jim Aycock received a certificate for having won first place in the district for a newspaper article on club activity.

The student representatives also received honors. Miss Susan Marler was presented a five dollar certificate for second place in competition for the Sally Southall Cotton Scholarship award. Mark Summit was awarded third place for his drum solo, "Rhythmmania".

The Club had a total of 11 entries in crafts, one in music, two in sewing, one article and one scholarship entry.

Mrs. Joseph Williams was the Club Chairman for the Fine Arts Festival and Mrs. Charles Ray was the District Two Chairman for the Public Speaking Contest.

MISS HEDRICK
Engaged

Mrs. Jack Hobby Hedrick, of Raleigh, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Leslie Ruth Hedrick, to Bruce Douglas Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis Morris, Jr., of Black Mountain. Miss Hedrick is also the daughter of the late Mr. Hedrick.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Hardbarger Business College here. Her fiance is attending Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte. Miss Hedrick is employed by Manpower, Inc.

A June 11 wedding is planned.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

For regular exercise (so essential to good health) don't rely on will power which, as one doctor says, "lasts about two weeks and is soluble in alcohol". Exercise can also be fun, with sports and games you enjoy such as swimming, hiking, bicycling, volleyball, badminton — yes, even ping-pong. A daily brisk walk is most healthful.
