MRS. ANTHONY SAPP
...the former Miss Teresa Freeman

Miss Helen Elizabeth Graham of Black Mountain became the bride of Donald Neal Ross of Murrells Inlet, S.C., at 3 p.m. Saturday, October 30, 1976 in the formal gardens of In-the-Oaks Episcopal Conference Center in Black Mountain. The Rev. Richard G. Shelor performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jolls Graham of Black Mountain. She attended the University of South Carolina at Columbia and Salisbury State College in Maryland. She is employed by Inlet Nursery in Murrells Inlet.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Chauncey Ross of Taylors, S.C. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in horticulture from Clemson University. He is president of Inlet Landscaping, Inc., Murrells Inlet.

Miss Susan Louise Graham of Bamberg, S.C., was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sybil Ann Ross of Taylors, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Ann Graham of Black Mountain, sister of the bride.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Macon Alexander Clark of Murrells Inlet, James Liston Wells of Aynor, S.C., and Charles Herbert Graham of Bamberg, brother of the bride.

A reception followed at Goldmont Club House.

Miss Teresa Leola Freeman became the bride of Anthony Wayne Sapp of Swannanoa in a ceremony in St. George's Episcopal Church Sunday, October 31, 1976.

The Rev. Victor V. McGuire Jr. officiated. The bride made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Leola P. Sullivan at 264 Montford Ave., Asheville. She was given in marriage by her brother, Charles Addison Freeman.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mac Sapp of Swannanoa and his father was best man.

Mrs. Becky Pruitt of Asheville was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Paula Jones of Clinton, Colleen Dillon of Asheville, Susan Sapp, sister of the bridegroom, and Debbie Rankin.

Ushers were Mitchell Sapp, brother of the bridegroom, Donnie Snye and David Rankin of Asheville, Rodney Ledbetter, Harold Clay, and Charles Blackwelder, all of Concord.

A reception was held at Hilton Inn.

The bride is a fourth year student at the University of North Carolina at Asheville and the bridegroom is a graduate of Mars Hill College.

Mr. and Mrs. Sapp will live in Weaverville.

Black Mountain Garden Club Plans Christmas Party

The Black Mountain Garden Club, a branch of the B. M. Woman's Club, will meet with Mrs. Willard K. Weeks at 112 Daugherty St. at 10 a.m. on Nov. 15.

This is the Christmas party and it will be a "Show and Tell" party for the holidays as members will be bringing decorations they have made to use in decorating their homes for the holidays. They will also share the secrets of how and from what they were made.

Mrs. Harriet Styles will also give a demonstration program and instructions on "Making And Growing Terrariums." Members are asked to bring their containers and also any materials they use such as plants, moss, etc. Mrs. Styles will also have extra material available.

This is the last meeting before the holidays and all members are urged to attend.

Pilot Club News

The annual joint meeting of the Pilot Clubs of Black Mountain, Asheville, and Hendersonville was held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 28 at the Hendersonville Country Club. Hosting this meeting was the Pilot Club of Hendersonville with Mrs. Loretta Kilpatrick, president, presiding. Mrs. Kilpatrick introduced Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, president, Asheville Pilot Club and Mrs. Ruth Harris, president of the Black Mountain Pilot Club.

Under the glow of glittering chandeliers and flickering candlelight, fifty members and their guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner. Everyone enjoyed the Halloween atmosphere created by the centerpieces on the tables which consisted of pumpkins, squash, apples and brilliantly colored autumn leaves. Eight members and one Co-Pilot attended from the Pilot Club of Black Mountain. A delightful and entertaining highlight of the evening were the musical selections furnished by Pat Corn, guitar and John Gage, trumpet.

Following the entertainment, a fellowship time was enjoyed by all the Pilots.

Needle Me

Everyone loves that special touch at Christmas. Especially in decorative table settings. Needle Me has just received, in plenty of time for you to finish for Christmas partying or gala family events, place mats, napkins and aprons with Christmas designs to be done in cross-stitch. All are of bright Christmas red perma prest materials.

They'll take just a short time to make and will add so much to your Christmas cheer. Come see us at Needle Me...the time is drawing nigh.

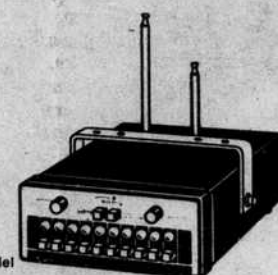

Do not over-fertilize house plants. Two or three times a year is usually enough.
