

Colleen Massey, 5, and Aaron Ellison, 4, from Montreat Morning School learn how their bones work from a real skeleton at the Health Adventure.

Health an adventure for area students

by Cynthia Reimer

Do you know what happens if you are four years old and don't brush your teeth?

Montreat Morning School students got the answer to that question at the Health Adventure last Friday when they visited on a field trip.

"If you don't brush your teeth," Director Nancy Norris told the children, displaying a giant tooth with a cavity, "Mr. Worm Germ will crawl on them."

The Health Adventure presents hands-on health program for pre-schoolers through senior citizens. Exhibits include an operating room where children can dress up as doctors and nurses and handle surgical instruments, a real skeleton which rides a bicycle, and a light show depicting how the senses deliver messages to the brain. There are 11 programs in all, all dealing with nutrition, emotions, reproduction and other aspects of health.

Other classes visiting the Health Adventure Friday were Mrs. Lewis' and Mrs. Emery's third graders from Black Mountain Primary School. The programs they selected were on the environment and nutrition.

The Health Adventure, founded in 1966, is located in the MAHEC building near Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville. Group and individual tours are available for 50 cents for children and $1 for adults.

In the operating room, each child dons a surgeon's mask and makes believe with a doll on the operating table and real surgical instruments.

Jacque Penick asks third graders to hold their breath in a program on environment.

Revival in Swannanoa

Revival services are now in progress at the Swannanoa Church of God and will continue through this Sunday evening at 7 p.m. with the exception that the Sunday evening service begins at 6 p.m.

The evangelist is the Rev. Dennis Pitts of Blowing Rock. This Friday the Woods family singers of Bryson City will be guest singers.

The church is located on the corner of Wilson and Grove-mount. The public is invited to attend.

Store to give away pick-up

Three in one family receive degrees

Kenneth L. and Michael W. Kilby, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kilby of Black Mountain, were among the May 8 graduates of Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, N.C. Michael's wife, Prudence Kilby, also graduated from the college May 8th.

Kenneth completed requirements for a bachelor of science degree. He majored in engineering studies at Pfeiffer and is now attending Georgia Tech as the continuation of its "dual degree" program with Pfeiffer. He is a 1972 graduate of Owen High School.

Michael also received a bachelor of science degree. He majored in biology-pre-medicine. Michael is a 1974 graduate of Owen High School.

Prudence is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Swain of Salisbury. She received a bachelor of science degree cum laude, majoring in accounting and mathematics.

Stop Rate Roulette.

Lately, when you invest in a Short-Term Certificate, it's a little like buying a ticket on a roller coaster.

Maybe the rates will be going down; maybe they'll be going up. Nobody seems to be sure of anything.

15.00% Guaranteed To 1985.

*Yield based on 13.79% annual rate, compounded daily. Substantial penalty for early withdrawal. All depositors insured up to $100,000 by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Rates and yields on new certificates are subject to market conditions and may change periodically without notice.

But, starting now, there is a way to be sure of the rate you'll get for the next 3 1/2 years.

It's NCNB's new 3 1/2 Year Certificate. And, as you can see, it now offers you a very nice rate.

What's more, you don't need a lot of money to get it. Start with as little as $500. Then, unlike other CDs, you can add to your investment during the first 12 months, earn the rate we're paying then, without changing the maturity date.

So, with all those things going for you, why gamble?

For all the details on the new 3 1/2 Year Certificates, the new NCNB Individual Retirement Account, Tax Saver Certificates, and other smart ways to invest, just stop in at any NCNB office and talk it over. The sooner that you do, the sooner you can start taking advantage of the best savings in the neighborhood.
