

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Pinky's Drive-in to hold '50's style dance

An Elvis look-alike, the Perkiest Ponytail and jitterbug contests will highlight the 1950's style dance to be held at the Carver Optional School this Saturday, March 26, from 8 p.m. until midnight.

Tickets are available from a Carver parent or at the door for only $2.50 per person. Refreshments will be served, but no alcoholic beverages will be allowed.

Music will be provided by Heartwood for the Silver Lining Sock Hop.

Proceeds will be used for projects to enrich the curriculum.

For further information, call 298-9394 from 6-9 p.m.

'Music Man' tickets to go on sale

Thespian Troupe 2294 will sponsor, Music Man by Meridith Wilson, Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3, in the Owen High School auditorium. (The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m.)

Tickets for the show only are $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students.

On Monday, May 2, a dinner will precede the show. The dinner will begin at 6 p.m. Tickets for the dinner and show are $5.00 for adults and $3.50 for students. Tickets for the dinner will go on sale Monday, April 4.

All tickets may be purchased at O.H.S., from any drama student or from Mrs. Peggy Boring.

Chinese cooking class set

A Chinese cooking class will be held on Thursdays for six weeks beginning on April 14 and ending on May 19. Each session will run from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m. and will be held in the Swannanoa Club House.

The teachers will be Peter Chu and Sandra Brooks. The cost is $35 per person and includes instruction, food and an evening meal each class.

For further information or to register, call 669-7856 after 5 p.m. The class enrollment will be limited to 20.

Walk America to benefit March of Dimes

In what has been called the largest walking event in history, people all across the country will take part in the March of Dimes Walk-America. In Asheville, the annual 20-kilometer walk against birth defects will take place on Saturday, March 26.

An estimated 3,000 walkers from the Asheville area will participate. In addition, teams of employees from restaurants, banks, health care facilities, schools, government, private businesses and industries will take part in the TeamWalk component.

Businesses with branches located in the Swannanoa Valley that are taking part include: Northwestern Bank, NCNB, Asheville Federal S & L, Holiday Inn-East, Hardees and the U.S. Postal Service.

Republicans met at Christmount

The Black Mountain Precinct No. 4 Republicans met on Tuesday, March 15 at 7 p.m. at Christmount Assembly. The purpose of this meeting was to formulate ideas for Precinct organization. Future plans include picnics, topic discussions, letter campaigns and organization for the '84 campaigns.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, April 18, at Christmount Assembly. For further information, call 669-2084.

Earth sheltered housing seminar set

The Asheville Regional Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction is sponsoring a seminar on Earth Sheltered Housing on Saturday, March 26 at A-B Tech in Asheville.

The featured speaker will be Lon B. Simmons whose Missouri based firm has built earth sheltered homes in 23 states.

A tour of one of Mr. Simmons' homes, with transportation included, is part of the program. Other areas covered by the seminar will include financing, plans, permits, site selection, and a broad spectrum of construction matters.

Proceeds from the seminar will be used in part for educational scholarships for women interested in different phases of construction.

For further information or reservations, call 704-254-6350.

'Going Baroque' to play at WWC

A concert of the music of Johann Sebastian Bach will be given on Sunday, March 27, at 3:30 p.m. at Warren Wilson College Chapel. Performing will be members of the Asheville ensemble Going Baroque, joined by members of a new group, the Carolina Concerto Players and other guest artists.

General admission is $4; students and senior citizens, $3. This concert is sponsored in part by a Grassroots Grant from the Community Arts Council. Other sponsors are Warren Wilson College and Warren Wilson Presbyterian Church.

Werner John, graduate of Warren Wilson College and a Swannanoa resident, will host the concert.

Poor Man's Supper scheduled

The Buckeye Cove Community Club will have a Poor Man's Supper Friday, March 25, from 5-8 p.m. at the Community Center on Buckeye Cove Road.

The cost is $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. Proceeds will be used for the building fund.

Everyone is invited. Call 298-7809 for further information.

Camp Easter-in-the-Pines to operate

Camp Easter-in-the-Pines is a program facility of the N.C. Easter Seal Society. It is located in the Sandhills and is fully accessible and offers handicapped campers activities not usually available to them.

No one is denied the opportunity to attend because of color, race, religion, sex, place of birth or ability to pay.

Camp sessions are arranged by age groups and last each Sunday through Friday beginning in early June and ending in early August.

For further information and applications call toll free 1-800-662-7119 or write Badger Landolt, Program Director, Camp Easter, Route 3, Box 217-D, Carthage, N.C., 28327.

AA groups meet at St. James

Three Alcoholics Anonymous groups meet at St. James' Episcopal Church on Vance Ave. in Black Mountain. Two groups of men and women meet at 8 p.m., one every Monday evening and the other on Thursdays. A women's group meets each Wednesday at noon. All meetings are in the parish hall.

Swannanoa Methodists to observe Holy Week

The two congregations of Tabernacle and Swannanoa United Methodist churches will be observing Holy Week (March 27-31) with special evangelistic services at 7:30 p.m. each evening. Services will alternate each night beginning at Swannanoa United Methodist Church on Sunday, March 27.

The Reverend Clyde L. White, pastor of Salem United Methodist Church, Morganton, will be the guest evangelist.

Special Easter music to be sung

An Easter musical, THE DAY HE WORE MY CROWN, by David Clydesdale will be sung by the Adult Choir of Swannanoa First Baptist Church at 501 Park St. on Sunday, March 27, for the 11 a.m. worship service.

The choir is under the direction of Dan E. Snyder. The organist is Ann Blankenship, the pianist is Pam Brown, and the narrator is Jim Thomas.

The public is cordially invited.

MYF to have car wash

There will be a car wash at the parking lot of the Black Mountain Methodist Church on Saturday, March 26 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

There will be a minimum charge of $3 for the exterior of a car. The event is sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship as a fund raiser.

Portion of Blue Ridge Parkway to be closed

Blue Ridge Parkway Superintendent Gary Everhardt has announced that the section of Parkway from Wagon Road Gap at Mile Post 411.8 to Beech Gap at Mile Post 423.4 will be closed for traffic from March 21 to April 8. This three-week closure is necessary, Mr. Everhardt said, so maintenance crews can clear the roadway and roadsides of downed timber which resulted from winter storm damage.

WWC to have lecture on nuclear weapons

Simon Bourgin

Simon Bourgin, noted correspondent, Science and Technology Advisor for the State Department and other government agencies, and Woodrow Wilson Fellow, will present a lecture entitled "Controlling Nuclear Weapons: The Debate in U.S. and Europe," on Tuesday, March 29 at 8 p.m. in the Bannerman Lecture Hall at Warren Wilson College.

Before joining the State

Department, Bourgin served as Deputy Director of Public Affairs with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Bourgin has been chief of Newsweek's Los Angeles bureau. He has worked as a foreign correspondent for Time and Life, covering eastern Europe and reported for NBC and CBS at different times during the same period.

The lecture is open to the public. Admission is free.

'Alleluia' to be sung in Old Fort

A reunion choir consisting of present and many former choir members of the First Baptist Church of Old Fort will perform "Alleluia" by Gaither at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, March 27.

The public is invited.

Appalachian Music classes to be at WWC

The Community Arts Program at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa, will offer classes for the general public this spring in intermediate guitar, fiddle, and bluegrass banjo taught by Wayne Erbsen, Director of the Appalachian Music Program at Warren Wilson. Teaching intermediate dulcimer will be Don Pedit. Also being offered is a new class on the bass fiddle, taught by Bob Willoughby. These classes run for eight weeks and are designed for those with only slight experience with these instruments.

Classes are held in the Kittredge Community Arts Building on the campus and last one hour.

For more information and registration, call the Music Department at Warren Wilson College at 298-3325, ext. 228 or 225.

CPR course to be held

A Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation Course (CPR) will begin at Red Cross Chapter Headquarters, 100 Edgewood Road, Asheville on Friday, March 25 at 8 p.m. in the Kittredge Community Arts Center on the Warren Wilson campus. The concert is free and open to the public.

The musical duo are being sponsored by the Fourteenth Annual Swannanoa Chamber Festival. Among the selections to be performed are the Sonata in C major by Mozart and Rhapsody for Clarinet and Piano by Debussy.

This March concert is a preview for the Festival's summer series which will run from July 7-August 7. For more information on the Festival, contact Warren Wilson College at 704-298-3325, extension 228.

Health Fair '83 set

TV13 HEALTH FAIR

Ruth Geiger

Musical duo to perform classical program

Ruth Geiger, pianist, and Frank Ell, clarinetist, will perform in concert on Friday, March 25 at 8 p.m. in the Kittredge Community Arts Center on the Warren Wilson campus. The concert is free and open to the public.

The musical duo are being sponsored by the Fourteenth Annual Swannanoa Chamber Festival. Among the selections to be performed are the Sonata in C major by Mozart and Rhapsody for Clarinet and Piano by Debussy.

This March concert is a preview for the Festival's summer series which will run from July 7-August 7. For more information on the Festival, contact Warren Wilson College at 704-298-3325, extension 228.

Church of God to sponsor Flea Market

The Black Mountain Church of God will be having a Flea Market on Saturday, March 26 from 9 a.m. until... The sale of assorted items will be held at the church which is located on Northfork Road. The sale will be held in the Fellowship Hall if it is a rainy day.

All proceeds from the sale will go to the general funds of the church.

I LIKE CALLING NORTH CAROLINA HOME

1-6 p.m.

Maundy Thursday service to be in Swannanoa

A special Maundy Thursday Communion Service will be held at the Swannanoa Valley Presbyterian Church in the Government section of Swannanoa on Thursday, March 31 at 7 p.m.

The pastor, the Rev. Daniel D. Sulc, invites the people of the surrounding communities to attend.

A-B Tech to hold GED graduation

A-B Tech is planning a graduation ceremony April 15 for individuals who received their GED during 1982, either at A-B Tech or at the Alcohol Rehabilitation Center. Any 1982 GED recipient who has not received an invitation should contact either Katie Davis or Jean Robbins at A-B Tech, 254-1921.

Social Security speakers are available

Social Security has speakers available for group meetings,

Problems of grieving parents addressed at WWC

Laurie Ivler, Director of the Social Work Program at Warren Wilson College will speak on "The Death of a Child: Effects on the Living" as part of the continuing staff lecture series Monday, March 28 at 8 p.m. in Bannerman Hall on the WWC campus.

Ivler first became interested in this topic while working with terminally ill children and their families on the pediatric ward at Duke University Medical Center where she worked from 1974-1977. Since then, she has become involved with an Asheville group, Compassionate Friends, which offers support to grieving parents and is staffed entirely by volunteer parents who have lost children.

Ivler's talk will focus on the social systems that affect parents who have lost children including the response of family and siblings, the health care community, schools, and the religious community to the death of a child. She will also discuss the Kubler-Ross stages of grief, and some of the ways family and friends can help grieving parents through acceptance and support.

There will be no admission charge and the lecture is open to the public.

Nemenyi relatives sought

Personal: Peter Nemenyi attended Black Mountain College in 1947-8. He is now critically ill in Nicaragua and the American Embassy there is trying to ascertain the whereabouts of his family.

If anyone in the community has such knowledge, they are urged to contact Brian Joiner at 1124 Edgehill Drive, Madison, Wisconsin, 53705, immediately or The Black Mountain News who can contact Mr. Joiner by telephone.

FAVORITE PAINTS... FAVORABLE PRICES

$9.99

It's Famous for a Reason: Quality!

- Beautiful, scrubbable flat finish
- Easy water clean-up
- Hundreds of popular colors

$10.99

$11.99

For Rich Wood Beauty, Naturally!

- Rustic colors for siding, shingles, decks or fencing
- Solid colors highlight wood texture
- Semi-transparent shades enhance grain beauty
- Oil-based to penetrate and protect wood

10% OFF ALL PAINT & HARDWARE SUPPLIES

SPECIAL PRICE 5 GAL. DRIVEWAY SEALER 9.50

BLACK MOUNTAIN PAINT CENTER

Hwy. 70 East Black Mountain 669-6091

retirement seminars to provide information and assistance on Social Security Retirement, Survivors, Disability and Medicare benefits.

To secure a speaker call the Asheville Social Security Office at 253-4845. Ask for Ralph Campbell, Richard Capps or Tom Johnson.

Volunteers needed at A-B Tech

Volunteer tutors are needed in the afternoons to assist adults who are preparing to take the high school Equivalency exam. Tutors would work with lead instructors, primarily in English and math. Please contact Fran Roberts (669-3428) or Jean Robbins (254-1921) if you are interested.

Problems of grieving parents addressed at WWC

Laurie Ivler, Director of the Social Work Program at Warren Wilson College will speak on "The Death of a Child: Effects on the Living" as part of the continuing staff lecture series Monday, March 28 at 8 p.m. in Bannerman Hall on the WWC campus.

Ivler first became interested in this topic while working with terminally ill children and their families on the pediatric ward at Duke University Medical Center where she worked from 1974-1977. Since then, she has become involved with an Asheville group, Compassionate Friends, which offers support to grieving parents and is staffed entirely by volunteer parents who have lost children.

Ivler's talk will focus on the social systems that affect parents who have lost children including the response of family and siblings, the health care community, schools, and the religious community to the death of a child. She will also discuss the Kubler-Ross stages of grief, and some of the ways family and friends can help grieving parents through acceptance and support.

There will be no admission charge and the lecture is open to the public.

Nemenyi relatives sought

Personal: Peter Nemenyi attended Black Mountain College in 1947-8. He is now critically ill in Nicaragua and the American Embassy there is trying to ascertain the whereabouts of his family.

If anyone in the community has such knowledge, they are urged to contact Brian Joiner at 1124 Edgehill Drive, Madison, Wisconsin, 53705, immediately or The Black Mountain News who can contact Mr. Joiner by telephone.