Kingman Brewster, Jr., will speak at the Warren Wilson College commencement on Saturday, May 14.

Dr. Brewster addresses WWC graduates

Kingman Brewster Jr., Ambassador of the United States to the United Kingdom and former Yale University President, will speak at commencement exercises at Warren Wilson College at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 14, at the Warren Wilson College Chapel.

Born in Massachusetts, Brewster received his B.A. degree from Yale in 1941, and continued his education there until 1948, when he received his Bachelor of Laws degree. He joined the Harvard Law School faculty in 1950 where he served until 1960.

Brewster resigned from Harvard to accept an appointment as Provost of Yale University in 1960. He also held the rank of Professor of Law at Yale from 1960 to 1963 and participated in seminars at Yale Law School. In 1963, Brewster was appointed the seventeenth President of Yale University, a post he held until 1977 when he resigned to become Ambassador to the United Kingdom.

Brewster has received many honors and appointments. In 1965, he was appointed a member of the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice. President Lyndon Johnson named Brewster to serve on a special 20-member National Advisory Commission on Selective Service in 1966.

The public is cordially invited to attend graduation ceremonies at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa to hear Kingman Brewster speak.

"Up with People" to perform in Asheville

The energy, the excitement and the entertainment of the "Up With People" show will be available at the Thomas Wolfe Auditorium in the Asheville Civic Center on Friday, May 13, at 8 p.m.

The proceeds from this performance will go to help the work of the American Red Cross. "Up With People" performances have been seen in live concert by over 8 million people in 47 countries.

Featured in the 1982-3 version of the show are the sights and sounds of the 1960's featuring the music of Bob Dylan, the Beach Boys, Diana Ross and the finale of Hair.

Tickets are $7.50 for adults and $5.50 for students and senior citizens. Tickets are on sale now at the Civic center outlets and box office. Fifty cents will be discounted on advance ticket sales.

For additional information, call Martamaria Leal at 258-3888, ext. 211.

John Sawyer, You're why we're here.

That probably doesn't mean much to John. But it doesn't really have to.

Not, at least, until he's a little older. Right now, we're helping his dad set up a college fund. And plan for those unexpected problems that pop into every family's life.

We're here because John's parents and a lot of other people around North Carolina like what we're doing for them.

"You're why we're here." And that's a fact that will be just as important when John's grown up as it is today.
