Berlin Papers Call Attention To The Fact-Difficult to Ascertain.

(By International News Service.)

BERLIN, June 28 .- German papers call attention to the fact that July 8 will be the hundred thousandth Sunday of the Christian era. To ascertain this has been somewhat difficult because it is not definitely known whether the fourth year after - the birth of Christ was a leap year.

During the first fifty years after the reform of the calendar by Julius Caesar the leap years were inserted rather irregularly, but there seems to be no doubt that the year 8 was the first leap year of the present era. Only Great Prudence on the If this theory is correct, July 8 will be the first day of the one, hundred thousandth week since the birth of Christ.

> A PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR OF NEW BERN

Whereas, our country is engaged in war in which the happiness and freedom of our America may be endangered and the present situation the gravest in our history; and

Whereas, our representatives in Congress have determined that all men between 21 and 31 years of age, except such as are exempt for the civil needs of the country shall be first to serve; and Whereas the Government of the State of North Carolina has called for the formation of a volunteer unit of the National Guard of North Carolina to comprise a unit of the Fourth Regiment of the National Guard and assigned to Craven, Pamilico and Jones and Carteret counties the privilege of a Battery of 190 men; and

Whereas, the draft will be made between July and July 15th, 1917, between July and July 15th, 1917, after which no man may select his branch of service and may be placed in foreign ranks;

Now Therefore, I do earnestly recommend that all young men volunteer in our local Battery of Artillery before midnight, June 30th, 1917; and ther, I do earnestly re mend to our women, whose influence over the lives of men is as always the controlling factor for good, that you are appendent to VOLUNTEER.

Further, I do earnestly recom-
