BARTHOLOMEW.

SCULPTOR AUGUSTE BARTHOLOMEW.

The Dedication of the Statue of Liberty.

New York, Oct. 25.—The steamer Le Britannia, carrying the sculptor, Auguste Bartholdi and the distinguished delegates, appointed by the French Government to attend the dedication of the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, arrived too late last evening to land her passengers and too late also to be met by the committee appointed to receive M. Bartholdi and his companions. The steamer remained at quarantine all night, M. Bartholdi and many of her passengers staying up until a late hour, observing all of interest, that could be discerned on shore in the glare of the electric lights. The reception committee consisted of Senator Everts, Levi P. Morton, John Bigelow, Noah Davis, Alfred LeFaire, Joseph Drued, Henry F. Spaullding, Frederick Potts, Richard M. V. Butler, Park Godwin, James W. Parichot, Frederick Couderc, Louis De Bobian, Algeon, Sullivan, Horace White, Whitlow Reid, Jesse Seligman, Percy Payne, Cornelius M. Bliss, Wm. S. Strong, Geo. A. Glanzer, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Daniel F. Appleton, Charles Lavin, T. S. Page, Frederick Billings, Andrew Carnegie, Henry Heats, Joseph Pulitzer, George F. Baker, Richard F. Paul and N. M. Moore. The committee started down the bay from 23rd street at 8:30 a. m. to welcome M. Bartholdi and the other members of the delegation and to bring them ashore. The steamer yacht carried the American and French flags, and attracted much attention as she passed down the bay. Arriving alongside the French steamer, the members of the committee climbed on board, and after the interchange of courtesies, speech-making followed. The French visitors were then transferred to the yacht and they started for the city. Slowing down as she passed Bedloe's Island, received a booming salute from the flagship Tennessee and the training ships, Saratoga, Portsmouth and Jamestown. The visitors turned their observation from the statue to listen to the cannon. As the yacht passed up the river she was greeted by the steam whistles of the ferry boats and other craft on the river. At the 23rd street dock several representatives of the Circle Francais, D. G. D. Harmonie and other French societies were assembled to meet the French visitors. Some slight delay occurred while hand-shaking, and then M. Bartholdi, M. De Lesseps and the other delegates were escorted to carriages and driven to the Hoffman house. At the hotel many prominent Frenchmen called to pay their respects up the river. Tomorrow the French visitors will be given a reception at the Academy of Music.

New York Money and Stock Market.

New York, October 25.—Money closed at 6 per cent. Exchange steady—posted rates 48 1/4 and 48 3/4 for demand. Government firm—currency 68, 128 bid, 48, coupons 128 1/2 bid, 48, coupons 11 1/4 bid. The stock market opened strong and higher, but gradually selling down during the forenoon, leaving all except a few fancy specialties 1/2 to 1 per cent. lower at 12 o'clock than they closed Saturday night. The market continued weak after mid-day, prices went gradually down, touching the lowest figures at the close of business.

A Disastrous Fire in Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., October 25.—A special from Versailles, Mo., says: "A most disastrous fire occurred here last night. It originated in the office of Vaughan & Clark's livery stable, on Newton street, about midnight. No one was in the stable at the time, and when it was discovered the entire building was in flames. Fifteen head of horses were burned to death. The wind was blowing a gale from the southwest and the flames spread rapidly to the business blocks of the city, destroying the City Hall, Masonic Hall, several business houses and some smaller buildings. The loss is $50,000; insurance $1,500."

More Irish Expatriates Fleeed.

CORR, Ireland, Oct. 25.—The Earl of Bradon, Lord Lieutenant of Cork county, has signed the circular of the Irish Defense Union, appealing for donations to continue the work of assisting persons who have been boycotted by the Irish National League, and the adherents of that organization. The circular expresses the belief of the Defense Union that boycotting will increase during the coming winter.

Seriously Shot by a Neighbor's Boy.

LEBANON, Mo., Oct. 25.—Otto Hillig, a farmer living twelve miles from this city, was shot and fatally wounded yesterday afternoon by Charles Molott, the 12-year old son of a neighbor. Young Molott was throwing stones at Mr. Hillig's two little daughters, when they, their father approached and frightened him away. The boy ran to his home, procured a shot gun, returned and fired the charge into Mr. Hillig's body, fatally wounding him.

Cars Destroyed.

New York, Oct. 25.—At 2:30 o'clock this morning two passenger cars of the Northern Railroad, of New Jersey, at New York, were found to be on fire. One of the cars worth $10,000 was totally destroyed, and the other almost ruined. The fire department was at the scene promptly, but were unable to save the property. The cause of the fire is unknown.

A Judge Indicted.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 25.—The Dahlonega Signal states that Judge Jas. Brown, a brother of Senator Brown, has been indicted for having received as a present, a keg of blockaded whiskey, so-called, because the law prohibits its being trafficked in.

Fixing to Visit New York.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The Presidential party to New York to witness the Bartholdi dedication ceremonies has not yet been fully organized nor the transportation arrangements completed. At present it is expected that the President, Secretary Bayard, Secretary Endicott and Secretary Whitney, and Col. Lamont will go. It cannot be learned that Mrs. Cleveland or the ladies of the Cabinet ever contemplated going with the party.

Sham Speculation in Government Property.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 25.—The accounts of the marshals and district attorneys sent to the First Comptroller's office, show a strange condition of affairs in the Southern district of Alabama. The fees of the United States Commissioner, District Attorneys, &c., for the prosecution of negroes for cutting timber from government land and other offenses against the statutes amount to about $125,000, and there is no apparent good resulting from the prosecutions. The offenders are seldom convicted and still more seldom punished. The Treasury officials think the deceptions are encouraged for the sake of fees they afford the prosecutors. A letter to this effect was written to Land Commissioner Sparks by Deputy First Comptroller Garrison and the land office, and Commissioner Sparks has assured the Treasury officials of his determination to prevent prosecutions.

Brutally Insulted by a Negro.

CHICAGO, October 25.—Last night Dora Dolan and Bridget Moran, sisters, and married women, were insulted and accosted by a negro as they were walking along an unfrequented road on their way to Hyde Park station. They passed hurriedly by without replying whereupon the negro came up and kicked Mrs. Dolan in the stomach, throwing her to the ground. He then drew a knife and slashed Mrs. Moran's forehead and knocked her down. He kicked her as he laid her sister on the ground, and ran away towards Englewood. He has not been found. The women were discovered lying in the road unconscious half an hour later, and were carried on a stretcher to a police station. They are badly injured internally.

Will be Called In.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—The published statements to the effect that the new silver certificates will have to be called in because of the bad quality of paper of which they are made, is contradicted by the best authority on such matters in the Treasury Department. The Treasury officials all say that the paper used in making the new certificates is far superior to that used in making the old ten and twenty dollar certificates. That no complaints have yet come to the department about the inferior quality of paper used, and in fact that the new notes are all that could be desired in the way of durability, neatness of design and so forth.

Almost Eaten Alive.

CLEVELAND, O., October 25.—At 10:30 o'clock this morning Rosa, the two-year-old daughter of Henry Deimbork, a saloon keeper, met with a horrible death. She was found alive by a bear. The little one was playing in her father's back yard and climbed over the fence into the yard of a neighbor, a saloon keeper named Kerns, who kept a bear chained in the rear used in making child ventured too near the brute which knocked her down and then began devouring her. The body was horribly mutilated before it could be rescued. The coroner will hold an inquest this afternoon.

Work of the Episcopal Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—In the Episcopal Convention to-day, the committee on Evangelical work reported that they were of the opinion that parish priests should be appointed to undertake mission work, and professors in theological colleges should keep their eyes on young men who are likely to be peculiarly qualified for such work. The convention continued its work upon the revision of the prayer book.

Killed by a Desperado.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Oct. 25.—William Broughton, a young desperado, shot and killed John Whistnert, a prominent Knight of Labor here yesterday afternoon. The parties were engaged in a playful scuffle when Broughton pulled a pistol and fired. Whistnert fell with a hole through his right lung. The murderer was arrested and jailed. The jail was heavily guarded last night, threats of mobbing being freely made.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—A special from Little Rock, Ark., says: "United States Deputy Marshal Faulkner, arrived on the noon train to-day from Newport, Ark., whether he went yesterday to bring in a special messenger from Friday, charged with filling the northwestern portion of this State with spurious coin. Pratt is an old offender, and was in possession of a full outfit of counterfeiters' tools when arrested."

Arrived All Right.

SAULT ST. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 25.—The "Dominion" which was supposed to have foundered in Lake Superior, has arrived all right. Nothing has been heard of the crew of the bark Encke, which foundered in the recent great storm.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

The United States Supreme Court Decides an Interesting Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Supreme Court of the United States rendered a decision to-day in the case of the Walash, St. Louis and Pacific railroad, concerning the people of the State of Illinois, brought up on a writ of error from the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois.

The question presented in this case, as it came to the Supreme Court, was the general subject of the power of the State Legislature to regulate fares and tolls for passengers and freights over railroads within their limits. The specific charge was that the railroad company charged parties in Gilmore, Ills., 25 cents per hundred pounds to transport goods from that place to New York city, and charged other parties in Peoria, Ills., 35 cents per hundred pounds to carry their goods to New York city. The case was tried in several Illinois courts with varying results, until finally the Supreme Court of the State held that this discrimination was in violation of the state laws, and rendered judgment against the company.

The decision of the Supreme Court to-day is in effect that the State law to regulate freight charges cannot apply to interstate traffic, as such application infringes upon the constitutional powers of Congress, and is a damaging restriction of the freedom of traffic. Justice Miller, who delivered the opinion of the court, says on this point: "Of the justice or propriety of the principle which lies at the foundation of the Illinois statute it is not the province of this court to speak. As restricting a transportation which begins and ends within the limits of the State, it may be very just and equitable, and it certainly is the province of the State Legislature to determine the questions, but when it is attempted to apply to transportation through an entire series of States, a principle of this kind, and each State, as of half a dozen States, shall attempt to establish its own rates of transportation; its own methods to prevent discrimination in rates, or to permit it. The deleterious influence upon the freedom of commerce among the States and upon the transportation of goods through the States cannot be over-estimated. That this species of legislation is one which must be—established at all—a general and national character; and cannot be safely and easily remitted to local rules and principles, which demand that if it is a regulation of commerce, as we think we have demonstrated, it is, and as the Illinois court concedes it to be. It must be of that national character, and the regulation can only appropriately be by general rules and principles, which demand that it should be done by the Congress of the United States under the commerce clause of the Constitution. The judgment of the Supreme Court of Illinois is, therefore, reversed, and the case remanded to that court for further proceedings in conformity with this opinion."

A Big Time at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—After the ceremonies at the unveiling of the memorial of the Russo-Turkish war yesterday the Russ attended the officers' lunch. He proposed the toast: "The officers of the Russian army, and said in drinking to you permit me to wish you success and full enjoyment of health in the future."

Lord May's Charleston Fund.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Lord Mayor of London, has received from Mayor Courtney, of Charleston, S. C., a letter expressing the thanks of himself and the people of Charleston for the generous aid supplied to a suffering people through the efforts of his Lordship. The Lord Mayor's Charleston fund has been closed and no further subscriptions will be received.

New York, October 25.—The delegates Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers went into secret session again to-day at 9 o'clock. The entire session was devoted to business matters. The election of officers will take place on Wednesday. Tomorrow the brothers will hold no session but go on an excursion up the Hudson.

A Strike—1,000 Hands Idle.

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 25.—A strike occurred at Edgestone Fruit works to-day on account of a printer's wages not being increased at his request, and the entire works are now stopped—about 1,000 hands being idle thereby.

Weavers on a Strike.

FITCHBURG, Mass., October 25.—Seventy-five weavers, mostly women, at the Cleghams Mills, struck this morning against a reduction of 70 to 80 cents a cut of 50 cents. It is understood that the E. of L. will support them.

ALL OVER NORTH CAROLINA.

Condensed Notes of Incidents, Accidents and Occurrences in North Carolina, Secular, Social and Political.

The county canvass in Catawba is progressing in a very lively manner. Mrs. R. M. Sturdivant died Thursday at her home in Wake county. Her age was 85.

Asheville Citizen: Our tobacco friends are enjoying the present pretty weather which is so favorable for tobacco curing; our farmers who are anxious to sow grain are much-rejoiced. We really wish that all sides could be satisfied.

Wilmington Review: Mr. H. B. Eilers, who has been in gradually declining health for several months, died Friday night, aged 60 years, 9 months and 19 days. Mr. Eilers was a native of the Grand Duchy of Oldenburg, in Germany, and emigrated to this country and settled in Wilmington when a young man; we think in about the year 1850.

Newton Enterprise: President Reinhardt's herd of fine Short-horn cattle were driven through town to the Fair grounds in the early forenoon last Monday and seemed an index to the success and proportion of the whole exhibition. Mr. Reinhardt makes the largest exhibit of stock, Durham cattle and horses, of any man in the surrounding countries, and they are fine indeed.

Raleigh News-Observer: Mr. T. C. Harris, of the department of agriculture, has fine taste as an arranger of exhibits, and in the preparation of the State's display at the Fair has again illustrated the fact. As has been stated, the display of the department of agriculture occupies the entire south wing of the exposition building, a space 33x50. There are 100 tons of material.—Eleven new convicts were received at the penitentiary Friday, one from Davie, four from Vance and six from Durham county.

AMBER WHEAT.

A Superior Quality Introduced in Lincoln County.

Hickory Press.

Mr. W. H. Motz, of Lincoln county, has a superior quality of Amber wheat of which he produced during the past season 46 bushels on an acre of land. He believes he can increase this yield. His theory is that the greatest yield can be produced by thick sowing, and that the perfection of wheat growing can only be reached by allowing one grain of seed wheat to produce one head only of wheat. By a careful selection of land and the sowing of the right kind of seed, so that each seed will have room to germinate and send up a single stalk without stooling, he is confident that the yield of wheat on a single acre can be brought up to one hundred bushels or more per acre, and that this result can be accomplished without excessive fertilization of the soil. These ideas are original, and we believe they deserve the consideration of wheat growers. A farmer can afford to sow three bushels of wheat per acre if he can thereby produce thirty bushels or more.

OLD SOLDIER'S RE-ORGANIZED.

A Joyous Reunion of the Survivors of Company F., 23rd Reg. N. C. Troops.

Hickory Press.

After being disbanded for more than twenty-one years, twenty-four of the survivors of Company F., 23rd Reg. N. C. State Troops met, by invitation of one of their townsmen, A. A. Shuford, Esq., at his home, around the festive board on Wednesday last. The following officers and men answered the roll call: M. L. McCorkle, Captain; G. P. Clay, 2nd Lieutenant; J. M. Leonard, 3rd Sergeant; Barton Baker, Alfred Baker, James H. Berry, Elzearum, William Cline, W. P. Dellinger, J. S. Deitz, Wesley D. Ekard, Phillip A. Hoyle, M. A. Huffman, M. A. Helton, Wm. L. Killian, 1st Sergeant; J. S. Lutz, Geo. F. Rink, Wm. D. Shell, William A. Scronee, A. A. Shuford, Adam Seagle, G. W. Warlick, William Whisenhunt and Newton Whittener. A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by all. Speeches were made by Col. M. L. McCorkle and M. O. Sherrill. It was a joyous occasion.

Capt. Alexander and Col. Polk at the Hickory Fair.

The editor of the Hickory Press attended the Fair at that place last week and thus speaks of a gentleman of this county who was present: "Capt. S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, read an instructive address to the Jersey Cattle Club, in which he gave a full account of the Jersey breed of cattle, their origin, history and peculiarities, contrasting them with other breeds, and exhibiting their peculiar excellencies. Col. L. Polk followed in an extemporaneous address, directed largely to the defects of the present manner of farming and want of a proper system of educating the youth of the land. Col. Polk's address was well received and made a good impression."

The Trust Unselfishness.

It takes a very generous person indeed to be faithful to a self-arranged plan of generosity. It is often true that people hate their proteges when those they have helped have grown beyond the need of their aid. The reason of this is not always black ingratitude on the part of the recipient of favor; it is just as often due to the restless vanity and insatiable selfishness of the one who had set up for a patron, saint and who, failing to find a constant protection of spirit in the aided one, turns upon this one with cunning instead of blessing.

The trust unselfishness is that which does not consider duty in the relations of life as an abstract good. Duty is a fine watchword, when it implies privilege. Too many people make it a miserable slavery, by bringing no freedom, no pleasure into its performance. There is no such thing as duty in gratitude. A grateful heart offers its own reward without any forcing. But a giver who demands incense-burning is certain not to get it. A morbid desire for perpetual adoration can not in the nature of things, be gratified.

WASHINGTON NOTES AND COMMENTS.

What the Chronicle Correspondent Observes Among the Movements of the People.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The sale of the new letter sheet envelopes has been so satisfactory that the Post Office Department has decided to put them in all the first and second class offices.

The clerk of the House Committee on Appropriations intends to send notices to the members of that committee requesting them to be present at a meeting to be held in this city Nov. 22nd. Mr. Randall, the Chairman of the committee desires this because, as the meeting session is so short one, he wishes to have committee prepared to act on the Appropriation bills as soon as possible after Congress assembles.

Secretary Manning continues to improve rapidly.

Cutting, the Texas editor, who recently raised a sensation in Mexico, has filed a bill in the State Department for $50,000 damages. It is my opinion that the State Department is as tired of Cutting as the people at large are, and that he will not get much aid or countenance from official sources in this country.

Blaine has come out squarely and openly against the Civil Service Reform law. It is a sly bid of discontented Democrats, and is intended to counteract Mr. Cleveland's supposed mismanagement and independent Republican tendencies.

There will be a bond call of $10,000,000 three per cent bonds this afternoon.

Robert W. Alston, of Ga., a clerk in the 6th Auditor's office Treasury Department, shot himself through the head to-day with suicidal intent. The shot was instantly fatal. Mr. Alston is the son of the well known Georgia editor, the late Col. Robt. Alston. The young suicide had many friends among the North Carolina people who reside in and visit Washington. The cause of his death was a deep attachment for a young lady living here, who would not receive his attentions on account of his dissipated habits. He shot himself while at his desk in the Treasury Department. He had three uncles who were noted duellists, and his father was shot about six years ago. Young Alston was once employed at the Capitol, but secured an appointment under the Administration soon after Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated. The objection to Wagoner is, that he was discovered to be the man who persuaded Governor Brownlow to offer a reward of $5,000 for the head of Hon. Isham G. Harris, then the "rebel" Governor of Tennessee, for being a Confederate. The reward was offered, but as Senator Harris is now the leader of the Democratic party on the floor of the U. S. Senate, and has outlived the venom of both "Parson" Brownlow and Maj. Wagoner, both Harris and Lamar can afford to forgive and forget.

Dallas Current.

There is a pear tree on Mr. Henry Clemmer's place near Mt. Holly, in this county, that is loaded with a second crop of ripe luscious pears. This is a very unusual thing.—There were 72 cases on the State docket and 36 on the Civil docket at the beginning of the present term of our Superior Court. Judge Graves and Solicitor Osborne have pushed and many have been cleared from the docket. On last Monday night a fire occurred at Cherryville, this county, totally destroying the store and two warehouses adjoining of Messrs. S. S. Mauney & Bro. No theory has been advanced as to the origin of the fire but it is supposed to be accidental.
