ASHEVILLE.

To Have Street Cars—The Work of the Federal Gun-Bill Nye.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 19.—That this city is to have street cars is no longer a matter to be doubted. The charter at first given the street railway company, by the city authorities, was not by a great deal, satisfactory to capitalists composing the company. The objectionable feature, however, in the charter now granted are insignificant compared with those in the first charter. The company has decided to accept the terms of the amended charter and the street railway will be one of the institutions of the city in the immediate future. Within the next few days work will begin on the track.

The Federal Court, which has just adjourned here, has had one of the busiest terms for years. There were in attendance on this term over five hundred witnesses and more than one hundred and fifty defendants. A considerable proportion of these were found guilty and sentenced to prison for varying terms, while those acquitted returned to their remote mountain homes where, under the rude but picturesque sheds—birth-places of the "dew drop"—they rekindle the smouldering fires of the still, and continue, to the great satisfaction of their fellow citizens, to produce the exhilarating and popular juice of the "mubbin." This penchant of the mountaineer to coax into existence that which he cannot grow, and his popularly known as "mountain dew," comes not so much from total depravity and utter lawlessness as it does from his misconception of liberty. He thinks it an unbearable exhibition of tyranny for the government to limit or prescribe the disposition he may make of his own—for instance his corn. The market is distant, the road is rough, and it would take many trips to carry his corn. He could carry his whole crop in a sheep of whiskey, at one load, and he therefore often does so.

A large and elegant hotel is being built at the Sulphur Springs, four miles west of this city. This was the old ante bellum resort of this section. In the old large hotel which stood there before the war much of the beauty and charm of the Carolina mountains were to be seen indulging in the gayereties of the seasons of those old days. A western man of large means is rebuilding the resort. The structure and improvements are to cost, it is said, one hundred thousand dollars. The building, four stories of brick, approaches completion externally, and the walks and drives and fountains and groves which surround and adorn the place tend to show that it will be one of the chief attractions among the mountains during the season of '87.

Mr. W. E. Nye is here for the winter. These are his initials but the world knows him as Bill Nye. He is six feet, gawky, young looking, clean shaven, but with a face that shows that it is the index to a fund of fun that is wonderful and remarkable, which is better. Bill is doubtless the funniest, funnier man who to-day writes for the American press.

A shooting scrape occurred on the streets in the last few days which has been a topic of much discussion owing to its sensational features. It seems that a countryman—Hunter by name—came to the city a few weeks since for the purpose of running a boarding-house. His rather pretty daughter just budding into womanhood, was, with her bright blue eyes and country ways, irresistible for a certain male boarder—a married man—whose wife was in another State. Thoroughly satisfied with each other they disappeared the other night. The irate and distressed father heard of his daughter's and new son-in-law's whereabouts, a few miles from town, and went with the sheriff and brought her home. A few hours later he saw his daughter's bigamistic husband on the street and hurrying to his room he seized a revolver and again coming into the street began to fire upon the astonished spoiler of female virtue who began one of the best acts of retreats. None of the balls took effect, and the much married man escaped. To-day the young lady is again missing. Such is life in a city.

A Vote and a Death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 20.—A special to the Post from Flemingsburg, Ky., says: "News has just reached here of a horrible outrage committed in Menefee county, on Flat Rock Creek. A few days after the Congressional race it became known that Rev. Louis Hughes, an aged and highly respected citizen, had voted the Republican ticket, which was the first vote he ever cast with that party. On the strength of this a crowd of roughs, under a mask of regulators, went to his house, and although he was in bed, sick at the time, tied him so he could not offer any resistance, and beat him with hickory whittles till life seemed extinct. Before leaving one of the members of the party came into the house and beat the victim with a hand spike, breaking his jawbone, fracturing his skull, and treating him in a most barbarous manner. Sam Poffet, one of the gang, has been arrested."

European Troubles.
LONDON, Nov. 20.—Great uneasiness prevails in official circles over the report from Afghanistan that the Uzbeks have joined Ghilzai Shikh in the revolt against the Ameer, Sir West Ridgeway, Chief of the Afghan Frontier Commission has been ordered to repair at once to London to give full information to the Government, with regard to Khan I-Ab. Lord Salisbury sees probably too late that he made a grave mistake in giving way to the desires of Russia and leaving the Khan I-Ab question open, as the revolt of the Uzbeks will not unlikely be accompanied by a repetition of the Pen-Dub incident, but with more serious consequences. One-third of the population of Afghanistan are now in revolt.

The capital stock has been fixed at $500,000 and the first assessment of $200 per share is to be paid when $100,000 has been subscribed.

Cohen, a sporting correspondent of this city, who is perhaps better known by his pseudonym of "Crispin," says that Frank White, of New York, has authorized him to challenge the winner of the Gilmore-McAuliffe battle for a fight to a finish for stakes, a purse and the belt, representing the light weight championship of the world.

The Collector Must Pay.
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A decision has been rendered in the United States Circuit Court in favor of Chas. L. Perkins, in a suit against ex-Collector Robertson. The question was upon the duty on the "drop," or melting ends of steel rails. The plaintiff claimed that these were unwrought material. The amount involved was $1,240.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

OBSERVATIONS OF A CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENT.

Noting Affairs and Particulars of Interest at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Mr. Halcott, the oldest son of Dr. Fride Jones, of Hillsboro, N. C., has just patented a railway danger signal which promises to be of use to the railroad service. His attorney was Robert D. Graham, Esq., formerly of your city, but now the incumbent of a very nice position in the Interior Department. Captain Graham tells me he has found in the Pension Office some very valuable papers bearing on the history of the country, which have not yet been examined. He says there are several of especial interest to North Carolina, among which is one written by Gen. Wm. Lenoir, whom the county and town of Lenoir were named. This MSS. of General Lenoir, among other interesting and valuable data, gives a full list of the officers and men who were killed and wounded at the battle of King's Mountain. Other papers throw added light on the authenticity of the 20th of May Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. The Capitol, White House and Department buildings are draped in mourning in respect to ex-President Arthur. Arthur was very popular among all classes here. The employees at the White House especially were sincerely attached to him, and relate many striking incidents of his kindness to and consideration for them. On account of the death of the ex-President Mr. Cleveland did not hold a public reception to-day, as usual.

Telegraphic Finishes.
The arrangements for the funeral in New York of the late ex-President Arthur, are being rapidly perfected all through.

Fong Ah Sing was hanged in San Francisco yesterday for the murder of a Chinese woman.

The last of the militia left the Chicago stock yards at 11 o'clock yesterday, leaving the deputy sheriffs in charge.

Hon. O. B. Hoard, of Ceredo, West Virginia, died at that place to-day, aged 82 years. Deceased was a member of the 35th and 36th Congress, from the 23d district of West Virginia.

Congressman John Arnold died to-day. He was very wealthy and noted for his numerous charities to the poor.

Wheat Report.
TOLEDO, O., Nov. 20.—Messrs. C. A. King & Co., during the past four days, have received 1,200 reports from grain dealers and millers, covering nearly every important wheat country in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and Missouri. The report shows that wheat acreage sown this fall, is a trifle larger in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Kansas shows a light decrease and Michigan no change. The outlook for growing crops is very favorable.

$500,000 Fire in Cincinnati.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 20.—A fire at 3 o'clock this morning, in the clothing stores of Mack Stadler & Co., Fishheimer & Co., and Marks & Co., resulted in a loss on buildings and stock of $500,000. Stadler has $200,000 in insurance on house and stock, and Fishheimer $260,000. Four firemen were injured by falling with a wall into a cellar. The guests in the Burnett House, opposite, were badly frightened, but the hotel was not injured.

Found Dead in His Bed.
PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 20.—Dr. H. C. Caldwell, a highly educated gentleman, who traveled around and lectured on Biblical and Oriental subjects, was found dead in his room last night in the Peoria House. He was about 45 years old and claimed to be the only surviving blood relation of the late John C. Calhoun, of South Carolina.

Days for Trial Set.
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—After the prosecution had closed its case in the Moadet trial, on motion of the district attorney, days were fixed for the trial of ex-Aldermen Reilly, O'Neill and Cleary. The date of Reilly's trial was set for Nov. 29, with the others to follow immediately afterward in the order named. All three are kept under surveillance by detectives.

A Noted Hotel Burned.
CAPE MAY, N. J., Nov. 20.—About 1:30 o'clock to-day the Hotel Bellevue was burned to the ground. Ten cottages near by, four stores and a lumber yard were also destroyed. Of the cottages, about one-half were occupied. As the Bellevue has not been occupied for several months, the fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

A Stag Fight.

"Abbeville had the sweetest and prettiest women at the fair," which is a fair statement by Brother Hemphill of the Medium, is a fact about the fair which no gallant gentleman will deny. "Columbia and Richmond received nearly all the premiums awarded at the late fair," which is a grossly unfair statement from the same source, which does not even approximate the fact.—Columbia Register.

Misses Lelia and Addie Young, of Charlotte, are visiting their brother, Maj. John Young, of this place.

Mrs. Moore, the female evangelist is holding a series of meetings in the M. P. Church.

Gladstone as a Linguist.

The Vienna Neue Frie Press expresses its astonishment on learning that Mr. Gladstone during his recent visit to Austria conversed with everybody around him in easy and elegant German. This is not so remarkable after all when it is remembered that the Grand Old Man can do his thinking when he pleases in ancient Greek or Latin, can converse fluently in the modern Hellenic language, can make after-noon speeches and write verse in Italian, and talk Spanish like a Castilian and French like a Parisian, while his mastery of English is such that the phrase-making Disraeli once raised a laugh at him in the house of commons by describing him as a man "who was intoxicated with the exuberance of his own verbosity."—Chicago Tribune.

Biggest Wheel in the World.
"The biggest wheel in the world" was rolled into the lobby of an up-town hotel a few nights ago. Its diameter was declared to be seven feet—eighty-four inches. A fifty-eight inch machine is accounted large by ordinary bicyclists, and to say that any man living can ride an eighty-four inch wheel sounds flashy. But this is a geared machine in which the power is applied by means of chain belts. Three men ordinarily are required to hold the steed while he climbs into the saddle. Then they give him a push and away he goes. He is in favor of the subway, the telegraph wires prove so great an annoyance to him. But suppose he should take a header!—and every wheelman knows the case is a supposable one.—New York Tribune.

The Smiths of the Army.
The Smith family was largely represented in the army of the Union, and at one time there were upward of 600 in the army of the Potomac. On one of the regimental rolls in the Tenth division, which gave names and birth-places, were entered, "Giovanni Smith, Italy; Juan Smiths, Spain; Hans Schmidt, Holland; Ivan Schmitzowski, Poland; Jean Smeets, France; Ion Skimmiton, Greece," and twelve John Smiths born in this country, besides one whose native land was sweet Erin, of whom it was recorded, "named Patrick, but says that he is called John for short."—Bcn: Ferley Poore.

A London "Three-Wheeler."
A new tricycle cab or "three-wheeler" has just passed the usual police inspection and is now duly licensed for hire in the streets of London. A newspaper says that the new vehicle is comfortable and roomy, that ladies' dresses can not get spoiled by coming in contact with the muddy wheel, and that the driver can be communicated with without dislocation of the neck. All that is needed for its success is, it is said, that passengers should be satisfied that, with its odd-looking single wheel in front, it is by no means dangerous.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Cigarette Habit Among Women.
The cigarette habit is growing astonishingly among the women folk. There are thousands of cigarettes smoked by the fair sex in this city to-day. Some of the ladies high in social circles smoke them. How do I know? Well, they send their boys and girls and servants to get them, and, after a slight acquaintance will tell cigarette dealers for whom they are purchasing the cigarettes.—C. B. W. in Globe Democrat.

Excitement in Texas.
Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Carl, who was so badly injured by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at T. C. Smith & Co's.

Mrs. David Moore, Jr., who lives a few miles north of Spartanburg, was badly burned a few days since. She fainted near the fire and her clothing caught fire.

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. Nolt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind. testifies, "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. (The man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hart, straggler, Bellville, Ohio, affirms, "The best-selling medicine I ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous. Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at T. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store.
