REIDSVILLE, Dec.' 1.-The North Robinson met the girl Monday morning walking alone on the rail road track two miles from Florence, Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, is in session here. The annual session of this vast and was in the act of accomplishing his purpose, when he was frightened away by the timely approach of a party of white boys. He was arrested yesterday and was taken before his body of Christian workers was convened at this place in the M. E. church at 9:30 a. m. Bishop J C. Granberry presided. About 275 ministers and lay delegates have already arrived. The train to night will bring intended victim, who positively iden-tified him, after which he was lodged some 75 or 100 more to swell the numin the guard house at Florence. Last night about 7 o'clock a large party of armed white men surrounded the ber of this, the largest Ecclesiastical body in North Carolina. About 50 preachers passed examination during prison. At the same time several bundred negroes gathered in the same vicinity for the purpose of protecting the prisoner. The lynching party, however, divided their forces; one the morning session and many others will pass during the sittings, day by day. Only a small number of visitors have arrived so far, but prospects are bright for a great increase before the Sabbath comes. The afternoon sesparty kept the negro mob in front at bay, while the other attacked the sabbath comes. The afternoon ses-sion was spent mostly in col-lecting the various amounts of motey from the pastors which are carried up regularly by these men. The various Boards were in session this P. M. Rev. J. Mr. Carliste and the Centest, Creetywary Dec. 1.—The Rev. Dr. 1 Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, in an interview with a reporter of the Pall Mall Gazette, says that at first he was startled as well as grieved at the Parnellite plan of campaign against landlosdism. He has since, however, been convinced of the equity and nec-sesity of the course, which was being pursued. He felt no fear that a rent fixing tribunal might be estab-tablished, whose functions would be independent of both landlord and tenant. A Destardly Outrage Perpet ated Near Hunte sville-No Arrests Yet Made. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 1.—Infor-mation was received here to-day from Huntersville, Ark., of a dastardly outrage, perpetrated near that place last week. Three masked men went to the house of Stephen Pierce, an old and feeble man, and banged him until he was nearly dead, hoping to discover the hiding place of a little money he was believed possessed of. Mrs. Pierce, the aged wife of the victim, recognized one robber and told him so, when he made at her and received a blow in the face from the old lady with a corn knife.
