Mr. Blair offered a resolution. which was adopted, instructing the committee on finance to inquire into the propriety of reporting a bill providing a rebate on all imported materials incorporated with domestic mater als, or converted into other articles, and reported to foreign countries for sale.

The calendar was then taken up, and a bill was passed to permit the owners of American vessels and their cargoes to sue the government for osses caused by collision with United States vessels arising from their misnanagement.

A number of other measures were aid aside.

Mr. Beck, referring to his remarks of yesterday, disclaimed any intention of being offensive to the memers of the judiciary committee, and f they were so construed he re tracted them. Mr. Pugh sad he had construed

Mr. Beck's remarks as personally of fensive, and that gentleman's state ment was very gratifying to him. Mr. Van Wyck moved to make a special order for the second Tuesday in January the bill for the relief of settlers. The motion was agreed to, and the bill was made the special order for the second Tuesday n Jan The Senate then resumed considera-
