Messer. Thos. C. Williamsk Co., Richmood, Va.
Gentlemen:—Knowing the nat re of the substances employed in the preparation of your "HYGEIA" CHEWING TOBALCO, for use in parts of the country subject to Malaria, and naving heen carried out in the factory all the details of the processes of preparation, I can certify that the a dittions made to a fine grade of Natural Leaf Tobacco are of purely vegetable origin, of undoubted merit as antiperiodics, aromatic and astringent tonics and stomachies, calculated to be of real value for the pur ose luomatic and astringent folics and somatics, calculated to be of real value for the pur ose luended, and that neither chemically nor physiologically are they in any way incompatible with the bebacoo itself, with which they are caraculty incorporated. I am, gentiemen, Your obedient servant,

J. W. MALLET.
