COLUMBIA, S. C., June 11.-Quite an amount of interest attaches to the sittings of the court this week at Edgefield. Jones, who killed the three Pressleys, some years ago and who has already had 5 trials in Edgefield is again before the bar, the case having been transferred to Lexington. There have been over 100 witnesses summoned for prosecution and defence and the rial may last a week.

Mr Fife on "Malice" and "Average

Church Members." Every day witnesses souls being born into the Kingdom of God through the earnest preaching of Mr. Fife. Yesterday the congregations were larger than ever, and if possible the services more precious than ever. At the morning service the subject was "Malice," and the evangelist gave a most searching talk on the forgiveness of enemies. He just got next to people, so that before the ervice was over, many old feuds settled, cancelled. People got up and sought out their enemies, and were reconciled. Every one pres-ent was deeply impressed and all came away feeling that it was "good to have been there."

Last night the text was found in Dan. 5: 27, "Thou art weighed in the bal-ances and art found wanting." The peaker said he wanted to weigh only four characters, and see who would be four characters, and see who would be found wanting and who would not.

1st, The moral man out of Christ.

2nd, The Skeptic.

3rd, The Skeptic.

3rd, The seerage church member.

4th, The poor sinner.

The evangelist pictured the whiskey drinking, dancing, hypocrited church member in language strong. He said he would rather have died four years ago, terrible sinner though he was and out of the church, than to live to be like the average church member who will slip in the bar rooms and take a drink. God pity such a church member, the evangelist said. It is better to be an honest sitter. such a church member, the evangelist said. It is better to be an honest sinner than a faithless church member.

The songs by Mr. Bilborn were beau-tiful and touching, and made a deep Birmingham, Ala., June 11.—At Selma iast night Mac Conneil Shelly, son of Ex-Congressman G. M. Shelly, son it Ex-Congressman G. M. Shelly, went into a saloon with a friend, Sumter Lea, Jr., and told the saloon keeper, B. F. Burch, to send a dispatch for him. He had been informed that the telegraph office was there, but Burch supposed Shelly was joking, and referred him to Landman sitting near as operator. Shelly found out that he had been joked and being in liquor, he and his companion jerked off their costs and proposed to whip the bar keeper. Burch went out and resurned with a rifle, and ordered them out of his house. They advanced on him, Shelly armed with a hammer. Burch fired, the ball striking Shelly just below the nipple. Shelly will probably die.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 11 .- Early this norning W. H. Robinson, Frank Reid and Joseph I. Ellington were taken into the U. S. circuit court room and the judge charged the jury. It required but littly time for the latter to return a verdict of guilty against these rascally 'green goods' men. Judge Seymour sentenced each one of them to eighteen months in the government pententiary at Columbus, Ohio.

Charles M. Busbee, Grand Sire of the Odd Fellows, was ill yesterday, his attack being a sudden one. His physician said today that his condition was improved. In the circuit court today a curious case was taken up. In the spring of 1889 a man named Cheek, who lives in Massiselppi, came here as a labor agent and was arrested upon information lodged by A. T. Mial, a farmer in this county, to the effect that Cheek had enticed away negroes who were under contract. Now Cheek sues Miai for $10,000 for false arrest. The exact number of students now at the Agricultural and Mechanical College is 57. All save five board there.

is 57. All save five board there.

The event of today in this section was the commencement at Wake Forest College. Many Raleigh people were present. The twenty graduates were conspicuous on the rostrum. Only eight of them delivered crations, the others presenting theses. J. L. Kesler, of Statesville, delivered the salutatory, his subject being, "Commencement—of What?" C. B. Williams, of Camden county, was the valedictorian. Among the oralors was B. K. Mason, of Moores. the orators was B. K. Mason, of Moores ville, his subject being "A Blinded Naville, his subject being "A Blinded Na-tion." Among those submitting theses were: J. I. Kandrick, of Charlotte, on "The Hero of Lutzen;" A. G. Kendrick, also of Charlotte, on "A Grisis in An-gle American History;" E. W. Sikes, of Monroe. on "Myths; the Lessons They Teach."

The president of the board of trustees announced that the degree of LL. 1.4 had been conferred on Rev. Dr. Gj. Wa. Sanderlin, State Auditor; W. D. Pruden, of Edenton, and Prof. Elliott, of John Hopkins' University. No other degrees were confered. It was also amnounced that J. B. Carlyle was elected professor of Latin, with Prof. Maske, (late of John Hopkins) as assistant, and that the salaries of all professors was raised $800 annually. The trustees decided to build an infirmary, to cost $6,000. The $25,000 bequeathed by the late A. C. Melke, goes not the endowment fund, but to the fund for the oducation of ministers at the college. The president of the board of truste nation of ministers at the college. The statement that Mr. Milke left $50,000 to endow the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville was an error. He did not leave it any money.

A man was here today who will build at the exposition grounds one of the largest switchlocks or roller coasters in the country. There will be more amusements at the exposition than were ever before heard of in this part of the country. It is a pleasure to know that some hotel improvements are to be made. The Yarboro House is to be considerably enlarged.

There was a good deal of talk today about Gov. Holt's abandoning his proposed visit to Washington. It is said that a solicitor and a judge raised the point that if he left the State he ceased to be Governor, there being no Lieutenant Governor. Then it was said that if ant Governor. Then it was said that if he left some lawyer, when a death warrant was issued, for instance, would jump up and deny the Governor spower. The Governor who is always very prudent, telegraphed to a prominent lawyer at Greensboro to meet him there and give his opinion. The Attorney General was not here, so his opinion could not be procured. Instead of going to Washington the Governor went to his home at Haw River.

People who have business in the of-fice of the Commissioner of Agriculture wish the board would order it recarpted, refurnished and painted. It is the most untidy of all the public offices. Counties. Special to THE CHEOMICES]

Particulars of a destructive hall storn which passed through portions of Yadkin and Davie counties reached Winston yesterday evening. Your corre dent read a letter from a ge man who is now near Huntste in the first named county which gives a full outline of the dam-age done. The wheat fields and grow-ing crops generally were completely rulned along the line of the storm. Trees were uproposed and in one place pear Huntsville, two or three men who were at work in the field were b up in the air several feet by the wand carried several hundred yards and carried several hundred yards and dropped in a gully. Dwellings and to-bacco barns were unroofed and at Jerusalem, Davie county, the new Baptist church was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. In brief, it was the biggest storm that ever traveled through either county. Reliable men say that in several places along the road hall was several inches thick the next hail was several inches thick the next morning on the ground. Rev. Mr. Baldwin, of Winston, who has a farm on the Yadkin river, is one of the par-ties who suffered considerable loss by the great storm.
