WOMAN'S CORNER.

(By Mrs. Rosalind A. Redfearn.) The efforts of the Parent-Teachers Associationof Lilesville were crowned tive house. with great success in giving the play 1 Mr. J. A. Kendall, the "Whale", has Bennett, Joe and J. F. Icard "A Wedding Without a Woman." Miss Bailey, one of the teachers said which is so pretty. Already he has the felt that she had the cooperation shrubs, vines, grass, flowers and Bennett, Mrs. Kate I. Education by Mrs. A. E. Beling was tention. greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Beling said that any woman MR. BOSWELL WILL with an alert mind, a desire to add to her store of knowledge, can in a few years, by careful reading and study, become well educated along many lines. She believes in becoming interested in a certain subject, or in other words having a "hobby," whether it be literature, history, the art of cookery, child life, nature study, or what not, master that subject well and then turn to another.

The primary object of the very first woman's organizations, which were missionary societies in the churches, and later the various kinds of present day clubs, were for the enlightenment and improvement of the members along the lines of missionary work. now we study every thing from science to mythology. One of the best mediums for self education, Mrs. Beling said, is to read good books, both literary and practical magazines, study the questions asked by children, so that you can answer them intelligently. This in itself will provide a liberal education, as children ask the why and the wherefore of everything. A certain amount of the family income should always be used for reading matter which will fit all ages of the family.

The civics department of this club reported that they had drawn up suggestions for improving and cleaning up the town, presented it to the mayor and had already had a horseshoeing place moved off the side walk and three small bridges put in. A traveling library has also been se-

NOT RUN FOR MAYOR.

Dear Editor:

Will you allow me space to correct a statement appearing in your issue of the seventh instant, in which it was stated that there was a rumor that I would be a candidate for Mayor of Wadesboro in the coming municipal election. I am sure that I have no idea as to the identity of your informant and I do not care to be enlightened. I wish to say however, that who ever the party may be, had about as much authority to make that statement as the King of the Cannibal Islands (who ever that Royal Highness may be) has ability to direct the workings of the League of Nations. In my humble opinion, if we had none of that kind among our citizenship, we could very well dispense with the need of a Mayor, for though it may take but half of our time to attend to our own business, we would be extremely busy the other half, letting other people's business alone.

Yours very respectfully, ience of the rooms, the porches before low, cost of sale and advertising will W. S. BRASWELL Sheriff, Anson County. WADESBORO TOWNSHIP

' The crowd of girls which greeted me at Mt. Vernon Monday afternoon were so sweet and responsive one could not help but fall in love with them all. They were so interested in the sewing lesson and intent on learning the stitches in making the small table napkins and stitches for triming collars and cuffs of pretty spring dresses.

At our next meeting we are going to make potato yeast for light bread and with a loaf already baked we will make lettuce sandwiches.

Friday afternoon I found the ladies at Peachland busy getting the school house in order for the Fiddlers Convention at night. ' They have recently paid for a piano for the school and now have other work in view. This working together for the school develops a fine community spirit. We appreciate the cooperation of the people from Polkton, Peachland, Deep Creek, Cason Old Field, Ansonville and Cribbs Creek in making these Fidlers Conventions such a success every where they have been held.

There were twelve ladies and a number of girls present at the meeting at Red Hill Thursday afternoon. We gave suggestions for recleaning and staining last summer's straw hats, made a gingham hat, and planned work for the garden.

The women also enjoyed learning the stitches used in a beautiful organdy collar which was made by Miss Mollie Winfree.

At our next meeting we will make potato yeast and cook some rolls in Mrs. Carpenter's stove.

In traveling over the county we notice so many improvements being made around the homes. A new room being added, the porch extended, the house painted, the premises improved. The catalogues sent out by the "ready-cut" houses serve a useful purpose in giving people good ideas the ine of planning homes and we see many improvements in the twne of the new homes being built, one that of the square two rooms in
