The days of the cheap peddler and the tinhorn agent have passed but they have found worthy and more than worthy successors in the managers of the traveling shows which disgrace our towns and demoralize our children by their performances. It behooves our village and county fathers to investigate more carefully the character of the attractions which apply to them for license if they would secure the future of the rising generation.

Davidson & Liles
Land Merchants

Put your idle land to work or the interest and taxes will soon eat it up.

If you havent the time or resources to develop it, let us find you a buyer. That's our business, and it will cost you nothing to place it on our list to be shown prospective buyers. If we sell it you get the money. If we do not sell it you are not out anything.

We would like to have a few good farms early in January 1923. The price must be reasonable.
