A Secret Marriage
A POPULAR SHELBY COUPLE WHO AT WACO AND EXPECT TO KEEP IT A SECRET, BUT THEY FAIL.
On Monday night, January 8th, in the quiet little town of Waco a marriage was solemnized in which two popular Shelby people were the contracting parties. It was assumed to be a secret marriage, and the principals never intended that their marriage should be made public until six months or a year had elapsed. However when they returned to Shelby there was a suspicion that they had married and it was only a few days until everybody wanted to know whether or not it was so. On Monday afternoon the charming bride, who was formerly Miss Doria Pruet, called at THE STAR office and "owned up" her marriage to Prof. Thos. Plonk, the well known president of Cleveland Commercial College, and THE STAR was thus the first to get this interesting news direct.
The marriage occurred in this way: Miss Pruet was visiting her good friend, Mrs. Josh Miller, in Waco, and Prof. Plonk got the marriage license and went to Waco last Monday night and they decided to marry quietly and "keep the secret well." Only Mr. Plonk Miller and the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. C. Gillespie, and Mr. Josh Miller and wife were present. After the ceremony the happy bride and groom returned to Shelby, going to their respective homes. But then the news got out and hence the confession and this publication.
THE STAR congratulates Prof. Plonk upon winning such a fair and accomplished bride, and we wish them much happiness.

About three months ago Henry Cochran killed a negro in a portion of Rutherford county and it was thought he had made good his escape, says the Tribune, but it is learned that he is still in the county and has threatened the lives of several men and is terrorizing the people of his community. It is said that he latest one to kill Messrs. Oeborn Lynch and Richard Leabster before leaving the county. He stays in the woods and the officers have been unable to locate him. He is considered a desperate character.
On Friday, Jan. 8th, Samuel Powell, who lives near Henrietta, killed Antony Robertson, his colored tenant over a dispute in the settlement. BOARD OF EDUCATION.
THE MEETING MONDAY CONTINUED THROUGH TO-DAY—MESSRS. ALLISON, LOVELACE AND FALLSALL PRESENT.
The County Board of Education met Monday morning in regular session and has in continued every day since H. P. Allison, Drs. Messrs. and T. D. Falls were replaced, together with County Superintendent J. A. Anthony, and the work was begun and has been carried on vigorously to the present time. At this meeting the new apportionment had to be made and there was a vast deal of extra work requiring the attention of the Board.
It is found from the calculations on the new census that we have 10,169 children, of both races, in Cleveland county between the age of 6 and 18 years. The total amount of the net school fund for the county is $18,371.92, or $1.31 for each child of school age. The gross amount of money, including school building and other expense money, added to the above amount makes a total of $15,194.10.
The Board has arranged to pay a little better salary for teachers at some places, where it was thought the best interest of the school demanded an increase.
After this apportionment is made, application will be made to the State to get a sufficient amount from the second $100,000 appropriated to the public schools to enable all the schools to run four months, or as nearly that length of time as possible.
The Board is engaged in hearing the El Caney Johnson case from No. 11 township today. R. L. Ryburn represents the complainant and E. Y. Webb appears for the Committee.
