A PAPER OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE, AND TO BE PAID FOR BY THE PEOPLE.

Vol. XI. No. 9 — Shelby, N. C., Wednesday February 12, 1902. — One Dollar per Year

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.

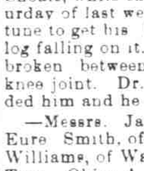
Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.



The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

"CORN CRACKER" ESTABLISHING A NEW DYNASTY WITH WHICH TO BUCK "UNCLE SAM."

EDITOR STAR:—We are sorry to inform the outside world that lieth in wickedness that we have reared the flag of revolt in the borders of township No 10.

We have ever been loyal to the State and national government, but with reluctance we hereby sever the bond of union.

We hereby declare our intention of leaving all government at restraint. By our act of secession, we with-draw all allegiance from state and national authority and proclaim curselves as the Free Soil Government, of No. 10.

Our ordinance of secession provides that we have our own schools, our own churches, our own newspapers, our own matrimonial bureaus, assess our own taxes; and reserve the right to repudiate payment of said taxes at our discretion.

We enact a high protective tariff, against the town of Shelby and all contiguous territory of our domain.

All newspaper men or their representatives shall be taxed two hundred for every twenty-four hours spent in our borders.

All lightning rod peddlers, sewing machine peddlers, book agents, Cleveland county tax collectors caught in our borders shall be shot, on sight, and their property confiscated. Who ever slaves such a common enemy of mankind, shall be paid an annual pension of one hundred dollars during life or good behavior.

Any lawyer or doctor out of this territory who tries to practice his profession in our territory shall be fined one hundred dollars for the first offence and shall be exiled or imprisoned at the discretion of the governor general and his staff for each succeeding offence.

Any man or son of man who liveth in the outside world, and cometh here with matrimonial intent, shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars, and his finger tailed-hoss shall be confiscated.

The State church of these borders, shall be known as the Holy Sanctified church

The high priests of the sacred institution shall be the governor general and the secretary of state. The exercises of religious nature shall consist in administering the holy kiss, and the anointing with holy oil.

If any man kills a dog he shall be fined five hundred dollars, and his property confiscated.

Should one of our patriotic citizens feel inclined to kill a nigger he shall be paid a pension of two hundred dollars, annually during life or good behavior.

We propose to have four months school, and any one who lays hands on our common fund shall die the death of the unrighteous and all the people shall say amen.

We pay enough tax to maintain a four months term at present salaries, and we don't mean to allow another cent for the education of resident niggers or alien poor white trash.

We propose to re-establish the whipping post, the pillary, and the stocks.

Should any one out of our borders criticise our course we propose to bring him before our tribunal, where he will realize that the mills of the gods while they grind slow pulverize middling fine.

By way of news, let me add that on this evening an occurence took place that caused strong men to weep and otherwise cast a gloom over the entire community. A noble citizen of our borders has gone to the happy hunting ground. He died with his spurs on, and looked calm in the beautiful repose of death. His mortal remains were tenderly prepared for burial. But on reconsideration it was concluded that he would make good roughness.

So he was boiled, and disappears to morrow, from the eyes of men. I have been promised a wish-bone if I will be at the banquet. May he rest in peace.

By way of social news, Misses Minnie and Hattie Peeler were visiting a few days ago, at the hospitable home of Noah Warlick, Esq.

Correspondence STAR.

Messrs. C. J. Pruett and J. B. Blanton spent Friday and Saturday night with Mr. J. B. Hamrick, of Boiling Springs.

Miss Lola Putnam, who has been quite ill for some time is improving very rapidly, and we hope she will soon be up again.

Mr. W. W. Hardin and wife spent last Sunday with Mr. G. B. Blanton and wife.

The school at this place is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. J. B Hamrick.

Mr Jesse Blanton has been visiting at Mr. J. J. Pruett's quite often recently—must be something attracting his attention.

Miss Daisy Hamrick spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Florence Weaver, near Stice, recently. L.

Pensions—The silver linings of clouds.

An Octogenarian, and a Pleasant Re-Union.

A birthday re-union was held on the 29th of Jan 1902, at the home of Wesley Harrill, Cleveland County, N. C., said day being the 80th birthday of BURWELL BLANTON HARRIS.

This honored and useful gentleman was born in South Carolina near the Cleveland county line, and was married to Miss Margaret M. Bridges Sept. 20, 1844. His children are all living—5 in number—and are all happily married, and to them have been born 25 children now living, so that Mr. Harris' grandchildren are not very numerous, and he has but 2 great grandchildren. Not all of his posterity was at this pleasant gathering. The day was bleak, the roads were bad. It was a pleasure to note the deep interest on the one hand of a man full of years, of the ups and downs, the joys and sorrows of life, in the welfare of the young, and on the other hand, of the love, the attentive interest of children, of the young men and maidens, of the youthful and vivacious, for the pleasant old gentleman who sat in the corner, there in a chair by that well laden table, and then in the parlor while the devotional exercises were being held. Ah! life is worth living when such conditions as those exist.

Mr. Harris moved from South Carolina and settled on Sandy Run in Cleveland County in 1861. He has been a farmer all of his life, never turning to the right hand or the left, and has been successful, proving that the tiller of the soil can live a happy, useful life, and that the means thereby obtained when properly and economically administered, will enable him to bring up a posterity honored and respected.

Mr Harris connected himself with the Camp Creek church in 1852, and transferred his membership to the Sandy Run church upon moving into Cleveland county. He was made a Deacon at the former church, and he has filled that office worthily to this day at the latter, though not now able to attend his church meeting regularly.

Bro. Harris never was forward in church and denominational work, but his fine religious character, his general poise and physical bearing, his real good sense, blending withal a conservative attitude towards everybody and everything has made him useful, and he has been in demand in various ways in the work of his church, and in the associations. He never has credited himself with half the good that he has done the cause of religion. He has been a great friend to the preachers, his doors were always open to them, and his heart too, a thing not always true. He has been a help to the writer, when he was not aware of it At Mount Pleasant, the writer's first charge, he often felt the need of some one to sympathize with him, some one to lean upon. With a burdened heart he would stand, or set in that little boxed up pulpit, the congregation would be assembling, the house was filling up, some familiar tune would be raised and sung to an old familiar hymn, then he would see Bro Harris enter the house, and with a dignified tread come to the front seat on the right of the pulpit, take a place as a hearer beside Uncle Moze Hamrick and others, adjust himself to hear the sermon—oh! how his presence did help, and as the services advanced and Bro. Harris showed some signs of interest and tenderness he never dreamed that he was an Aaron, or how inspiring the young fellow in his weak and stammering effort.

Does the kind reader blame me for calling attention to this and other good parts and traits of character in Uncle Burwell, when we assembled, to sing and pray, and talk about the life and influence of this good man. Of course I must speak of them to his children, grand children and friends.

That was a sweet and tender occasion. Mrs. D. F. McSwain performed on the organ and led the singing, and as we entered the parlor struck up:

"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land
Where my possessions lie"

We sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and other good songs, hearts grew tender, eyes were suffused with tears, and prayers were offered which we hope the Lord will answer.

Mrs. Harris died 13 years ago, since which time Mr. Harris has lived with his children. For four years he lived with Mr. Harrill and his wife, since that time has spent a few weeks consecutively with each child and family. May his last years be full of peace and pleasure, and may his mantle fall upon his posterity and be worthily worn by his descendants.

Incidentally I want to say that three men sat side by side at that reunions whose ages are as follows: B. B. Harris 80, Bryson Lovelace 82, Wm. Green 79. Total 241 years. They have been neighbors many years, are all deacons in the Baptist denomination—these good men. L. C. EZELL.

The City of Lynchburg.

MR. A. V. WRAY WRITES ENTERTAININGLY OF THE PLACE AND OTHER THINGS OF INTETEST.

EDITOR STAR:—You will find enclosed two dollars for my two years subscription, and I think if I got as much in return for all I spend as I did that $2 00 I would be considerably better off.

It never occurred to me that I might write anything that would be of interest to THE STAR'S readers, but since you mentioned it, I will endeavor to give you a few dots on the Hill City, in which I am now situated.

Lynchburg is a city of 25,000 inhabitants and is located on the western bank of the mighty James, some sixty miles north of Danville Va., and 210 miles north of Charlotte N. C. It well deserves the name given it above and the best description I can give you of its hills is what the negro in a minstrel show got off one night. It was the first town he had ever seen where you had to clime eight flight of steps to get into a man's cellar. Lynchburg is a city of great wealth, only one city in the United States of greater wealth than it according to its population

It is a fine railroad centre, connected to the surrounding country by the Southern, Norfolk and Western and Chesapeak and Ohio Railway, also the mighty James. It affords one of the most convenient street railways of any city in the south, operating cars every six minutes We are blessed with excellent water. James river straight is better than XXXX quality of N. C corn

It is one of the leading jobbing towns of the South and travels nearly one thousand men. There are at least four houses that do a million dollar business.

The largest wholesale shoe house in the south is situated here. There are also two shoe factories here. It ranks with Winston and Durham as a tobacco town. She possesses three parks—the Rivermont, the Reservoir and the City Park. The latter having a little zoo, which any city in the south could be proud of.

She can boast of having three of the most beautiful churches in Virginia two of which costs $20 000 each.

We have had snow and ice for eight days and men and women, all have left the walks and got in the middle of the street where the horses had broken snow and ice. Some one told a good one on a certain man in the city, said he started up one of the hills and begun slipping backwards and slipped a block before he could find something to catch hold of.

The city uses four million gallons of water daily so you see we have great faith in the James. We are on direct route from the north and can get New York papers by two o'clock. We can run over to Washington in four hours. As to the people a more clever or hospitable one could not be found on this terrestial globe—of course present company excepted, With best wishes to THE STAR and its readers. A. V. WRAY.

North Carolina Booklets Wanted.

Secretary T. K. Bruner writes from Charleston, S. C., to the Charlotte Observer.

"Please announce that North Carolina towns having booklets advertising their resources and advantages are urged to send copies, prepaid, for distribution, to the North Carolina exhibit, mining and forestry building, S. C. and W. I. Exposition, Charleston, S. C."

[Shelby ought to have a booklet telling of her marvellous record as a health and pleasure resort. Let's have one! ED. STAR.]

COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON

Last year our business expanded and the circle of our satisfied customers was greatly enlarged. Each new customer gave us pleasure and the constant coming of our old customers was a source of delight and satisfaction to us. Consequently we are determined more than ever to use our increased facitities and enlarged business to the better serve those who trade with us during 1902.

Remember that if it is anything in the grocery line we have it. Our line consists of all heavy and staple groceries—all kinds of food for man and beast—and then our line of fancy groceries embrace all the delicacies for the most refined and cultivated taste. Our prices are right on everything.
