

HORNS LOCKED IN THE HOUSE.

Kentucky Demanded of Indiana the Return of Former Governor W. S. Taylor for Trial for the Assassination of Wm. Goebel.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Indiana and Kentucky locked horns in the House to day. The debate, which involved nearly every member of both State delegations, was fast and furious from start to finish. Kentucky demanded of Indiana the return of W. S. Taylor, that he might be tried for the assassination of William Goebel. The assault was made by Mr. James, of Kentucky, and the defense was led by Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana. Partisan feeling rose to an extreme tension, and as either side scored both applause and derision resulted.

The debate was based on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. Mr. James fired both sides of the House to interest and feeling by declaring at the outset that the "Rough Rider President" was ridiculous, in his message to Congress favoring international extradition treaties, when one State could not get from another fugitives from justice. He had he said, introduced a bill in which the Federal government made extradition compulsory in cases where persons had been indicted for crime. For four years, he said, Governor Durbin, of Indiana, had protected Taylor, who had been regularly indicted in Kentucky for the murder of Goebel, "and yet I notice that when Durbin comes to town," continued Mr. James, he is wine and dined by this great Don Quixote upon extradition, who absolutely confides to Durbin the right to give the waiting and anxious world the news that Hanna can run for President if he wants to. And when we all read that, we again declare the king can do no wrong."

Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, arose to make a reply to Mr. James, and brought a storm of questions from the Democratic side.

The Governor of Indiana needed no defense, began Mr. Crumpacker, especially to anyone acquainted with the Kentucky election of 1899. He declared Taylor had been elected Governor; that the Kentucky juries had been "packed" and that history would justify the action of Indiana.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, attacked the idea that the combats of the Kentucky juries were "corrupt and rotten." In some respects, he said, the speech of Mr. Crumpacker was a disgrace to American civilization. It was ridiculous to suppose that all purity reigned in Indiana, and that just across the river all was corruption.

Congressman Webb and the Monument.

King's Mt. Herald.

The constituents of Hon. E. Y. Webb will be pleased to know that he is making a grand effort to purchase some land and build a suitable monument at Kings Mountain battle ground. Mr. Webb is hopeful of obtaining $100,000 for this purpose.

From press reports sent out we see that he has the promise of several of our most influential members to aid him in his undertaking. There is every reason to believe that Mr. Webb will get the matter in proper shape at this session and at the short session next winter he will push his bill through.

A hundred thousand dollars spent at this battle ground would mean something not only for this section, but for our young congressman as well. The public will keep an anxious watch on this monumental matter and will rejoice at its realization.

—Mr. J. H. Austell, a venerable citizen of Earl, is in Greenville, S. C., being treated for cancer. He is improving rapidly we are glad to note. Dr. W. C. Black performed a most successful operation.

—We are glad to know that Mr. Fitzhugh B. Hamrick, who is ill with fever in Eagle, W. Va., is much improved. Mr. F. D. Hamrick, who has been with him for several days, returned home Monday.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by H. E. KENDALL.

FALLSTON NEWS.

Coming and Goings of Popular Fallston People—Good Sermon—Other Items.

Special to The Star.

FALLSTON, Feb. 8.—Rev. W. O. Rudasill, principal of Belwood Institute preached a "very able and instructive sermon in the Methodist church here on last Sunday. All the Sunday Schools of our town are in a flourishing condition, and are under the best of management. We are glad to note that Fallston School is still making fine progress. We should not expect anything short of a good school under such able management.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Houser, the parents of our talented young physician, visited Fallston last week, and were guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Houser. Mr. C. S. Young will soon begin the erection of a nice residence here. Mr. H. M. Smith, of Beam's Mills, has the contract.

There has been some excitement over cotton in this community, but it seems that the "storm" is over now. Master Bernard Parker has been sick with La-grippe for several days, but is better, we are glad to say. Also Mrs. Rebecca Falls, has had an attack of La-grippe, but is better now.

What has become of Bro. Clegg and the Bassett case? We think it would be well for him to drop the case and let it go "the way of all the earth." This writer is thinking seriously of coming out for Register of Deeds. Wonder if my chances would not be good now.

We are all for Robt. L. Ryburn, Esq. for the Legislature up this way.

Letter to Belmont Cotton Mills.

SHELBY, N. C. Dear Sirs: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devco, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa. always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devco took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly, F. W. Devco & Co.

OUR Beam's Mills correspondent is correct in saying that the penitentiary is now self-sustaining and that it has a comfortable surplus—about $65,000. Recently it offered to loan the State Treasurer $50,000 to meet appropriations, but the fund was not needed, the financial affairs of the State being in such fine condition. As to why some people want to misrepresent these things—that is a very old inquiry and it takes us back to the time of Ananias—why did he and his wife want to misrepresent the facts about that little incident with which they were connected? It's all very strange. We confess that we don't understand the reason why.

THE end is at hand in the matter of negotiation between Russia and Japan, and all matters pertaining to peace have been declared off, and Japan has seized two Russian vessels and war was practically declared. The sympathies of this country, in fact of the best civilizations of the earth, go out to Japan and we want to see her come out victor in the struggle with Russia.

THE Asheville Register prints the Republican plan of organization in every issue. This is a good idea. The Radicals have to keep their plan standing in order to let the public know what it is—otherwise it would be impossible to find out. No one would ever suspicion that the Radicals had any plans for their organization if they judged by the way the thing is run in this State.

UPON the death of the county treasurer, Editor of Person county appointed John A. Noell was appointed by the county commissioners to fill out the unexpired term. This is a good appointment. It goes without saying that there is no danger of an editor absconding with the cash—he's so accustomed to having it there's no temptation in it!

THE Republican State Convention will be held in Greensboro on May 18th. The Republican committee met last week and endorsed Roosevelt for re-nomination. The bosses always do everything in advance of the convention anyway. The rank and file have no chance with the Radicals.

THE New York World Almanac for 1904 is one of the finest publications of its class ever issued, and is valuable because of the wealth of information it contains. Single copy, postage prepaid, 35 cents.

NEW HOUSE NOTES.

Personal Notes of Interest—Comings and Goings.

Special to The Star.

NEW HOUSE, Feb. 8.—We see the farmers of this section moving their cotton through the snow and in, when it reaches 16¢cts. We hope the people of Cleveland and Rutherford counties will not be so aroused over the high priced cotton, as to neglect the cultivation of such crops as afford us the necessities of life.

Mr. J. B. Waters sold his plantation near Casar last week.

Miss Vashtie Walker returned home from Shelby last Saturday, where she had been spending several months with her sister, Mrs. F. L. Hoyle.

The road overseer of this section have been putting in very good time for the last few days. We expect to have better roads in the future.

Miss Ollie Haynes, of Nanito, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. R. Whitaker, of this place.
