CAN YOUR COTTON EAT ITS Fertilizer?

Suppose they fed YOU meat sealed up in steel tubes—it wouldn't be very "available" would it?

Well, if you give cotton a fertilizer which the delicate little roots cannot assimilate it might as well be in steel tubes.

The Southern Cotton Oil Company's brands of fertilizers are made with special reference to AVAILABILITY. They are ground fine.

TEXAS WOMAN GETS RESULTS

When the Doctor Failed to Help
Mrs. Mancief, She Helped Herself With Cardui.

Belton, Tex. In a letter written from this place, Mrs. Ethel Mancief says: "I suffered with womanly troubles ever since I first entered womanhood. The doctors failed to help, so I began with Cardui. From the first, I could see good results, and I kept on taking it. I was relieved of all my dreadful suffering. Cardui has built up my system, and my friends are all surprised to see the good results I obtained. Cardui is as good a doctor as any woman needs. It can't be beat. I cannot praise Cardui too highly."

For more than half a century, Cardui has been used successfully to prevent unnecessary pains caused by womanly troubles, such as headache, backache, side ache, dragging sensations, etc.

It also acts as a general tonic, for the weak, tired, worn-out womanly system.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak and ailing, take Cardui.

It helped a million others.

It will help you, too.

CAMPAIGN CIGAR

To Treat Your Friends to Cigars is Now a Popular Factor in Politics—Some Who Are Not Smokers, Spong on the Candidates—Editor Harris Describes Them.

Charlotte Chronicle.

It is only within recent years that the cigar has become a popular factor in politics. The usual order of procedure now is for the opposing candidates to rent a hall for headquarters, bring in a dray load of tables and chairs and open up the cigars. The atmosphere around the headquarters is kept thick with odoriferous smoke and the patriots never forget the fact that they have a lot of convenient pockets in their coats. They are not always overscrupulous, either, whose cigars they smoke. In the celebrated campaign just closed, it was not an infrequent occurrence for a voter to raid the Hawkins headquarters, and then go around and smoke up the Bland smoke works. Many people smoked who never before had smoked. The novice was always easily spotted. He would roll the cigar around his tongue, so as to get the wrapper air proof, bite off an inch or the end to get a good draft, then fire up. The end which he would attach his lips would become soggy and ragged and the patriot would have the benefit of a combination chew and smoke. Another way in which the novice could be spotted was the sye in which he would hold his cigar. When a fellow would be seen holding it between the second and third finger, with the fire to the palm, it was safe to be indulgent in the way he was carried to election time. Then there was the fellow who would stick the cigar into the side of his mouth, back to the roof and talk holding in the way. The particular green smoke would put the glowing end to his left eye, until it would make the salt water come. But in a styles, there would be a snuff-consuming desire to make a smoke. They would all operate under forced draft and as a general thing, the campaign cigar built for strong puffing. The smoking at headquarters is suspended on it the next campaign, but the boys have a sufficient supply stored away to see them in practice for a few days.

COURTSHIP IN CHURCH

Young Man Proposes With a Selection from the Bible, the Woman Consents With Another Verse and a Wedding Follows.

A young gentleman happened to sit in church in a pew adjoining one in which sat a young lady for whom he conceived sudden and violent passion, was desirous of entering into a courtship on the spot; but the plan not suiting a formal declaration, the exigency of the case suggested the following plan: He politely handed her a Bible (open) with a pin stuck in the following text: Second Epistle of John, verse fifth—"And I beseech thee lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning that we should love one another." She returned pointing to the second chapter, Ruth, verse tenth—"Then he fell on her face and bowed himself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me seeing that I am a stranger?" He turned the book, pointing to the Third Epistle of John—"Have many things to write unto you, I would not write with pen and ink, but I trust to tell unto you, and speak face to face that our joy may be full." From the above interview a marriage took place the ensuing week.
