Report of the Two-day Session Held With the Zoar Sunday School.

By Joe E. Blanton:

The Kings Mountain S. S. Association met with Zoar Baptist church on Dec. 30th and 31st. After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. I: D. Harrill, Rev. J. M. Goode was made moderator pro tem. At the opening of the services there was present a large per cent of the pastors of the Kings Mt. Association churches, to be exact 19 being present. Several of the pastors discussed the benefits which the church receives from the pastors. New Prospect stringed band furnished music led by Chas. Alexander which was highly enjoyed. After a recess on Saturday good talks were made on the success in Sunday School work by the superintendents. Some fine suggestions were brought to the minds of the teachers and scholars. ,

On Sunday after a song service, there was a Bible reading on the subject of mission by Rev. J. V. Devenny Following this a collection was taken for home missions, after which Rev. W. R. Beach of Kings Mountain preached a very impressive sermon. After the noon recess the association decided to held its next meeting with Double Springs church. The convention was given over to an old time singing which was led by O. D. Price and A. M. Lattimore. This was a grand treat and the convention ent at the Double Springs meeting.
