ELEVEN N. C. SCHOOLS SHARE METHODIST FUND

Eleven schools in North Carolina, which are the property of the Southern Methodist church will participate in the $33,000,000 fund to be raised for connectional interests and educational purposes through the efforts of the Christian education movement.

At the setting-up meetings for the district to be held throughout the bounds of the Western North Carolina conference from March 29 to April 15, complete arrangements will be made looking to the success of the financial appeal in this section during the week of May 29-June 5.

Among those who will attend these meetings are the conference secretary, conference financial director, the presiding elders of the various districts, the charge director of each charge, the minute men of each church, the district officers of each church board, the district alumni directors and the district lay leader.

The Christian education commission with headquarters in Nashville are pleased with the interest already shown in the movement as evidenced by the recent large gifts of former Governor H. C. Stuart, of Virginia, and W. H. Stockham, of Birmingham, Ala., each of whom have already given $100,000. Several smaller gifts have also been made, although there has as yet been no solicitation of funds.

Sermon to Children.

At the Methodist church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. W. E. Poovey, will preach an illustrated sermon to the Junior congregation on the "Resurrection".

Birthday Dinner.

There will be a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Evans Hamrick on Route 3, Sunday April 3 in honor of Mr. B. F. Jones 69th birthday. All relatives and friends are invited to come and bring dinner.

Over fifty voices will render the Easter Cantata at the First Baptist church Sunday night.

MRS. BELLE MCFARLAND VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Fine Christian Character Died Wednesday—Funeral Held Yesterday Afternoon.

In the darkness and stillness of the night the death angel, with his scythe keen, entered the McFarland home on North Morgan street, and claimed as his victim the most precious jewel of the home, the mother, Mrs. Isabella Roark McFarland, who passed away at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The deceased had been desperately ill for the past three weeks with that dreaded malady, pneumonia, and although a delicately constituted person, she put up one of the bravest fights against this disease and all that love and medical skill could do was brought to bear, but to no avail—and she passed to the great beyond—as she had lived—sweetly, quietly, and unafraid.

Mrs. McFarland was born and reared in this county and was the fourth daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reece Roark. She was born April 30th, 1850 and was therefore nearly 71 years of age at the time of her death. On September 9, 1872 she was married to the late W. W. McFarland and to this happy union were born two sons and three daughters, all of whom survive except the eldest son, O. L. McFarland, who died in Shelby several years ago. The surviving son, Mr. Earle McFarland couldn't be present as he is living in Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama. Her daughters, Mesdames Thomas Babington and R. L. Armour of this place and Mrs. John Miller of Griffin, Ga., were with her when the end came and ministered unto her every need. Surviving her also are four sisters: Mesdames Amanda Berryhill, S. A. Hoey, B. C. Houser all of this place and Mrs. Zulia Rigler of Charlotte.

The deceased was a beautiful Christian character, a devoted mother and a sincere constant friend and neighbor, and was beloved by all who came in daily contact with her.

The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from Central Methodist church of which she was a life-long member, her pastor, Rev. W. E. Poovey assisted by Revs. W. A. Murray and R. M. Hoyle paying beautiful tributes to her memory. Her remains were laid to rest in Sunset cemetery beneath a beautiful covering of handsome floral designs. The pall bearers were: Messrs Lee B. Weathers, T. W. Hamrick, J. Frank Roberts, H. E. Kendall, A. C. Miller and J. A. Anthony.

MR. GREEN DIES AT THE AGE OF 95 YEARS

One of Oldest Men in the County Passes Away at Mooresboro Buried at Sandy Run

Mr. Elias Green, one of the oldest men in Cleveland county died at his home at Mooresboro Tuesday at the age of 95 years, four months and 23 days. Mr. Green was a Confederate soldier and a highly esteemed Christian gentleman who in years gone by, took an active interest in the uplift of his community and the progress of his church. He joined Sandy Run church 74 years ago and was baptized by Rev. Lewis McCurry. He was married to Rebecca Rollins in 1845 and she preceded him to the grave 20 years ago. To them were born 11 children, seven boys and 4 girls. Six are dead and the following five live: B. P. Green, Hill Green, A. W. Green, M. M. Green and Mrs. Cordelia C. Hamrick.

Mr. Green is also survived by 47 grand children and a large number of great grand children. Six of his handsome grandchildren acted as pallbearers at the funeral at Sandy Run Wednesday when four of his former pastors conducted the services: Revs. I. D. Harrill, A. C. Irvin, John W. Suttle and Z. D. Harrill. Mr. Green also leaves surviving two brothers and two sisters and a host of relatives and friends.

High School Society Enjoys Picnic.
The members of the Wilsonian Literary society of Shelby high school enjoyed a moon light picnic at Stices Shoals on March 18. Three members of the faculty, Miss Miller, Messrs Grigg and Elliott went as chaperones. On the bank of the river was spread an inviting supper which was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody. While a bonfire shed its glow over the merry group.

At the close of the pleasant evening the party returned home, every one having had a delightful time.

Cecelia Music Club Holds Interesting Meeting.
On Thursday afternoon at her attractive home on North LaFayette street, Mrs. L. P. Holland was a charming hostess to the members of the Cecelia Music club.

The rooms were thrown en suite and most attractive and inviting with quantities of lovely spring blossoms, and in the midst of these pleasant surroundings an interesting musical program was rendered by Mesdames P. L. Hennessy, Will C. Harris, C. B. Suttle and George Hoyle. In the absence of Miss Mayme Roberts, the hostess' talented young daughter, Miss Eugenia appeared on the program in her place.

Following this the hostess assisted by her sisters, Mesdames Lewis Bailey and S. A. McMurry served an elaborate salad course, lemon ice, delicious candies and nuts.

Beautiful Easter Party For Guests.
Mrs. George Moore was a most delightful hostess to about 25 guests on Wednesday afternoon as a pretty courtesy to Miss Clarke of Georgia, a charming young guest of the Moore home and Miss Ruth Moore who is home from Coker College for the Easter holidays.

The Moore home on East Marion street, one of the most beautiful in the city, was made doubly attractive and inviting for this event by the use of quantities of exquisite white lilies, jonquils, yellow jessamine and other spring blossoms.

The guests found their places at the five tables arranged for the game of progressive rook, by dainty little handpainted narcissus score cards. After cards were laid aside the hostess, assisted by her sisters, Misses Mary and Foy Moore, served a most delicious and elaborate collation, consisting of a salad course and cream and cake.

Brilliant Club Reception Given by Mrs. J. C. Smith.
One of the largest and most brilliant receptions that has ever been given in Shelby was that of Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. C. Smith threw open the doors of her lovely home on South Washington street, from 4 to 5:30 o'clock in honor of the members of the Chicora club and her charming houseguests, Mesdames Stephen Reinhardt of Lincolnton, and Brevard Goode of Newton.

The house was a veritable bower of exquisite blossoms, varied hues of hyacinths, yellow jonquils, and Easter lilies making the scene of spring time beauty and freshness.

Words of welcome were spoken at the front door by Mrs. Frank Jenkins and stationed just within the reception hall, conducting the guests to the receiving line was Mrs. R. L. Ryburn.

Mrs. Smith graciously greeted her guests in the north parlor and forming the receiving line with her were her house guests, Mesdames Reinhardt and Goode, and the officers of the club, Mesdames L. P. Holland, J. J. Lattimore, T. W. Ebeltoft. Others receiving in here were: Mesdames J. J. McMurry, Fred Morgan, E. Y. Webb, W. A. Murray, O. M. Suttle and Julius Suttle. The color note of pink was emphasized in here, lovely vases of Killarney roses being arranged informally. From here the guests were invited into the dining room by Miss Selma Webb.

The dining room was a scene of exquisite charm with its color note of white, pink and green. The table was overlaid in Venetian lace, the center decoration being a flower bed of Easter lilies in the midst of which was wonderful conception of miniature green and pink candy parasol, overflowing with the most luscious candy pears, apples and other fruits. Tied to the handle of the parasol was a dainty bow of pink ribbon. From the handsome pink capped chandelier, hung ropes of white tulle twined with apple blossoms and caught at the four corners of the table. The cream and cakes were in individual molds of the various flowers, as were the mints and were ordered from Delmette's, Washington, D. C. Serving in here were: Mesdames S. A. McMurry, W. F. Mitchell, L. A. Gettys and F. O. Gee. Asking the guests into the south parlor were Mrs. Paul Webb and Mrs. B. T. Falls. Receiving in here were Mesdames Mary McBrayer, J. T. Gardner, George Blanton and Mrs. Ledbetter of Anniston, Ala. Pink was the predominant color in the sitting room, the mantle being artistically banked with apple blossoms among which were beautiful blue birds, a pretty conceit of the hostess.

The punch bowl, presided over by Mesdames W. B. Nix and P. L. Hennessy was placed in the sun parlor which was simply but most beautifully and appropriately decorated in butterflies. In the rear hall, which was decorated in baskets of jonquils Misses Mae Kendall and Elizabeth McBrayer presided over the Edison dispensing sweet music throughout the afternoon. During the calling hours about 200 guests enjoyed this delightful hospitality.

ZAMORA KILLED.

Villa Lieutenant Finally Got What Was Coming to Him.

Pedro Zamora, for the past ten years one of the most formidable bandits operating along the western coast of Mexico, is dead as the result of wounds received in a recent battle with federal troops near the town of Zemonilla, state of Jalisco, relates a Mexico City dispatch. His body was identified by a number of his followers.

The dead bandit was associated with various revolutionary factions for years. He was first lieutenant of Villa, after which he joined Zapata, but finally he operated independently in the states of Jalisco, Michoacan and Colima.

An extensive area in these states was under his control for a long time. At the beginning of the administration of Provisional President De La Huerta, the bandit surrendered, but within a few months headed another uprising. Last August he raided the towns of Autlan and Quatlan, from which he carried off a number of captives. Among those taken prisoner by Zamora were seven American and several British subjects. It was said that 16 girls carried off from Quatlan had committed suicide following their capture by the bandits.

NEW VULCANIZING PLANT OPENED BY MR. GRUBB

A new vulcanizing plant to be known as the Shelby Rubber Works is being opened in the rear of the Morrison Transfer company's waiting room on S. LaFayette street by Mr. R. F. Grubb who has had seven years experience in the business, coming here from Charlotte where he was foreman for one of the leading vulcanizing plants there for three years. Mr. Grubb is installing a full and complete line of machinery and expects to be open for business by Monday next.

Easter Services at Elizabeth.

Rev. W. G. Moore, pastor of the Boiling Springs church and Bible teacher of the Boiling Springs high school will preach at Elizabeth Sunday March 27th at 11 o'clock. This will be a rare opportunity for the people of the Elizabeth community and it is earnestly hoped that the church will be filled in appreciation of Brother Moore and his message.

SPORT AMUSEMENTS AND DEBATE AT PIEDMONT

Special to The Star.

The annual improvement debate of the Pierian Literary society will take place Saturday evening, March 26th, instead of Friday evening March 25th as first announced. This change was made so that this debate might not interfere with the "Tom Thumb Wedding" which is to be given in Lawdale on the 25th. The Emersonian society holds its improvement contest Friday evening, April 1st, and the Musigmarhonian one week later, April 8.

Piedmont's baseball team invaded Rutherford college territory last Wednesday and was beaten 14 to 4. On Saturday our team played Henrietta at Henrietta and was beaten again, the score being 10 to 1. At present we have scheduled a game with Henrietta for March 26th, and another with Rutherford College on April 2, both of these games to be played at Piedmont.

In the two games played out team has not done very creditable work, but with some changes in the line-up and more practice, Piedmont will be fit and willing to meet the best.

Special Music at Central Methodist.

A special service, appropriate for the Easter season, will be held at Central Methodist church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which every body is cordially invited. The program is replete with effective Easter anthems and solos. Several members of the Presbyterian choir will assist in the rendition of the musical program. Below is given the order of worship for the Easter service:

Anthem—Risen, A Glorious King—Wilson—Choir.

Hymn—Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me.

Prayer

Special selection—Tis Midnight—Billingsley—Choir (tenor obbligato).

Scripture lesson.

Solo—In the Garden.

Post Resurrection talk by pastor.

Prayer.

Anthem—Praise to Our Risen King—Marie M. Hine—Choir. (soprano obbligato).

Doxology.

Benediction.

308 PRESENT AT SECOND METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

There were 308 present at the LaFayette street Methodist Sunday school last Sunday, according to the superintendent, Mr. Marvin Blanton, a prominent merchant of that section. Mr. Blanton says the Sunday school has been growing rapidly in attendance and he attributes the increase to personal work on the part of the officers, teachers and others interested. No contest is on to boost the attendance, yet it shows a steady gain. There were 97 men present in the Baraca class Sunday morning. The music is exceptionally good and this is quite an attraction.

NEWS FROM BELWOOD 1: DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

Special to The Star.

On Saturday March 19, the death angel spread his dark wings over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tonnie Bumgardner and bore away the soul of their adopted son Maynard. The little one was four months of age. Funeral services were conducted at Pleasant Hill Methodist church Sunday. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bumgardner; also the little one's father Mr. Roscoe Cook.

There will be services at St. Paul Baptist church Easter Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. F. Weathers; also at Olive Grove Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend.

Mr. Addie Morrison and family of Lawdale, attended services at their home church St. Paul Sunday afternoon.

SHELBY HIGH SCHOOL TO ISSUE ANNUAL

The Shelby high school is planning to issue a handsome school annual which will be from The Star job presses before the session closes in May. The annual will contain something like 50 pages devoted to every phase of school life and showing 50 or more photographs. The printing will be first class in every particular and the subject matter will be the choicest of the bright high school graduates are capable of preparing. The following compose the editorial staff: Rosalyn Nix, editor in chief; Ben H. Kendall, associate editor; J. William Osborne, business manager; Brevard Lattimore, sport editor; Horace G. Kennedy, photographic editor; Holly Eskridge, wit and humor; Miss Winifred Beckwith, literary advisor.

NEWS AND INTERVIEWS

Sickness in Upper Cleveland.

Practically no homes along the township line between Nos. 11 and 8 are escaping a siege of sickness from gripe and pneumonia, according to Mr. J. A. Queen who was a Shelby visitor Wednesday. He says the epidemic started back during the big snow and has been growing from bad to worse. Some of the patients have been critically ill, but so far there have been no deaths except that of Mr. Mack Warlick. Mr. Jesse Warlick's little child was taken to the Rutherford hospital this week for an operation following pneumonia.

Feeding Eggs to Hogs

Mr. Everett McDaniel who lives on Shelby Route 3, and has a fancy for game chickens and with something over 100 hens is feeding a few eggs each day to his hogs. Of course he does not like the idea of selling eggs at from 20 cents to 30 cents per dozen, but that is not altogether the reason for feeding them to his hogs. He says hogs like eggs, they have fine nourishment in them and if a hog is the least bit "puny" a few eggs will make Mr. Hog well again. Everett says his hens are laying from four to five dozen eggs a day. He likes the games because it is a healthy breed of chicken and lay more eggs than most varieties.

Mixed Denominations. Mixed Denominations.

"Princeton University of which Woodrow Wilson was formerly president is usually counted as a Presbyterian institution due to the prominence of Presbyterian scholarship in its faculty, although it was founded under royal charters which required non-sectarianism," said a minister the other day. "Late official figures, however, show that 33.1 per cent. of its student body, professed members of the Protestant Episcopal church. The analysis of church membership in the fall of 1920 shows 531 Episcopalians, 512 Presbyterians, 93 Methodists, 78 Congregationalists, 72 Roman Catholics, 56 Hebrews, 44 Baptists, 33 Dutch Reformed, 32 Lutherans, 25 Unitarians and 30 Quakers."

Battleground Property Abused.

"I was over at Kings Mountain Battle ground Thursday," said a Shelby man. "No care is being taken of the battle ground and the property there is getting in bad shape. The lock has been stolen from the gate surrounding the big monument; one of the panels has been stolen from the Soapstone monument and the bronze tablets on the big monument have been scratched up and defaced by bullets. The grandstand is tottering, many of the seats being gone now. The whole place presents a scene of desolation and lack of care. Little bits of the monument have been chipped off and carried away. The site of the famous Revolutionary battle is visited daily by people from all sections. It does seem a pity that the United States government, after appropriating a large sum of money to build a monument there should not make some provision to take care of it. A caretaker to live on the premises should be provided and I for one would certainly like to see some movement inaugurated with that end in view."

EASTER CANTATA AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Fifty Voices will Render Beautiful Music at First Baptist Sunday Night.

A beautiful Easter cantata will be rendered at the First Baptist church Sunday night by fifty well trained voices under the direction of Prof. E. A. Rupp, musical director and Miss Mae Kendall, organist. The voices that will constitute the choir for this cantata have been under training for several weeks and it is expected that both the Sunday school room as well as the main church auditorium will be filled with Easter worshippers. The title of the cantata is The Resurrection Hope, text of which is arranged and music composed by Carrie B. Adams.

The best voices in the church have been secured to give this cantata and the text contains a wonderful inspiration. The songs are: "Sing With all the Sons of Glory; All Around the Clouds are Breaking; A Vision of Angels; Angels Roll the Rock Away; The Day of Resurrection; Awake Glad Soul, Awake; Christ the Lord is Risen; The Shade and Gloom of Life Are Fleed; My Flesh Shall Rest in Hope; The Name of Jesus and I am the Resurrection of the Life.
