CAPT. BILL LOVE DEAD AT AGE 93

WAS ONE OF EARLY SHELBY SETTLERS

Was Many Times Mayor of Shelby and Gave Land for Public Buildings—Piped Lithia Water.

Capt. W. P. Love, Sr., a native of Shelby, who celebrated his 93rd birthday anniversary on June 6 of this year, died last night at 10:30 o'clock at his home, 701 East boulevard in Charlotte.

The body was brought to Shelby Monday morning and the funeral services were held at the Shelby cemetery Monday at 12:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. Marcus Kester, pastor of the First Baptist church in Shelby, of which the deceased was a member.

Captain Love lived in Shelby all of his life until about 25 years ago, when he moved to his plantation at Love's spring, near Cowpens, S. C., where he lived until moving to Charlotte last December to make his home.

He was the son of the late James and Susan Putnam Love, the former having donated the site on which Shelby was founded in 1842, giving the land for all of the churches, schools and public buildings of the town. Captain Love was mayor of Shelby for many years and established the system that brings water from the Lithia springs, three and a half miles away, to the town. His aunt, Mrs. Betsy Wilson, owned the land where the Cleveland Springs development now is located.

In addition to Mrs. Love, the deceased is survived by three children, Dr. W. P. Love and Miss Mary C. Love, of this city, and Dr. R. L. Love of Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Love's funeral was held at the grave side Monday afternoon, the body arriving in Shelby over the Seaboard. Pallbearers were Col. J. T. Gardner, J. F. Roberts, DeWitt Quinn, Paul Webb, George Blanton, and S. A. McMurry.

DOES JAZZ PUT THE SIN IN SYNCOPATION?

"Dancing to Mozart minuets, Strauss waltzes and Sousa two-steps would never lead to the corset-check room which now holds sway in hotels, clubs and dance halls. Nor would a girl who wore corsets in those days have been dubbed 'Old Ironsides' and left disconsolate wall-flower in a corner of the ball-room," says Mrs. Marx E. Oberndorfer, National Music Chairman of the General Federation of Music Clubs.

The quotation above appears in an article entitled "Does Jazz Put the Sin in Syncopation?" written by Mrs. Oberndorfer in the interest of better music. This article which appears in the August number of The Ladies' Home Journal, points out how music may become an influence for evil. It directs particular criticism to jazz. Offering proof that jazz produces a definite demoralizing effect on the human brain, Mrs. Oberndorfer continues: "Jazz originally was the accompaniment of the Voodoo dancer, stimulating the half-crazed barbarian to the vilest deeds."

After pointing out the evils created by jazz, Mrs. Oberndorfer concludes with a plea for good music because of the help and inspiration it can and will give. She says: "The Music Department of the General Federation of Music Clubs has taken for its motto: 'To Make Good Music Popular and Popular Music Good.'" The article shows how the women of America can help the club women carry out this motto in every home firmly, steadfastly, determinedly, until all the music in our land becomes an influence for good.

HOPI INDIANS TO HOLD DANCE

Noted Snake Dance Will be Given on Painted Desert Next Month

Phoenix, Ariz., July 29.—On the Painted Desert of northern Arizona, Hopi Indians next month will hold their noted snake dances, which annually attract thousands of tourists. This year the dances will be held in the villages of Walpi and Mishongnovi.

Most people believe the snake dance is a Hopi rain dance. This is not correct, according to Emory Kopta, a sculptor, who claims that the ceremony is a form of Indian ancestor worship. Mr. Kopta has been living in Walpi village for seven years, and says the Hopis always hold their rain dances in June and July and the snake dances in August.

Describing the ceremony, Mr. Kopta declared the dancers open the dance by stamping upon a plank laid over a pit. This is intended to notify the dead that the ceremony has begun. Between 100 and 150 snakes are needed for the annual dances.

Out of the scores of Hopi traditions, has come a story telling of the origin of the snake dance, according to the sculptor. The traditions tell of a Hopi youth, a dreamer, who once set out to find what lay beyond the far hills. He floated down the muddy Colorado until he came to a land believed to be California. There he met and wed a maiden of a strange tribe and took her to his Hopi village.

The first children of the young couple were snakes, and the Hopis expelled the two from the village. Then the crops failed, the Indians suffered from starvation and the old village priest said the trouble was brought on by the expulsion. He declared rain would not fall or crops mature until the couple was brought back.

Acting on the priest's advice, the Indians searched the deserts for the two and eventually found them. After leaving the village, the woman had borne human children and these were brought back. But the snake children had glided off into the desert.

In celebration of the couple's return, the Indians danced the first snake dance and, since the snake children could not be found, they brought all the snakes they could find to attend the ceremonies.

PRELIMINARY MEETING IS URGED UPON HARDING

London, July 29.—President Harding is being pressed by the imperial conference to call a preliminary meeting on far eastern questions in Washington within a few weeks and not to wait until the suggested date in November. This is done at the instigation of Premiers Hughes, of Australia, and Massey, of New Zealand, both of whom hope to attend a Washington session but could hardly do so in November.

If a conference is held at an early date the New Zealand and Australian premiers would go to Washington to attend and then proceed homeward where their presence is required within the next few months.

The imperial conference worked harder today trying to clear up business than it has for a fortnight.

"Watch Your Step" is the mute appeal of Romeo, cunning performing pony, as Queen, elephant actor of the weaker sex, takes her twice daily stroll over his figure. It required five years to teach Queen to watch her step and to instill in Romeo the faith that Queen would watch her step. These talented animals are with Gentry Bros. animal show, coming to Shelby on Wednesday, August 10 to exhibit afternoon and night, at the show grounds. There are hosts of clever animal performers and human stars with the Gentry Show. The street parade, a mile in length, will be seen on the downtown streets at noon.

Cline-Pierce Wedding

Miss Bertha Loella Cline of Catawba county, and Mr. Floyd Hal Pierce of Wenona, N. C. were quietly married Wednesday afternoon, July 27 at the beautiful country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cline.

The ceremony, simple but impressive took place at 5 p. m. The bride and groom entered the parlor together, and the pretty ring service of the Methodist church was used by the bride's brother, Rev. John Cline, of Lewisville, N. C. Only relatives and intimate school friends of the bride were present.

Following the ceremony the large wedding cake, beautiful with its dream-like frosting and decorations of crystallized fruit and flowers, was cut by the bride and generous slices with ice-cream was served each guest.

The young wedded couple left for Charlotte from which place they go to Norfolk, Va. to visit the groom's parents. After August 3 they will be at home in Wenona, N. C.

Mrs. Pierce has been a successful teacher for several years, and her charming personality has endeared her to numbers of friends and pupils, who with relatives of this county will be interested to learn of her marriage. Mr. Pierce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Pierce of Norfolk, Va. and is well known in eastern Carolina, where he held a responsible position with the Norfolk and Southern Railway Co. Yarboro-Reinhardt Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. J. J. Yarborough in South Shelby, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, when her daughter Margaret became the bride of Mr. Erman Reinhardt. The bride was beautifully dressed in a blue suit, with accessories to match. Friends and relatives of both bride and groom were present. Rev. E. P. Stabler, their pastor performed the ceremony. They left immediately on a honeymoon trip to Knoxville, Tenn. On their return they will be at home in South Shelby. They have a host of friends who wish for them only happiness and success.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Herman Eskridge and Mrs. Edith Heavner were joint hostesses Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Heavner at a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Marie Heiberger, whose engagement to Mr. W. B. Richardson, Jr. was recently announced.

The hall and living room where the games were played were artistically decorated with quantities of cut flowers. The place cards were quaint little handpainted brides. Just before the game of progressive hearts began the guests were each requested to write "Three Don'ts for the Bride," which afforded much amusement.

At the conclusion of the games the strains of the wedding march were heard and little Helen Marshall Hamrick, the lovely three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hamrick, entered dressed as a bride and bearing in her arms a large basket filled with numerous packages which she presented to the bride elect, who thanked her friends in rhyme in a most gracious manner.

After the opening of the packages a delicious salad course, followed by ice cream and cake were served. Those assisting the hostess in entertaining were Mesdames Olin Hamrick and Tom Lattimore and Miss Lucile Nix.

If exercise makes folks healthful those who own automobiles in Shelby should never be sick. A ride around town in a car brings every muscle of the body into play.

Rhyme Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bun Rhyme enjoyed a home coming of children, grand children and great grandchildren, with Rev. J. F. Moser and Mr. Thomas Goode, at the old home place Sunday. All of the children, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, dead and Ralph O. Rhyme who died in France during the world war, were present. It was greatly regretted by all that two of the ten grand children could not be present—Turner, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Smith who is at Chapel Hill attending summer school and Mrs. Johnnie Rhyme Martin of Tampa, Mexico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rhyme of Waco, now on her way home but who will arrive two days late for the reunion.

Dinner was spread in the shade of the old maple near the spring. This spot caused the minds of all to revert to pleasant memories of boyhood and girlhood days.

ATTORNEY GENERAL ASKS CHAS. A. WEBB TO RESIGN

He Was at First Re-Appointed by Republican Administration for Term of Four Additional Years

Asheville, July 29.—Charles A. Webb, United States marshal for the western district of North Carolina, was today notified by H. M. Daugherty, attorney general, that a change in the office of Asheville is desired. Marshal Webb immediately tendered his resignation to take effect upon the appointment and qualification of his successor, whom it is generally believed will be Brownlow Jackson, of Hendersonville.

In official circles, it is believed Mr. Jackson will be appointed to the office immediately.

When Marshal Webb goes out of office the following deputies also go: Joseph D. Pool, of Asheville, and J. F. Garner, of Randolph county, who are stationed in the office here; Reuben F. Lee, of Asheville, and J. B. Holloway, of Morganton, field men; R. B. Slaughter, Robbinsville; Charles C. Mason, Dillsboro; J. Rogan Rousseau, Wilkesboro; John L. Milholland, Statesville; H. C. Trott, Salisbury; W. E. Ogburn, Winston-Salem; C. T. Roane, Greensboro, and C. W. Russell.

Marshal Webb was appointed December 29, 1913, and served out his four years' commission. He was reappointed for a term of four years on January 7, 1922. Sometime ago, the attorney general announced that the appointees would be allowed to serve out their commission and the local office was declared in good shape, however, it appears the republican administration desires to make the change in the marshal's office at once.

Garner and Pool have been informed by the republicans they would be given a place in the event they cared to remain in the service. Neither is expected to remain in the Asheville office. Mr. Pool will accept a position in the business office of the Asheville Citizen.

Mr. Webb will devote his time to the management of the morning paper here.

FUNERAL J. F. GARVER IS HELD AT ST. PAUL

Body of Young Lawndale Man Who Made Supreme Sacrifice in France Laid to Rest in His Home Land

The body of soldier Johnnie F. Garver, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Garver of Lawndale arrived from overseas and was buried at St. Paul Baptist church Wednesday at 11 o'clock. He was 24 years of age at the time of his death which occurred in a hospital in France, September 13th, 1918, from a wound received in action the previous day. He was a splendid young man having a kind and cheerful disposition.

Before entering the army he was employed by the Cleveland Mill and Power Co., of Lawndale, and all work was suspended Wednesday. There were twenty-seven young men of Lawndale who entered the army but Johnnie was the only one who made the supreme sacrifice. He went in the draft to Camp Jackson, September 19, 1917. Later he was transferred to Camp Forrest, Ga. where he finished his training. He served in the fifth division company M. 11th Infantry.

Rev. Sankey L. Blanton conducted the funeral in his eloquent manner assisted by short talks from Messrs. A. T. Mull and J. Z. Falls both paying a glowing tribute to the deceased hero. The funeral was attended by nearly one thousand people, and his grave was completely covered with flowers, which was a fitting tribute to the high esteem in which he was held.

THE STATE COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL COMES TO A CLOSE

Raleigh, July 29.—The most successful session in the history of the State college summer school closed Wednesday with the last of the final examinations, and the afternoon trains carried away nearly 750 of the teachers who have spent six weeks in the capital city. Only about 150 were left on the campus last night and these will leave early today.

From the standpoint of number enrolled, scholarship, and earnestness of purpose the summer session has been an unqualified success. The total registration was 903, 94 counties of North Carolina and four other states being represented.

NOT GUILTY IN MAUNEY VERDICT

CHEERS IN THE COURT ROOM

No. 8 Highway Commissioner Tried for Trading With Self—Little Evidence Introduced

J. T. S. Mauney, former chairman of the highway commission of No. 8 township, who was charged with trading with himself and with malfeasance of office, was found not guilty by the superior court jury Thursday afternoon. When the verdict was announced the large crowd attending court broke into cheers and Judge Harding was compelled to call the crowd to order.

It was alleged that Mr. Mauney, while chairman of the commission, had sold the commission various articles and feedstuffs. J. F. Spainhour, of Morganton, had been secured by citizens of No. 8 to assist Solicitor Huffman in the prosecution. Hon. O. Max Gardner appeared for Mr. Mauney.

Very little testimony was heard in the case. The state put several witnesses on the stand but the defense did not offer a single witness, counsel for Mr. Mauney declaring that the state had failed to show any possible reason why Mr. Mauney was charged with any such offense. The jury was out only a short time.

The criminal term was completed last week and this week will be taken up with the civil docket. Quite a number of cases, most of them of small import, are on the civil docket. The case of perhaps the most interest is that of Gatha Davis, administrator of the estate of A. H. Davis, deceased, against the Southern Railway company in which damage of $10,000 is asked for the death of A. H. Davis who was killed in an accident near the Rutherford county line in August, 1917. This case was begun yesterday morning.

The large number of minor civil cases will very likely take up the entire week. Court will probably adjourn Friday afternoon or Saturday.

WOMAN THROWS ROCKS AT TWO OFFICERS

Deputies Went to Arrest Ambrose Wright at Peter Wright's House — Costner Forfeits Bond

When Officers E. W. Dixon and Pearly Hoyle went last Saturday to the home of Peter Wright to arrest Ambrose Wright for retailing liquor to John K. Brackett and Seal Jeffries, a woman by the name of Etta Page, sister-in-law of Ambrose Wright took it upon herself to resist the approach of the officers to the home. She had a weapon in her hand which she threatened to use and did throw rocks at the deputies. Recorder Falls sentenced Etta Page to five months in jail at the hearing in the court house yesterday, but finding that she has a number of young children, the sentence was suspended upon payment of costs. Ambrose Wright had a jury trial and was found guilty, the sentence being 12 months on the roads.

Charles Costner who was arrested some weeks ago in Shelby by Chief Hamrick with a quantity of liquor in fruit jars was released under bond at the time, the bond being signed by W. A. Gantt of Fallston. Yesterday morn Costner failed to appear for trial and the $500 bond was declared forfeited. A capias has been issued for Costner.

Big Summer Sale On

The big summer sale of the Stamey company of Fallston is still going on and they report a good business during the month of July, sales running far ahead of July a year ago. Since shoes made such a big decline and prices have gone to the bottom they have purchased their fall line and have just received their first shipment of 105 cases of Peters Diamond Brand all leather shoes. These shoes and this mammoth stock of all kinds of merchandise are priced at rock bottom prices. You will do well to see them when you want shoes or any other kind of merchandise. adv.

Mr. W. H. Long, a practical stoner of Shelby, has been helping his brother, Preston, finish up the metal work on the new Baptist church at this place. Cherryville Eagle.
