OFFICIAL TOTALS PRIMARY RESULTS

SECOND PRIMARY MATTER OF DOUBT

Mr. Wolfe for Treasurer and Mr. Jennings for County Commissioner Entitled to it.

Judges of the various precincts in the Democratic primary held last Saturday made their official returns to the board of elections on Monday afternoon. John P. Mull being chairman of this board. W. L. Wolfe of No. 4 township is the second highest candidate for county treasurer and is entitled to ask for a second primary with Mrs. Mary E. Yarborough if he makes a formal request for the same within five days from Monday when the official vote was tabulated. The Star could not get in communication with Mr. Wolfe this week to learn what he intends to do in the matter. His brother, Mr. George Wolfe prominent Shelby merchant says he saw him Monday and at that time his brother candidate was undecided as to what he would do. Should he ask for a second primary it will be held four weeks from last Saturday, or July 1. Mr. W. H. Jennings, when the official vote was tabulated, was the fourth highest man in the commissioner's race and is entitled to a second primary with George Peeler. Unofficial returns indicated that Mr. Elmore was the fourth highest man and would be entitled to the second primary, but official returns show that Mr. Jennings was stronger than Mr. Elmore. Mr. Jennings stated yesterday that he did not think he would ask for a second primary. Mr. Peeler needed only ten votes to have a majority. Cline and Washburn are already nominated.

Official Results. For State Senate. Sam Lattimore 2372, Rush Stroup 1258. For House of Representatives. Roan Davis 1943, Peyton McSwain 1524, Davis majority 419. For Treasurer. Mrs. Yarborough 1640, Wolfe 908, Browne 780, DeLoatch 151, Willard 123. For Commissioners. A. E. Cline 2887, W. W. Washburn 2759, C. W. Peeler 1680, W. H. Jennings 1413, Decatur Elmore 1387.

Lee's majority 1492. The board of elections figures that Cline and Washburn are nominated and Peeler lacks 10 votes of having a majority. It was necessary for each candidate for commissioner to have 1690 votes to get a majority. For Corporation Commissioner. W. T. Lee 2291, A. C. Avery 799.

MR. H. B. QUINN HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. H. B. Quinn (Uncle Beck) had a very close call Wednesday morning when his Ford car which he was driving alone and the 10 o'clock up-Southern came in very close contact with each other at the South Shelby crossed the track sufficiently to be proaching train, and thought he had crossed the train sufficiently to be out of the way of the on-coming train, but there was a man standing just in his way and thus trying to avoid the man he did not succeed in getting quite far enough from the track. The train struck the rear end of the car, tore one of the fenders off, demolished a tire and a number of other minor injuries to the Ford, but he himself miraculously escaped unhurt.

NEW COTTAGE AT TRAINING SCHOOL

Statesville, June 6.—Iredell and Rowan counties will erect at once a building at the Jackson training school, Concord, to be known as the "Iredell-Rowan-Cottage." Final action was taken yesterday afternoon by the Iredell county board of commissioners when they unanimously and enthusiastically accepted the offer of Rowan county to go 50-50 on the expense of providing a building to be used jointly by the two counties.

The plan is to erect a modern cottage that will accommodate 30 boys, 15 from each county. J. P. Cook, superintendent of the institution for the care of the delinquent youths of the state was present yesterday afternoon and made a tender appeal in behalf of the measure. He stated that the proposed cottage would not cost over $21,000.

Mrs. Mary O. Linton, of Salisbury, welfare officer for Rowan, in behalf of her county, invited Iredell to join in the construction of the building which she suggested might be called the "Rowan-Iredell Cottage."

Immediately after the Iredell board voted, without a dissenting voice, for the measure, they got down to business and made financial arrangements for the construction work to begin this week. Mr. Cook stated that he would begin work in a day or so and that, with favorable weather, he expected to have the new Iredell-Rowan cottage ready to be occupied in three months.

His Answer. When the county superintendent walked in the class pulled itself together and determined not to make any mistakes this time. All went well until the superintendent picked on Jimmie. "Now, my boy," he said "what's the plural of mouse?" "Mice," said Jimmie. "Right," said the superintendent. "And now, what is the plural of baby?" "Twins," said Jimmie—and that did it. Pope Pius, disregarding a centuries old convention, has installed an aged woman servant in the Vatican as housekeeper.

GARDNER HEADS THE KIWANIS CLUB

LINCOLNTON CLUB SPONSORS SHELBY

Local Kiwanis Club Starts off With Representative Business Men—Have Luncheon.

The Shelby Kiwanis club was formally launched at a luncheon held Tuesday night at the Cleveland Springs Park Hotel when 60 members of the Lincolnton Kiwanis headed by their popular president Rev. J. T. Mangum, came over to sponsor the new club. It was an evening of delightful entertainment during which there was a full flow of good fellowship. The Shelby Kiwanis club numbering 65 members launched out to do things for Shelby. The word Kiwanis is an Indian name meaning "do we things" and the 65 representative business and professional men in the Shelby club propose to do things for Shelby. O. Max Gardner was unanimously elected president, J. S. Dorton vice president; Chas. A. Burrus, for secretary and treasurer; Joe C. Smith for district trustee and R. E. Campbell, Clyde R. Hoey, J. F. Roberts, Z. J. Thompson, J. R. Dover, J. A. Suttle, H. F. Young and Paul Webb for directors. In accepting the presidency Mr. Gardner said this was the first office to which he had been elected without being a candidate, but he would throw every ounce of energy and enthusiasm into the newly organized club to make it the success that it should attain. He referred to the fine bunch of men that compose the club and declared that if they would put their shoulders to the wheel as he expects them to, Shelby will be blessed by a finer spirit of co-operation, a unified effort to higher and better things. The Lincolnton fellows enlivened the occasion with a number of popular songs from the official Kiwanis "sing-sing" sheet and quartet from the Gastonia Kiwanis brought forth round after round of applause as they rendered a number of popular and witty melodies Mr. Glass, a perfect comedian, is as fine a joker as any high class vaudeville artist and he was the star performer of the occasion. Clyde R. Hoey spoke of the good fellowship that prevails between the Kiwanis towns and welcomed the sponsor club members from Lincolnton.

The Members.
