DR. HUBBARD AND GARDNER SPEAK

BAPTIST EXERCISES IN FULL SWING

Diplomas Awarded to 29 Sunday School Officers and Teachers—Week of Activity

The First Baptist church was crowded at both services Sunday morning and night for the beginning of the 75th anniversary program and dedication of the First Baptist church of which Rev. J. Marcus Kester, D. D. is pastor.

Former Lieutenant Governor O. Max Gardner, president of the Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist church was the lay "preacher" at the Sunday morning service and his delivery was fraught with feeling as he appealed for service to others.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard, former pastor of this church, now living at Greensboro, Ala., preached a most profound sermon at the night service, the audience filling the large auditorium and a large part of the Sunday school department.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard, former pastor of this church, now living at Greensboro, Ala., preached a most profound sermon at the night service, the audience filling the large auditorium and a large part of the Sunday school department.

Dr. Hubbard is quite a favorite in Shelby and his sermon kindled a new religious zeal.

Last night's program consisted of a history of the church by Judges James L. Webb and an address on the "Influence and Responsibility of the Church in community and Association," by Rev. John W. Suttle.

Mr. Suttle is pastor of the Zoar church, the parent church of the First Baptist.

Tonight's program consists of a history of the Sunday school by its present superintendent, Mr. J. J. Lattimore and an address on "Present Day Opportunities of the Sunday School" by Mr. J. R. Dover.

Wednesday night's program will be on former pastors. Mr. J. H. Quinn will speak on "The Former Pastors of the Church," about 25 in number.

This will be followed by an address by Rev. L. W. Swope, a beloved former pastor now living in Richmond Va.

Thursday will be laymen's night. There will be a laymen's supper in the basement Sunday school room beginning at 6:30. All male members of the church are urged to be present.

A supper will be served by the ladies and will be several short talks. Mr. O. M. Mull will be toastmaster on this occasion.

Friday night will be missionary night with an address by Rev. S. A. McMurry on the "Work of Our Women" and a sermon on the subject of "Taking the South for Christ" by Rev. Lee R. Pruett.

The anniversary services will close Sunday by sermons morning and night by Rev. Charles E. Maddy, D. D., of Raleigh.

Dr. Hubbard's Great Work

Dr. W. D. Hubbard is a native of Alabama. From 1899 to 1903 he was pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle at Raleigh, coming to Raleigh from the First church of Eufaula, Ala., leaving Raleigh, he served one year as pastor of the First Church of Shelby, from which place he accepted a call to Troy in his home state, where he remained as pastor five years. It was then, that he became connected with the state board of missions serving for some years with Dr. W. B. Crumpton state secretary.

In 1910 while pastor of the First Church of Huntsville, Ala., the strenuous years of service resulted in complete loss of health. For 3 years or more he traveled and did light work trying to regain his health.

During Governor Charles Henderson's administration Dr. Hubbard was appointed state chaplain and endeavored himself to the entire state by introducing methods in the Alabama prisons which brightened the lives of the men. On leaving the chaplain's work he accepted a call to the beautiful and cultured city of LaFayette, Ala., where he was loved and honored and where he experienced the greatest sorrow of his life, the sudden death of his wife in January 1920.

Feeling that his life would mean more if he turned away from shadows and deep loss he asked LaFayette to release him which they did sorrowfully that he might in some measure turn away from the sad memories. He is now pastor in the old cultured col-

Undergoes Appendicitis Operation

Mrs. Roland Bagg, formerly Miss Laura M. Jenks, daughter of T. P. Jenks of this place, was operated on for appendicitis in Des Moines, Iowa, and is getting along nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Bagg recently drove from California to Iowa.

lege town of Greensboro, Ala., where he is much loved and honored by all denominations. He is what might be known as a popular preacher combining scholarship with unequalled zeal. He is believed to be one of the finest bleedings of learning and polish of any man in the Southern Baptist convention. From time to time he has turned down calls to great churches, offering large salaries, content to abide with those who have known and love him. He accepted the invitation to preach the dedicatory sermon in Shelby because he was anxious to see his friends once more. He is no win the very prime of life—and possibly his greatest usefulness awaits him.

SPEELO THE GREEK LOCATED AT GAFFNEY

Children of Shelby especially remember "Speelo" the first Greek that ever came to Shelby to enter business. That was about 14 years ago. He operated a fruit and candy kitchen here and was a favorite among the school children to whom he gave candy and fruits and thereby endeared himself to the young folks who spent all their money with him for more candy and fruits. Speelo was a jolly good fellow, always smiling and always happy.

When Speelo left Shelby he was lost sight of for a long time. W. G. Spake who sells Champagne and Skill cigars for the Rex Cigar company, ran across Speelo in Gaffney last week and Speelo was as glad to see a Shelby man as a child is its mother. Speelo expects to come to Shelby soon and see his old friends.

TRY STAR WANT ADS.

WANTS THE STAR TO VISIT HIM IN MEXICO

Capt. W. Grady Burgess, native of the Sharon section of Cleveland county, graduate of the University of North Carolina and captain in the recent World War, is down in old Mexico and writes a letter to Editor Weathers ordering The Star.

"I have read The Star, and I feel that I am ignorant of the happenings in North Carolina, especially in state politics. Once in a while I get clippings from The Star in letters from friends and I find that I read the advertisements, word for word, as well as the news, and I have come to the conclusion that since The Star reached men in France and Germany it could surely reach me in Mexico as there is not much difference in the mail service of either country. However, the mail service in Mexico is much improved over what it was a year ago, and this is true of all the departments of the government. I believe that President Obregon is getting things under control in Mexico, and if given time will have one of the most stabilized governments in all Latin America."

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The First Baptist church this week is celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary and the program is not only of local interest, but of interest to Baptists throughout North Carolina, because this church is one of the strongest of the Baptist denomination in the state.

The church has an annual budget of $23,000 and is one of the staunchest friends of the Thomasville Orphanage.

The pastor, Rev. J. M. Kester is a scholarly preacher who has great ideals for the church which are being accomplished through a splendid organization of laymen. Some of the best talent in the state is in the membership of this church so there are unlimited possibilities for Kingdom work and service.

The strong program being rendered this week should arouse this talent to more determined efforts and bring about a spiritual uplift in the years to come that will be incomparable to the years that have gone.

OFFICIAL PRIMARY VOTE IN LINCOLN

Lincoln County News.

There is slight change in the official vote in the primary over the unofficial tabulation as published in the News last issue.

For treasurer: Mrs. J. B. Dellinger 536; M. T. Leatherman, 713; C. M. Yoder 108.

Senate: W. A. Graham, Jr., 1122; Dr. R. B. Killian 227.

For county commissioner, Catawba Springs township: Cobb 64; Howard 94; Keever 97.

For corporation commission: Lee 702; Avery 512.

The election officials met Tuesday in this city canvassed the vote and declared the results and the above figures are from abstracts as tabulated by the board of elections.

FATHER AND SON WILL OPPOSE EACH OTHER

Lincolnton, June 6.—A rather unique situation was created on last Saturday when Noah Cline, a prominent young Democrat of Howards Creek township, was nominated for the commission.

At the Republican convention held a short time ago his father, Thomas F. Cline, was nominated for the same office. It will be a case of father against son and the race should prove interesting.

Both are excellent campaigners and prominent in their community.

It takes 65 muscles of the face to make a frown and only 14 to produce a smile. The reason you see so many smiles is they wear Star Brand Shoes. Wray-Hudson Co., sell them. Adv.

Miss Millicent Blanton has returned from Hollins where she has spent the past eight months taking a post-graduate course.

VIOLENT STORM HITS NEW YORK

38 PEOPLE LOST THEIR LIVES IN STORM

Big Holiday Crowd is Caught By Tornado off City Island And Many Perished.

New York, June 11.—Thirty-eight persons are reported to have drowned off City Island in Long Island Sound, when the mad storm that hit that city late today capsized scores of small pleasure craft.

A violent storm, accompanied by shifting winds that reached a velocity of 88 miles an hour, took the lives of at least 24 persons, injuring more than a hundred, and caused an enormous property loss in the metropolitan section.

Twenty thousand holiday makers went to City Island today and half went out on the waters of Pelham Bay. It was jammed with boats of every description when the storm hit it.

The known casualties occurred off Execution Light, which is about six miles east of City Island; Rat Island, about three miles east, and another island nearby.

Many Casualties Reported.

Six persons were killed and more than 40 hurt when the wind caught a huge ferris wheel at the Clason Point amusement park, and it crashed to the ground.

A woman and her seven-year-old daughter were crushed to death and several other persons injured when an oak tree blown by the wind crashed through the roof to the crowded dining room of the Red Lion inn, on Boston postroad, carrying with it an old-fashioned stone chimney.

The bodies of eight canoeists caught in Long Island Sound, off City Island at the height of the storm, were washed ashore after nightfall.

Central park suffered heavily, dozens of trees having been uprooted and hurled across the driveways blocking automobile traffic.

Lightning struck a Brooklyn trolley car, and half a dozen passengers were stunned and thrown to the floor.

Lightning also struck a barn in Flushing and 10 horses were burned to death.

Coney Island, where a throng of 350,000 had gathered, including 100,000 bathers, fortunately received only the tail end of the storm.

Nevertheless the confusion at the resort was intense when the startled crowds rushed for shelter.

NO SECOND PRIMARY: WOLFE DECLINES RACE

Mr. William I. Wolfe, second man in the recent primary for the office of county treasurer, stated to The Star editor a few days ago that he would not ask for a second primary, consequently Mrs. Mary Eskridge Yarborough who lacked only 161 votes of having a majority over her four male opponents, will be declared the Democratic nominee by the board of elections of which John P. Mull is chairman.

Mr. Wolfe stated that he has been urged by his friends to make the race by his friends, but he realized that he would be at a disadvantage by asking for a second primary and further stated that he feared his farmer supporters would not go to the polls in the event of good working weather.

Mr. W. H. Jennings who was entitled to a second race with Mr. G. W. Peeler, declined to ask for second primary, so the county will not have the sensation of a second primary which would have been held July 1st, four weeks from the first primary held June 3rd.

WAS OFFERED MORE THAN HE ASKED; WOULDN'T SELL

A farmer brought a bale of cotton to the Eastside mill one day last week and after being offered more than he had expected to get for it, he wouldn't sell.

This is not unusual when it comes to selling cotton, for farmers always hesitate to sell on a rising market. The farmer had heard that the market was still 20 cents. He brought the bale down and said to Mr. J. R. Dover, "Well, I hear that cotton is still 20 cents so I have decided to sell it to you."

"All right," answered Mr. Dover, "But the market has gone up and we are paying 21 cents now." The farmer responded: "I didn't know it had gone up. Since it has, I believe I will take my bale back home and hold it awhile longer."

And he did.

Miss Margaret Anthony who has been teaching in the Morganton graded school has returned home for the summer holidays.

CHARLOTTE PARTY COMES TOMORROW

GOOD FELLOWSHIP TOUR TO SHELBY

Special Training to Bring 150 to 200 Charlotte People—Dinner, Band, Speeches, Etc.

Shelby is to be honored tomorrow (Wednesday) by the visit of 150 to 200 representative Charlotte citizens who are making a tour in the interest of good fellowship.

They will arrive in Shelby on a special train at noon, be met at the Seaboard station by Shelby citizens with automobiles who will take them direct to the Cleveland Springs Park Hotel where a special dinner has been prepared by Col. Frank Morton, resident manager, recently of Charlotte.

A number of the Shelby citizens will take dinner with the delegates and O. M. Gardner, president of the Kiwanis club will deliver a short address. Mr. O. C. Blanton, chairman of the Inter-City Relations committee of the Kiwanis club is engaging a sufficient number of cars to meet the delegates at the Seaboard and take them to Cleveland Springs.

After dinner they will be brought to Shelby where Hon. D. Z. Newton will deliver an address of welcome and tell the visitors something of the resources of Cleveland county and Shelby.

The Gastonia band, one of the finest musical aggregations in the state will accompany the Charlotte delegation and furnish music at the Springs and on the court square.

The visitors will all be in regulation dress, parade the streets of Shelby behind the Gastonia band and then assemble on the square and about the streets where they will enjoy Shelby's hospitality and more intimately learn Shelby people. The trip is in no sense a commercial excursion.

The visitors will not mention business. As Col. A. W. Burch of the Charlotte Observer put it, "we are learning that a city has a soul, that we are all interested in each other's welfare and the spirit of good fellowship should be cultivated."

The Trip Arranged.

T. T. Allison, secretary of the chamber of commerce, W. C. Dowd owner of the Charlotte News, Clarence Kuster, all round booster, A. W. Burch, business manager of the Charlotte Observer, M. Matthews, superintendent of Mecklenburg county schools, and Capt. Shaw came up from Charlotte Thursday to make arrangements for the stay of the delegation in Shelby.

They arranged for the dinner at Cleveland Springs Park hotel then met representatives of the Kiwanis club and board of trade in the First National bank directors' room who agreed to furnish automobiles to transport the party from the station to the Springs. Badges are being printed reading as follows: "Shelby Welcomes Charlotte". These will be pinned on the visitors a they detrain. Other courtesies will be shown the visitors during their stay here of three or four hours.

The Charlotte delegation is going on a special train. They stop at Mt. Holly, Lincolnton and Shelby where the train will be transferred to the Southern. From here they go to Blacksburg, S. C., for a brief stay, thence to Kings Mountain and to Gastonia for supper.

All Shelby people are asked to meet around the court square about 1:30 Wednesday afternoon and welcome the visitors and enjoy stunts which they will give an dthe concert by the Gastonia band.

HOW TO PREVENT THE PEACH TREE BORERS

The month of June is the proper time to hill dirt 12 inches high around all peach trees to prevent the moth from laying eggs which makes the borer near the roots of the tree. The dirt can be raked down this fall and the freezing will kill a lot of the worms and they can be picked out earlier above the ground.

Peach trees three years old or over can be treated with paradi chloro-benzine one half to an ounce to the tree depending on the size and can be secured from local drug stores for around two cents per ounce. The proper time to apply this is the last of July or first of August.

All peach orchards and young apple orchards should be put in a cultivated crop this summer preferably peas or soy beans and cultivated as the trees will put on vigorous growth.
