Jenkins-Laughinghouse Wedding Solemnized.
Cordial and social interest centered throughout North Carolina, in the marriage of Miss Margaret Brice Jenkins and Mr. Haywood Dale Laughinghouse which was solemnized Thursday, December 27th at high noon at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Jenkins, on South Washington street.
The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Murray of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a small gathering of friends and relatives.
Miss Catherine Carr of Mooresville rendered a beautiful selection of wedding music preceding the ceremony. Lohengrin's Wedding March announced the approach of the wedding party. The spacious reception-room was decorated with a graceful arrangement of palms, ferns, pines and lillies and the improvised altar was erected across the room. Among the rich foliage gleamed the lights of many white tapers.
Little Virginia Faison and Mary Jenkins wore dainty hand-made frocks of the pastel shades. The bride carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lillies. Misses Sarah Boyd and Lucile Stroud wore gowns of yellow and lavender adorned with a large bouquet of Ophelia roses and lillies with valley lillies. The groom wore Messrs Hackett Blanton and Morrow of Tarboro.

Mr. F. Jenkins, mother of the bride was matron of honor. She was adorned in orchid georgette over satin and trimmed in cream lace and her bouquet was Ophelia roses and valley lillies.
Frank Jenkins, jr., the ring-bearer, wore a white satin suit. The lovely young bride was radiantly beautiful as she entered with her father, Mr. J. Frank Jenkins who gave her in marriage. They were joined at the altar by the groom and his brother, Charles Laughinghouse, jr., who acted as best man.
The bride was beautifully gowned in a picturesque model of white brocade satin. The bodice reflected the bateau neck line and from the shoulders the double train fell. The veil was confined to her dark hair in coronet fashion, with orange blossoms, and fell gracefully to the bottom of the skirt. She wore a very handsome imported necklace and earrings of ivory the gift of the groom.
She carried a gorgeous bridal bouquet of orchids, brides roses and valley lillies with shower of valley lillies extending to the floor.

Following the ceremony an informal buffet luncheon was served. Among the out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse and Mr. Charles Laughinghouse jr., Captain J. J. Laughinghouse of Oriental, Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Boyd of Mooresville, Mr. John A. Brice of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Sarah Boyd of Mooresville, Miss Mary C. Howard of Tarboro, Miss Lucile Stroud of Monroe, La.; Mr. Tom Morrow of Tarboro, and Mr. Albert Blanton of Marion.

Mrs. Laughinghouse is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Jenkins. She is one of the most popular members of the young society set. She was educated at Peace Institute at Raleigh. Her mother was formerly Miss Julia Brice, coming from South Carolina where she is most prominently connected.

Mr. Laughinghouse is a prominent young business man of Greenville, this state.

Miss Blanton Honors Dinner Hostess.
Miss Millicent Blanton was the charming hostess at an elegant dinner party given at Cleveland Springs hotel on Tuesday evening honoring Miss Margaret Jenkins who married on Thursday. The table suggested the holiday season to the minutest detail. The center piece was a large Christmas bell and from this holly trailers extended to each plate where a Santa Claus place card was found. Lovely Christmas baskets were placed at each plate and a delicious seven course dinner was served in faultless style. Miss Blanton's guests were: Miss Jenkins and Mr. Dale Laughinghouse; Miss Lucile Stroud of Louisiana, house guest of Miss Jenkins and Mr. Hackett Blanton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laney of Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stevens of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Schenck and Mr. Bob Lee of Monroe.

O'Brian-Graham Wedding.
Characterized by great beauty and centering the interest of many friends was the marriage of Miss Elizabeth O'Brian and Mr. Burton Graham, which was solemnized on Saturday December 22 at high noon at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Maurice Green on South DeKalb street. Rev. R. L. Lemons, pastor of the First Baptist church read the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of an assemblage of relatives and friends.
Throughout the reception room, ferns, baskets and vases of roses were gracefully arranged. Trailing vines of ivy festooned the door arches and windows.
The marriage was solemnized in the reception room before an improvised altar of ferns and palms, forming a rich, dark background for the lovely arch which was made of ivy entwined with roses and festooned by pillars on either side. These held baskets of roses the handles of which were tied with bows of tulle. In the center of the arch was an immense wedding bell bow of tulle. Preceding the ceremony a lovely musical program was rendered; Miss Mary Griffin was pianist, assisted by Mr. W. S. Buchanan violinist who played "To a Wild Rose" and "Traumer;" "Call Me Thine Own" and "At Dawning" were sung by Miss Bertha Bostick. During the ceremony "Venetian Love Song" was softly played. Mendelssohn's Wedding March announced the approach of the bridal party. First to enter were the little ring bearers, Pete and Edna Green dressed in white and carrying the ring in a rose.
The bride was beautiful in her wedding gown of white satin beaded in pearls. She wore a veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of roses and valley lillies. The bride and groom entered together.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Graham left for a trip to Florida and will be at home in Shelby when they return.
Mrs. Graham is one of the Shelby schools' most beloved teachers and came here from Oxford, Mr. Graham is a successful civil engineer.
Handsomely engraved wedding announcements reading as follows have been issued:
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Green announce the marriage of their sister Elizabeth O'Brian to Mr. Burton McKinnon Graham on Saturday the 22nd of December, 1923, Shelby, North Carolina.
At home after January 1st, 211 S. DeKalb St., Shelby, North Carolina.

Mr. Clarence Weaver Weds Miss Meeks.
Miss Carrie Meeks and Mr. Clarence Weaver were happily married last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives. Rev. Mr. Stroup officiated, using an impressive ring ceremony.
The bride is the beautiful and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Meeks of Gaffney, S. C. The groom is the son of Mr. John A. Weaver of Shelby. Mr. Weaver holds a responsible position with the Southern Power company at Hickory.
The young couple left for a short bridal trip. Upon their return they will reside in Hickory.

Reid-Newman Marriage.
The marriage of Miss Beatrice Newman and Mr. Guy Reid, was quietly solemnized Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of the bride's mother, Dr. Lemons of the First Baptist church officiating. Only the immediate families and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony. There were no attendants, the bride and groom entering the living room together.
She was becomingly gowned in a blue going away dress with hat and accessories to match. Mr. and Mrs. Reid will make their home in Charlotte where Mr. Reid is prominently connected with a brokerage company.

Dudley-Hartness Nuptials Thursday.
A wedding of much interest was that of Miss May Belle Hartness to Mr. Gordon Dudley, jr. which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hartness on December 27th at 4 o'clock in the presence of the members of the families and a few close friends.

Rev. R. L. Lemons of the First Baptist church officiated.
In the living room where the ceremony was performed was an improvised altar of ferns and other greenery and also an arch of ivy and ferns, and roses, and centered in the middle of the arch was a white wedding bell and on either side candles gleamed. While the guests were assembling a beautiful selection of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Miss Mary Joe Dixon of Greensboro.
Promptly at four o'clock the wedding party advanced to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, "Spring Song" and "Mendelssohn" was softly played during the ceremony. First to enter was the maid of honor, Miss Wilma Hartness looking charming in a dress of blue satin and a lovely blue hat.
The bride entered with the groom. She was gowned in a beautiful brown velvet so becoming to her, and a brown hat, slippers and gloves completed the costume. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for parts of interest in Florida in their car. Upon their return they will be at home in Rutherfordon, N. C.

Charming Dance Wednesday Evening.
A charming holiday "scrip" dance was held in Company K Armory Wednesday evening from nine until one. Among those enjoying the dance besides local people were the young Shelby college set and their holiday visitors, the Laughinghouse-Jenkins bridal party and a number of young folks from Gastonia. Music was furnished by a Charlotte orchestra.

Big Holiday Ball Here This Evening.
What promises to be one of the leading social events of the Yuletide season is the big holiday dance to be given this evening in the Armory. Well-advertised, the ball is expected to attract quite a number of out-of-town young people to the City of Springs. Music will be by the Princess Orchestra.

Gladden-Glenn Wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Gladden announce the marriage of their daughter, Estelle, to Mr. Ben Glenn, Saturday, December 22, 1923. The bride is the young and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Gladden of South Shelby, while the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Glenn of Earl. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Surprise Wedding Of Shelby Couple.
Mr. Zeb Beam and Miss Ila Bumgardner were happily married on Sunday December 16th at the home of Dr. J. W. Wood at Boiling Springs the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. C. Irvin in the presence of only a few friends. The wedding was kept a profound secret until this week when they announced it to their many friends. Mr. Beam is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Beam. He and his brother Enos Beam are proprietors of the New Princess Theatre. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. Frank Bumgardner of South Shelby. Since the news of their wedding has become known, they are receiving congratulations of their many friends.
